

In the Social Realm

Mrs. Hugh Gillette, J. Loomis and Roy Anderson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lehman and Mr. LaRout last Friday at Talent.

Mrs. George Cyster and sons Millard and Edward of this city were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hart at Talent last Thursday.

The Misses Catherine and Lizette Greenleaf, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Sam McNair, left for their home in Kansas City Monday morning.

Monday Embroidery Club.

The Monday Embroidery Club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Boslough this week and spent a pleasant afternoon with needles and thread. Light refreshments were served.

Box Social.

Members of the local Brotherhood of American Yeomen will participate in a box social which is to be given by the lodge of that fraternity at Talent, February 1, in Odd Fellows hall.

Elks Lay Plans.

The local lodge of Elks are already laying plans for their big March anniversary event, which is one of the biggest events of the year in local lodges.

Chautauqua Park Club.

The Chautauqua Park Club will hold a special meeting at their club rooms in Chautauqua hall Friday afternoon, January 28, at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

I. O. O. F. Official Will Visit.

The grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Oregon will visit subordinate lodges in Jackson county, February 19 to 15. Ashland, Talent, Medford, Jacksonville and Central Point will be the points visited.

Choral Club.

The Choral Club held their first meeting Monday night in Memorial hall. Mrs. E. N. Andrews of Medford was in charge of the meeting. Installation of officers was as follows: Mrs. Sylvan Provost, president; Mrs. D. D. Norris, librarian; Mrs. Clark Bush, secretary.

Announcement.

Mrs. L. W. Owen, founder of the American Boosters' Club and author of the life of "Mary Had a Little Lamb," will speak in the Christian church on Sunday evening at 7:30. Subject, "Two Sides of Life." Come and bring the children. Mrs. Owens has been a platform speaker for forty years.

McPherson-Jaquish.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Verna Evelyn Jaquish to Alexander McPherson, Jr., at Ontario, Ore. Miss Jaquish is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jaquish and lived in Ashland for several years, where Mr. Jaquish was engaged in the contracting business. The marriage occurred January 16.

At Neil Creek.

On last Tuesday evening quite a number of Neil Creek people and others gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Morris to spend a few hours in the very popular amusement of dancing. The event was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker of Prospect, who have been visiting the Homes and Tucker families of that vicinity. Light refreshments were served and all present report a very enjoyable time.

H. O. Purucker's Sister Married.

Word has been received in this city of the marriage of Miss Helen Purucker, sister of H. O. Purucker of this city and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Purucker of Medford, to Frederick Reinecke of Pittsburg, Pa. Miss Purucker is a graduate of the Medford high school. For the last year she has been in New York city taking a musical course. The couple will make their home in Pittsburg, where Mr. Reinecke is in business.

Will Form Club.

Invitations are out for a dance at Memorial hall Thursday evening, January 27. The organization of a young people's dancing club will be discussed. Among the names heard in connection with the club are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stevenson, D. D. Norris, Monte Briggs, E. L. Rasor and others. The object is the formation of a club from young married couples and the young bachelors of Ashland.

Thimble Club.

Mrs. C. C. Cunningham entertained the Thimble Club last Friday afternoon, the affair occurring on Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham's wedding anniversary. A short program, including solos by Mrs. C. B. Wolf, Miss Gertrude Biede and Little Miss Carolyn Cunningham were met with calls for "encore" until the soloists refused to appear again. Dainty refreshments were served. The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. H. O. Frohbach next Friday.

Birthdays.

Ten of the little folks of the Bellevue district gathered at the home of Kenneth Miller last Friday to help him celebrate his fourth birthday. After a couple of merry hours spent with games the little folk gathered around a well-laden table upon which a high birthday cake, properly arrayed with candles, was the center attraction. Those present were Hugh Bates, Raymond Bowers, Bernard Joy, Dick Joy, Vena Joy, Wilbur Chapman, Dorothy Chapman, Roland York, Lolida Pierson and Irma Pierson.

Musical Afternoon.

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Helene Casey entertained a number of her friends at her Pioneer avenue home, the afternoon being dubbed a musical by those who attended. Miss Edna Dougherty entertained with piano selections and Miss Gertrude Biede delighted her friends with several vocal solos. A victrola concert occupied the remainder of the afternoon. Luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present besides Miss Casey were Misses Edna and Myrtle Dougherty, Misses Gertrude and Helen Biede, Lydia McCall, Georgia Coffee, Effie Carland and Calla Biegel. The afternoon was very much enjoyed and those present look forward to a similar affair to be held in the future.

