

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Good Aim

To hit the mark of successful endeavor requires good aim.

Are you aiming for financial protection in old age?

Bank your money with us.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Royal Arch Masons Siskiyou Chapter No. 21

Stated convocation of Siskiyou Chapter, No. 21, R. A. M., this (Thursday) evening, October 21, 1915. Important business. Visiting companions cordially welcome.

W. H. McNAIR, H. P.
W. H. DAY, Sec'y.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

F. D. Swingle is making a business visit in Klamath Falls.

Hills Bros. coffee at the Ashland Trading Company.

Miss Hope Burdick is employed in the state library at Salem.

Miss Margaret O'Neil was a visitor from Hornbrook last week.

Shirley Keene, dancing. Memorial hall. Phone 702-R. 43-tf

A. T. Brown of Medford transacted business in the city Tuesday.

Don't fail to hear Parlette tonight at the M. E. church.

William Marmion was a business visitor from Medford Tuesday.

Stone jars, one to six gallons, Ashland Trading Company.

F. B. Sanger has returned from a visit at the San Francisco exposition.

A course of millinery has been instituted in the Medford high school.

W. B. corsets, both back and front lace, $1 to $3.50. Ashland Trading Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrin left Sunday for San Francisco and the exposition.

Four cars of lumber were shipped from Grants Pass to the east the last of the week.

A. S. Rosenbaum, Southern Pacific agent at Medford, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Ruby Palmer was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klum in Medford over Sunday.

Nice new line of toques, all colors and sizes, 50c to $1.50, at the Ashland Trading Company.

M. C. Reed has traded his car and some cash to H. G. Butterfield for the latter's Reo.

Miss Nona Hall of Hornbrook came over last Friday for a visit with friends in the city.

Best yet—corduroy pants, made by a specialty corduroy pant house, at $2.50, $3 and $3.50. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Will of Klamath Falls were registered at the Oregon Hotel Tuesday.

Mrs. W. J. Dobson, who has been in the city for some time, left yesterday for Woodburn.

It may be just what you want at this time—a suit of clothes made absolutely to your liking for $15, $18 or $20. See Mitchell & Whittle.

Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. Ed Watson of Butte Falls visited Ashland friends the first of the week.

A. P. Deacon of Willows, Cal., was in the city Monday, visiting friends and attending to business affairs.

Saunders Bros. are furnishing the Southern Pacific commissary with celery at the Ashland supply station.

New crop extracted honey at the Ashland Trading Company.

Our Hallowe'en Goods

Crepe Dinner Favors, each 10c
Place Cards, dozen 25c
Hallowe'en Pie Plates, dozen 35c
Decorated Crepe Paper, roll 25c
Hallowe'en Napkins, hundred 50c
Hallowe'en 500 Score Cards, dozen 25c
Hallowe'en Party Invitations, dozen 35c
Hallowe'en Post Cards and Booklets

See Our Window

Poley's Drug Store
Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

Miss Nona Greer returned Wednesday from a few days' visit to her ranch property in northern California.

Mrs. M. White returned last Saturday from Grants Pass, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Armentrout.

Several local shotgun artists are planning to leave at an early date for the Klamath Lake duck hunting grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Houser of Urbana, Ill., are visiting relatives in the city. Mrs. Houser is a sister of Mrs. R. L. Burdick.

Mr. and Mrs. George Owens left Tuesday evening for San Francisco, where they will visit and attend the exposition festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Miller leave today for a few weeks' visit at the exhibitions and to visit in Sacramento and Los Angeles.

J. A. Boyd and his father, J. S. Boyd, left Tuesday evening for Dinuba, Cal., where the latter will make his home with his son.

Mrs. W. W. Blalock went to Portland Saturday, where she will meet her husband, who is returning from a business trip to Calgary.

Scott V. Davis, who is organizing a personally conducted tour to the San Francisco exposition, was up from Medford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leader Gotes of Auburn, Ill., were recent visitors at the home of Joseph Poley in the city. Mr. Gotes and Mr. Poley are cousins.

H. G. Gilmore, who was injured two weeks ago when he fell over a telegraph pole lying across the sidewalk, is able to be about the house.

