When the teachers' examinations were held in Jackson county ten years ago a mere handful of people took them. Five years ago but a small number desired to become teachers. Last year eighty persons of Jackson county signified their intention of becoming instructors by taking the examinations. Eighty was thought to be a well-established record. 1914 lost to 1915, however, by ten. County School Superintendent J. Percy Wells states that a large per cent of those taking the exams were high school graduates. This year tests were more difficult than those of previous years.

New American Note Sent to Germany

The new American note to Germany was sent Thursday. It is about 1,200 words long. While nowhere in it is there any direct intimation of the course which the United States will pursue in the event of another disaster similar to the Lusitania tragedy, there are emphatic statements throughout the communication pointing out that the discussion of the principles involved has been virtually concluded and that future conduct of German submarine commanders will determine the responsibility for the friendly relations between the two countries.

Among the chief points in the note were the following:

1. That the assumption by the United States that Germany, by declaring her submarine warfare to be a retaliatory measure against the alleged unlawful acts of her enemies, has admitted that the destruction of unresisting merchantmen without warning is illegal.

2. German submarine commanders already have proved that they can save the passengers and crews of vessels and can act in conformity with the laws of humanity in making war on enemy ships.

3. The United States cannot allow the relations between the belligerents to operate in any way as an abbreviation of the rights of neutrals, and therefore any violation of the principles for which the American government contends resulting in a loss of American lives will be viewed as "unfriendly."

4. The representations which the American government has made in previous notes for disavowal of the intention to sink the Lusitania with Americans aboard and the request for reparation are reiterated with renewed insistence.

5. The American government realizes the unusual and abnormal conditions which the present conflict has created in the conduct of maritime war and is willing to act as an intermediary as between the belligerents to arrange a modus vivendi or any other temporary arrangements which do not involve a surrender by the United States of its rights.

6. The proposals made by Germany to give immunity to American ships not carrying contraband, and to four belligerent ships under the American flag, are rejected with the emphatic assertion that to accept such suggestion would be to admit Germany's right to set aside the American contention based on fundamental principles in international law—that neutrals may travel anywhere on the high seas on unresisting ships of any nationality even if carrying contraband.

We think that we give to our boys what thoughtful parents wish. Our graduates enter, on recommendation, institutions that admit on certificate and on examination (see page 14 of our catalogue) to Harvard, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Yale, whose admission requirements are most severe. Send for our beautifully illustrated catalogue, which gives not only a very good idea of the spirit and purpose of the school, but of its equipment and its attractive school home. Nothing, however, can quite take the place of a visit to the school. W. T. REID, Head Master, Box J, Belmont, Cal.