Auxiliary Club.

Ivy Cottage was barely large enough to hold the merry crowd which held forth last Monday evening at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary Club, and was far from large enough to hold the sounds of merriment which emanated from the gathering. The early portion of the evening was taken up with the regular business meeting and was followed by a merry evening of fun. The choral class arrived in a body from their rehearsal at Memorial hall and entertained both themselves and the club members already there with songs and stunts of various sorts. Dainty refreshments were served, adding the finishing touch to a jolly evening. The hostesses were Mesdames L. W. Maxey and F. B. Tracy.

Alberta farm for rent, 640 acres. See W. D. Hodgson, corner Oak and Main streets, Ashland, Ore. 70-4t

Tom Thumb Wedding at Vining Theatre This Friday Evening

The arrangements for the Tom Thumb Wedding to take place during the performance of "In the Land of Makebelieve," to be given at the Vining Friday evening, January 28, at 8 o'clock, which will be one of the brilliant events of the year, are rapidly nearing completion, and the children who are taking part show great adaptability for the parts. The rehearsals have about all been given and every tot is letter and march perfect. An elaborate wedding procession, in which 100 wee ones are to march in grown-up clothes, will be a part of the festivities, and the ceremony will be most impressive and beautiful. Master Raymond Fillmore Norris and Jean Maxine Wolf as the diminutive groom and dainty bride are taking the wish with ease, and the little guests are coming in large numbers from all parts to attend the grand affair. All our home tots are agog over the big banquet or wedding feast.

Our merchants are taking a great interest. Already Rose Bros. have donated the ice cream banquet. The Vienna bakery has made and donated a beautiful wedding cake, which is now on exhibition in its windows. Studio Ashland has taken, gratis, photos of the tots in their grown-up clothes, to be seen now in its window. O. H. Johnson, our mayor, has donated the wedding ring and has it in his window with Cupid and the bridegroom's photo. The Ashland Greenhouse has donated the bouquets for bride and bridesmaids, and floral decorations. Same can be seen in Rose Bros' window. W. B. Talcott of the Canyon Press donated the wedding invitations. W. Y. Crowson has donated some confections which will please the children. J. H. Kohagen of the 5, 10 and 15 cent store the envelopes. All our merchants have given space in their windows for our photos and advertisements. The newspapers have given publicity. All in all, such interest is being shown that guarantees this to be the big society event of the season.

Minister officiating Elber Bush
Ring bearer Beatrice Black
Maid of honor M. Harriet Bevington
Bridesmaid Carolyn Cunningham
Bridesmaid Dorothy Hall
Best man Armand Dale Norris
Mother of bride Gertrude Cain
Father of bride Wilbur Dickerson
Old maid aunt with black cat Paul Zeld Monroe
Rejected Auten Bush
Important friends assisting with guests
Foss Kramer, Sanford Rose, William Dana
Master Julian Barrett Violin Solo
Miss Mary Young, Piano Accompanist.
Teacher of Piano, Ashland, Ore.

"Here Comes the Bride" Miss Emma Earle, Pianist
Miss Dorothy Wright, song "There's a Little Spark of Love Still Burning"
Assisted to stage by Master Anthony Muller.
Zelda Monroe, a reading "The Old Maid Aunt"
Master Everett McGee, song "Where the Red Roses Grow"
Miss Bernice Yeo, Piano Accompanist.
Miss Marjorie Whited, song "I Love You Truly"
"When You're in Love With Someone Who is Not in Love With You"
Assisted to stage by Master Charles Dana.
Master Kenneth Millican "My Sister's Best Fellow"
Miss Marguerite Friswold, song "I Love You Truly"
Assisted to stage by Everett McGee.
Donald Caldwell A Talk on George Washington
Miss Elbert Greer
Assisted to stage by Master George Johnson.
Miss Marguerite Friswold, song "Tulip Time in Holland"
Assisted with chorus.
Miss Marjorie Wolf, reading "The Same Old Chestnut"
Assisted to stage by Master Raymond Cotter.
Master Kay Frederick Nell, song "Daisies Went and Told On Me"
Miss Bernice Yeo, Pianist.
Piano duet, Miss Margaret Johnson and Miss Margaret McCoy, pupils of Mrs. J. R. Robertson, teacher of piano, Ashland, Ore.
Master George Steven Johnson, vocal selection
Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Accompanist.