The Roseburg authorities have started an active campaign against auto speeders and have hauled up over a score before the police court.

More new hats came in this week. This bunch is a new shape in dark blue. All sizes, $3 each. Mitchell & Whittle.

Charles H. Wille, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moser and Miss Dorothy Moser of Portland composed a tourist party which arrived in Ashland Monday for a brief stay.

They can't beat the line of Globe union suits. We have them in several weights and grades at $1.25 to $3.50. Mitchell & Whittle.

R. E. Jope of Roseburg, vice-president of the state board of the Christian church, is in Ashland and other valley cities attending to church business this week.

It is easy to find just what you want in shirts, either dress or wool, and at a price to please you, at Mitchell & Whittle's.

Mrs. J. K. Reader and niece, Miss Fannie Gamble, arrived Sunday from Santa Rosa. The latter will make a stay of an indefinite length with her aunt in Ashland.

Hobb Deuel of Medford has been appointed second lieutenant of the Medford militia company. Hob will now be more popular than ever with the Ashland girls.

Ralph Parlette will lecture at the M. E. church tonight at 8:30. Every young man in Ashland should hear him.

The Rogue River Canal Company put 75 men at work on the Phoenix irrigation ditch the first of the week. The same company has 200 men at work at Fish Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Satchwell are the proud parents of a baby boy. The youngster arrived Sunday morning and weighed 8 1/2 pounds. Mother and baby are doing well.

C. H. Vaupel returned home Monday morning from California, where he and Mrs. Vaupel have been enjoying the expositions. Mrs. Vaupel will follow in a few days.

Breadmaking is easy with good flour. "Apple Blossom" flour makes more good rich white bread than any other and is guaranteed. Your money's worth or your money back. Ashland Trading Company. Phone 122.

LADIES' COATS
Still a choice of fifty good coats from 16.75 9.50 to.....

FLANNELETTE SACQUES
Choice of values to $1.00..... 49c
Choice of values to $1.50..... 75c

GOODWIN CORSETS Front Lace
Closing a few high grade Corsets, $6.00 to $10.00 values, at..... $3.95

$3.00 Wool Batt $2.19
Our Harvest Sale price cleaned out every one of our $1.95 wool batts but we have too many of the higher priced ones left. Hence a lower price now.

25 Suits Must Go Out This Month

Still lower prices for the end of the Harvest Sale and for the balance of this month.

Choice of three dozen suits 16.50, 18.75, 22.50

Cotton Batting
Special Prices Continues

1.25 3-lb. very fine fluffy batt 1.00
1.00 3-lb. splendid quality batt 85c
Good 3-lb full size batt now 75c
Fine batt, last year's price 35c now..... 25c
American batt, last years price 25c 22c
Fluffy batt, last year's price 20c 17

14 Suits Worth $22.50 Now $16.50
10 Suits Worth to $25.00 Now $18.75
12 Suits Worth $27.50 and $30.00, Now $22.50

McGee's
Agents Gossard Corsets Graduate Corsetiere. Phone for appointment now.

LANTERN DAY

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22

We purchased about 100 Lanterns for less than their worth. On the above day (for cash) we will place these on sale.

$1.50 Driving Lantern $1.19
1.25 Large Tubular Lantern99
1.25 Large Driving Lantern89
1.10 Ladies' Lantern89

On Saturday, October 23rd, we will hold another Big Stove Sale. Do you think it will be warm all winter? It won't! You will save money by attending this sale and selecting your heater or range. A deposit will enable you to secure the low prices. Later you can pay the balance and have the stove set up.

We will continue to encourage Cash Buying by offering Hardware and Plumbing lower than other houses in Jackson county. Come in and see if we are telling the truth.

We are still giving Enamelware Cards. When you buy for cash to the amount of $3.00 you may select any piece of Enamelware in the house at one-half the regular price.

WARNER,
THE LOW PRICE HARDWARE MAN

Phone 146 375 East Main Street

It's a real pleasure to have a man call for a good, staple and conservative shape, all-leather shoe, for we have the goods at $4, $4.50 and $5. Mitchell & Whittle.

A car of Spitzenberg apples was shipped from the valley Monday by the Rogue River Fruit and Produce Association. For the first grade apples $1.65 was received and for the second grade $1.40 f. o. b. Medford.

