

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. H. Monroe and wife of Portland spent Sunday in the city.

$1.50 makes that old suit look like new. Paulserud & Barrett.

M. J. Houseman was a business visitor to Medford Saturday.

Chill for that chilly feeling at Rose Bros.

Miss Eleanor Hicks visited friends in Medford Saturday afternoon.

C. F. Crompton and wife of Spokane, Wash., Sundayed in the city.

Eat Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the Royal Cafe. 11*

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler made a business trip to Jacksonville Friday.

Thanksgiving turkeys. Public market.

Have your suit cleaned and pressed at Paulserud & Barrett's for Thanksgiving.

The Phoenix tax budget for the coming year calls for an 18 1/2-mill levy.

Another shipment of dishes at the 5, 10 and 15 Cent Store. 52-3t

Mrs. Pearl Kearney left last Thursday for Portland, where she will visit for two weeks.

Mrs. Updegraff will serve a turkey dinner at the Ashland Hotel restaurant Thanksgiving day for 35c. 1t

Mrs. J. W. Haskins was a visitor with friends on Foote creek the first of last month.

Big special cash sale! Full particulars in next issue. White House Grocery. 1t

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith of Dunsmuir arrived for a brief visit in Ashland Saturday.

Suits cleaned and pressed by experts at Paulserud & Barrett's.

Mr. Dana has moved his music studio from the Camps building to 130 East Main street.

Mexican chili, hot tamales, oyster cocktails, cold weather specials, at Rose Bros.

Mrs. J. E. Boswell and Mrs. Clara Hawk of Central Point were visitors in Ashland last week.

Some of Butler's superb chocolates will top off your Thanksgiving dinner royally. 1t

Mrs. J. V. Miller is visiting friends in Klamath Falls, her home before she became Mrs. Miller.

Tickets for the Thanksgiving football at Butler's, Rose Bros. and Charley Loomis'. 1t

Mrs. Clara Rhodes Engle is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. L. Irwin. Her home is in Binger, Okla.

Shirley Keene, dancing. Memorial hall. Phone 702-R. 43-4f

John Lemos of Little Shasta was in the city the last of the week looking after business interests.

Telephone 420-J for dry tier wood, $2. 49-9f

Counellman E. V. Medynski of Medford was a visitor in the city for a short while Friday evening.

Tickets for the Thanksgiving football at Butler's, Rose Bros. and Charley Loomis'. 1t

J. W. Hicks who has been very low on account of an attack of heart trouble, is improving in health.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Civic Club will have a parcel post bazaar at Provost Brothers' store on Thursday, December 2, afternoon and evening. 52-3t

Fireman Fred Duty of the Southern Pacific Company has returned from the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco and is undergoing treatment at the Sanitarium.

Johnny McMichael of the S. P. roundhouse force has been in poor health lately and is taking a needed rest.

G. C. Culy and his sister, Miss Upson, of this city visited friends in Grants Pass last week, returning Friday.

Why send your suit out of town to have it cleaned and pressed when Paulserud & Barrett will give you better satisfaction.

Horace Reeser drove 125 head of cattle over into northern California last week, where he will pasture them for the winter.

Baptist ladies' Thanksgiving market at Holmes Bros. Wednesday, November 24, beginning at 10 o'clock. 1t

Mrs. G. D. Flegler and son Carl of Pomona, Cal., arrived Friday and are visiting at the F. P. Schneider home just south of the city.

Eat your Mexican chill in the Dutch dish at Rose Bros.

The Congregational church ladies met with good success with their food sale which was held at the public market last Saturday afternoon.

If you know the way to Rose Bros., you know your way to the best chicken tamales in town.

The present spell of unsettled weather has resulted in a prevalence of colds and several cases of influenza.

Take it easy. Eat turkey Thanksgiving at the Royal Cafe. 11*

Willard Marks, county clerk of Linn county, who makes his home in Albany, was in the city Saturday and called on his old friend, M. C. Reed.

Tickets for the Thanksgiving football at Butler's, Rose Bros. and Charley Loomis'. 1t

W. F. Caldwell, formerly employed in the Western Union telegraph office here, is now working for the same company in Klamath Falls.

Rose Bros. have the chill killers—tamales, chili, oyster cocktails.

H. Everett of New Westminster, B. C., was a visitor in the city Sunday and is transacting business in the vicinity today.

The Royal Cafe will serve a big Thanksgiving Turkey dinner. 11*

J. A. Bingamar of Imbler, Ore., was a visitor in the city over the weekend and is transacting business in the vicinity of Ashland today.

Real Mexican chill in the Dutch dish at Rose Bros.