Wedding banquet. Miss Margaret Johnson cuts the wedding cake.
Miss Lillian Greer announces program.
Assist with program: Miss Freda Butterfield, Miss Lillian Greer, Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Margaret McCoy
Dorris Montgomery, Kay Frederick Nell.
Eis Rose, Virginia Rose.
Gretchen Meyers, Merial Rose.
Evelyn Miller, Kenneth Millican.
Marjorie Whited, Charles Dana.
Dorothy Wright, Anthony Muller.
Charles Swanson, Genevieve Swendenburg.
Clyde Murphy, Harriett Wilson.
Kenneth Brown, Louise Blackstone.
Everett McGee, Marguerite Friswold.
Donald Caldwell, Eleanore Swendenburg.
Nellie Olds, Gerald Millican.
Everett Parslow, Grace Coombs.
John Ruger.
Jonnie Melvin Van Landingham.
John Churchman.
Marjorie Wolf, Raymond Cotter.
Robert Walters, Ida Gunter.
Elbert Greer, George Steven Johnson.
Margaret Potter, William Dana.
Floy Walters, Sanford Rose.
Gladys Cole.
Margaret Johnson.
Julian Barrett.
Margaret McCoy.

Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting for the purpose of launching a movement in response to the proclamation of President Wilson, setting January 27, 1916, as Jewish relief day, will be held at the Baptist church under the auspices of the Ashland Ministerial Union. Time, 8 o'clock this evening.

Following is the program:
Songs.
Prayer by Rev. Blackstone.
Song.
Opening remarks by the chairman, Rev. Farquhar.
Address by Dr. Brower.
Discussion opened by Rev. Smith.
Appointment of committees.
Taking of collection and pledges.
Adjournment.

Everyone should come and learn why the president, at the solicitation of the senate of the United States, issued the proclamation as he did. If he had asked you to do some great thing would you not do it?
COMMITTEE.

The Teacup Club of the M. E. church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. George Kramer Tuesday afternoon February 1. Hostesses, Mesdames Kramer, Chattin, Miller and Miss Jessie Mathes.

Mrs. Clifford Jenkins returned to Ashland yesterday after a several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson, at Grants Pass. She was accompanied by her little daughter.

Suits cleaned and pressed, $1, at Paulserud & Barrett's.

VINING THEATRE

Sat. Jan. 29

MATINEE and EVENING

Chas. Chaplin

'Work' His Latest Two-Reel Essanay COMEDY

Also 3-Reel Vitagraph Feature

Admission 10 and 15 cents

STAGE AND SCREEN.

COMING EVENTS.
Friday—Lyceum course lecture, Judge Alden, Methodist church.
Friday—Tom Thumb Wedding, auspices Civic Improvement Club, Vining Theatre.
Thursday (tonight)—Basketball, A. H. S. vs. C. A. C., armory.
Thursday (tonight)—Informal dance and organization dancing club, Memorial hall.
Friday afternoon—Thimble Club entertained by Mrs. H. O. Frohbach.

Mrs. Maria Kendall.
The remains of Mrs. Maria Kendall, who died last Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Abbie Thomas, in Medford, were brought here on Wednesday for interment in Mountain View cemetery. The deceased was a widow eighty years of age. Her other two daughters are Mrs. Aaron Andrews of Corvallis and Mrs. Josephine Poley of Ashland. She was the wife of Reese P. Kendall, lecturer and author, who among other works wrote the "Pacific Trail Camp Fires." The family lived at Medford most of the time, but were frequent visitors here and well known by a wide circle of friends.

A nicely pressed suit adds 50 per cent to your appearance. Fifty cents at Paulserud & Barrett's.
The Tidings is on sale at Poley's drug store, 17 East Main street.

ASHLAND Storage and Transfer Co
C. F. BATES Proprietor.

Two warehouses near Depot. Goods of all kinds stored at reasonable rates.
A General Transfer Business. Wood and Rock Springs Coal.
Phone 117.
Office, 99 Oak Street, ASHLAND, OREGON.

FERGUSON'S

THE BARGAIN STORE
Cash Only—No Accounts

SATURDAY SPECIAL

Drummer Sample Sale of

Huck Towels Guests Towels

Plain and Fancy Turkish Towels

Ready-Made Table Cloths AT WHOLESALE PRICES

Extra Special 10 dozen Sample Towels. Some huck and Turkish, values to 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. Large sizes, only 5c

Ladies' and Girls' Shoes

HALF SOLED—A 50 CENT JOB FOR 25 CENTS

On 25c Again

Only Place in the World EASTERN SUPPLY CO.
WHERE? ENDERS' BLOCK, ASHLAND, OREGON