The historic old Del Coronado Hotel at Sisson and a block of lodging houses and residences burned Monday night. The total loss is estimated at $30,000. The cause of the fire remains a mystery.

The State Editorial Association will meet in its annual conclave in Salem on November 5 and 6. Governor Withycombe will be among the speakers who will address the association.

Dr. and Mrs. Julian P. Johnson have returned to Ashland after a stay of several months in Grants Pass. Dr. Johnson has taken offices in the Commercial Club building. They will reside in the Rapp house on Oak street.

The Doris Times records the fact that there are nine weekly newspapers published in Siskiyou county, California. In looking over our exchanges we find that there are two dailies, one semi-weekly and six weeklies published in Jackson county.

Mrs. George Siemantel and daughter, Miss Margaret, left last Monday for Canadian, Texas, where they will join Mr. Siemantel. They have resided in Ashland for the past four years and will be greatly missed by a wide circle of friends.

A $6,000 stallion bound from the San Francisco exposition, where he took the world's championship at the recent livestock show, to Seattle, was on a private car on train 16 Tuesday. The horse attracted a big crowd of admirers of horseflesh while in the Ashland station.

Walter Phillips writes from Bisbee, Ariz., that a couple of Mexicans tried to run a switch engine from that place over the border into Mexico, but ran into an open switch instead and came to grief. Several battles have been fought just over the line from Bisbee.

J. H. Graham, who was recently forced by circumstances to place his business, The Sterling Company, in the hands of a trustee, left this morning for Portland. His business affairs here were said to be in very satisfactory shape, Mr. Graham being the only loser by his stay in the city.

The Beaver Real Estate Agency recently consummated a deal whereby O. Booth, a local employe of the Southern Pacific Company, comes into possession of the residence property at the corner of B and Eighth streets, formerly owned by Mrs. P. F. Whitmore, who is now in Buena, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hardy have returned from a visit to their son at Richmond, Cal., and a few days spent at the San Francisco exposition. Mr. Hardy's son, who conducted the Polytechnic school here for the year prior to its closing, is now head of a branch of the Oakland Polytechnic at Richmond.

Walter Bowne and Leonard Carpenter of Medford passed through Ashland early in the week en route home from a hunting trip in the Lake of the Woods section. They came through Dead Indian from the lake in their automobile and report the road between the county line and the lake to be a fright.

L. H. Newton of Hornbrook was over last week and bought five rigs from the remnants of the E. E. Phipps vehicle stock. Kenneth McWilliams towed the buggies over the mountain with M. C. Reed's Cadillac. On the return trip Mac picked up a few dollars by snaking a tourist car which could not make the grade on the other side.

"The fortunes of the orchardists of the Rogue River valley are peculiarly wrapped up with the fruit auction system found in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Kansas City, Detroit, New Orleans and in Europe," said Arthur M. Geary at a mass meeting of orchardists at the Medford public library Saturday afternoon.

Service. Yes, they have it, and to the fullest meaning of the word—those heavy, ventilated work shirts at $1. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Barneburg returned Wednesday from a three weeks' visit in California, two weeks of which was spent at the exposition and one week at San Luis Obispo.

In stamped goods we have ladies' kimonos, combination suits, slipover nightgowns, bouroir caps, pillow tops and table runners to match. Royal Society crochet and tatting thread in white and colors, all numbers, 10c a ball. Ashland Trading Company.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Vining returned Wednesday to their Los Angeles home after a three months' visit in Ashland. The Vinings accompanied the Winter family home in their car last spring and have been spending the summer visiting friends and relatives in the city and in camping trips.

Miss Mabel Blake of the Dead Indian country, who was married to Forrest Emery, a rancher of the district east of Talent, yesterday, was the guest of Mrs. O. Winter while in Ashland.

Vining Theatre

Extra Added Attraction

Two Nights Commencing Mon. Oct. 25th

Punch Jones Ragtime Opera and Minstrels--Band and Orchestra

15-Colored Artists--15

Buck and Wing Dancers
Plantation Singers
Ragtime and Opera

PRICES 25c and 35c
Band Concert and Parade High Noon