F. E. Jordan of Brownsville was in town Saturday renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Jordan was formerly a bookkeeper at the Ashland creamery.

Monster special cash sale! Watch White House ad next issue. 1t

J. D. Williams was among the ranchers from the extreme upper end of the valley who transacted business in the city Saturday.

Your Thanksgiving dinner will be incomplete without a few of Butler's salted almonds, mints and delicious chocolates. 1t

Miss Alma Wrenn of Prineville, Ore., visited in the city for a few days last week and left for Medford Thursday.

Tickets for the Thanksgiving football at Butler's, Rose Bros. and Charley Loomis'. 1t

W. T. Stidman and his mother, Mrs. Daisy Stidman, of Central Point, motored up last Friday and spent the afternoon in the city.

Thanksgiving turkeys. Public market.

Judge C. B. Watson was a visitor to Medford Thursday and spent the day visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson were visitors from Dunsmuir last week. Mr. Johnson is a shoemaker and formerly operated a shop in Ashland.

Prof. G. A. Briscoe journeyed to Agate last Wednesday, where he addressed the newly organized Agate Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. Ellis Neil, nee Miss Irene Barrett, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the city for the past two weeks, returned to her home at Dorris Friday.

Mrs. Louis Howard, who was operated upon at the Medford hospital recently and has been in a very serious condition, is reported as being greatly improved.

E. E. Bagley, who moved from here to his ranch near Rogue river last year, was in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Billings returned Thursday from a three weeks' sojourn in California. Their trip included visits at San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Butler's confectionery have complete lines of salted nuts, candies, mints and everything necessary for the finish of your Thanksgiving dinner.

Public market for Thanksgiving turkeys.

D. B. Quick, sister Mrs. N. E. Vincent and son Chester Vincent of Portland are in Ashland for the benefit of Mr. Quick's health. They are rooming on upper Granite street.

Harry Hosler and wife and Walter Pierson and wife returned Saturday morning from a week's visit at the exposition, which they proclaim to be "a great show."

J. J. Wood, wife and daughter of Ho, Idaho, were tourist visitors returning from the exposition who spent Sunday in the city and renewed the acquaintance of old friends.

D. M. Lowe returned last week from Portland, where he captured many awards with his exhibit. He stopped off en route home for a visit with his daughter, Miss Hazel, who is teaching at Gold Hill.

The public market did a thriving business Saturday. Several ranchers brought in their produce to the market for the first time Saturday. Some came from as far away as Central Point.

Avery Trask and Lyle Carleton drove to Roseburg Friday night in the former's big sixty-horse Pope and returned Saturday. They found the roads to be muddy, but made good time both ways.

The Business Men's Association meets tonight at Hodgson & Reed's real estate office. Several important matters will come up for consideration and a good attendance is expected.

A tailor knows how a suit is built and is better equipped to press it than is a novice. Paulserud & Barrett clean and press your suit right for $1.50.

James Vance, Earl Hubbard, Hob Deuel, Frank Ray, Herbert Strang, Leon Speck, Tom Scantlin and several other Medford young men attended the Memorial hall dance Saturday night.

Hornbrook Leader: Henry Huenegardt, from Ashland, Ore., has built a four-room cottage on the Pacific highway, near the Hornbrook garage, and opened therein a shoe and harness repairing shop.

Of course a dress suit is nice, but the Thanksgiving ball does not necessarily require one. Let Paulserud & Barrett clean and press your blue serge and you will make as good an appearance as anyone.

Eugene Register: Mrs. M. E. Bowers of Ashland was yesterday discharged from Mercy hospital. She will remain at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Shelley, for several days.

Medford Tribune: E. Hart of Ashland is nodding good-naturedly at his Medford friends today—but he insists that his reported plunge into the billows of matrimony in northern California recently is the result of mistaken identity.

N. W. Bone, a Hood River orchardist, harvested 5,000 boxes of apples from 400 trees. This is an exceptionally big yield, considering the fact that the crop throughout the northwest was scant. The orchard was 12 years old. Irrigation.

Mrs. Myra McNeil, who has been residing at her Oak street residence and renewing old acquaintances in the city for the past month, returned to her home in Portland last Saturday. Mrs. McNeil hopes to return in the not far distant future and make her permanent home in Ashland.

Store Closed All Day McGee's Thanksgiving Day

WHY GOODS

Buy Your Thanksgiving Linens at Special Prices

Linens are scarce and much higher in price and an offer at this time of an opportunity to buy them at special prices should interest every woman.

Handsome Bordered Cloths with napkins to match.	Plain and fancy bulk toweling for gift making.
Linen damask by the yard.	New 18-inch linen damask for towels and dresser scarfs.
Mercerized Damask.	All these lines we are closing out to make room for a larger ready-to-wear dept.

The Stock Reducing Sale

Continues as advertised, all this month and on many lines will continue until closed out.

All piece goods that have not been reduced before will bear a 10 per cent discount for the balance of this month.

Take advantage of this sale

Eskay Gloves $1.50	Derby Semi-Dress Gloves $1.75	Redfern, the new washable kid gloves, $1.00	Kayser Gloves	Chamoisette and Leatherette 50c, 60c, $1.00	Gossard Corsets Front Lace $2.00 up.	American Lady Corsets, front or back lace $1.00 up.	Lackawana Twins the new wool union suit for children and a good one, too, $1.00.
---------------------	--------------------------------	----------------------------------------------	---------------	----------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Before the Thanksgiving game get one of our Sweater Coats and a Toque. They are the proper thing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ashcraft moved to Medford Saturday and will spend the winter in that city. Mr. Ashcraft is one of the Interurban autocar drivers and a change in schedule made the change of residence necessary.

$1.50 cleans and presses your suit. Paulserud & Barrett.

E. N. Butler makes a fruit centered chocolate which is the most delicious confection you ever tasted. Strawberry, pineapple, peach and a great variety of centers. Ask for them at Butler's confectionery. 1t

A big Thanksgiving dinner at the Royal Cafe. 11*

After visiting her mother's people in Ohio and her son, R. B. Studebaker, in North Carolina, and finding the climate too warm, Mrs. Studebaker has returned to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Smith, 954 Boulevard, in this city.

Turkeys, geese. Public market.

The many University of Oregon graduates in Ashland were overjoyed when the returns of the O. A. C. Oregon football game came in last Saturday. O. A. C. boosters and backers were correspondingly despondent. Reason: Score of 9-0 in favor of the U. of O.

Superintendent G. A. Briscoe of the local schools delivered the opening address at the meeting of the Schoolmasters' Club of Jackson county, held at Jacksonville Saturday last. A good attendance and some interesting talks and discussions made the session a most profitable one.

Mrs. J. M. Casebeer leaves this week for the exposition, where she will spend a few days and then continue her journey south to Los Angeles, where she will visit her son Chauncey, who is attending dental college in the southern California city.

As I have bought Bressler's stock of plows and extras, I will be able to furnish you with shares and repairs for that kind of plows.—Emil Peil.

Watch for White House ad in next issue for special cash sale prices. 1t

SPECIAL NOTICE

On and after December 1, 1915

The Ashland Feed & Grocery

Will do business strictly on a CASH BASIS

Lower Prices

Will be made possible by the elimination of unpaid accounts which under the credit system are eventually paid by the GOOD PAY people.

Get Our Prices at the Store

J. N. DENNIS

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Thankful For The Saving Habit

Everyone who has acquired the saving habit has much to be thankful for—it instills thrift, insures prosperity and makes happier homes wherever practiced.

Your account is invited.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Thanksgiving Sale of All Linens

including our entire line of Table Damasks, Handkerchief Linen, Waist Linen, Guest Toweling, Lunch Cloths, Plain and Fancy Huck Towels, Linen Scarfs and Linen Napkins, ALL AT MONEY-SAVING PRICES. BUY NOW.

$500.00 worth of Drummer Sample Piece Linen on sale at a trifle above the wholesale prices. These values are never to be duplicated.

TABLE LINENS	Another Sample Line Ladies' Sweaters on Sale	BEDSPREADS
All Reduced	EXTRA SPECIAL	On Sale
35c quality now..... 25c	10 dozen Sample Towels, in All-Linen, quality guaranteed, many different kinds to choose from, in plain Huck or patterned, in hemmed or hemstitched, values to 40c, extra special your choice 24c	$1.00 values now..... 75c
45c quality now..... 33c	FERGUSON'S	$1.25 values now..... 98c
60c quality now..... 44c	THE BARGAIN STORE	$1.50 values now..... $1.19
65c quality now..... 48c	"Where It Pays To Pay Cash"	$1.75 values now..... $1.49
75c quality now..... 59c		$2.00 values now..... $1.69
$1.00 quality now..... 69c		$2.50 values now..... $1.98
$1.25 quality now..... 98c		$3.00 values now..... $2.49
$1.50 quality now..... $1.19		$3.50 values now..... $2.98
$1.75 quality now..... $1.29		$4.00 values now..... $3.39
Napkins to match, all linen, from 98c a yard and up, at sale prices also.		In hemmed or scalloped, with cut corners.
		Qualities are crocheted and marcales.