

In the Social Realm

Ohioans.
The Ohio Association will meet tomorrow afternoon to make arrangements for the annual Ohio day.

Eleven O'clock Club.
The Eleven O'clock Club will hold another of their winter series of dances at Memorial hall this evening.

Dance and Eat.
A few couples of the high school set danced and participated in a variety of amusements at Memorial hall Saturday evening and wound up the affair with a "feed."

Revival Meeting.
Elder Hiram Smith of Albany, Ore., will begin a series of revival meetings at the Brethren church, corner Iowa street and Mountain avenue. All are cordially invited.

Thimble Club.
Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg entertained the Thimble Club last Friday evening. Light refreshments were served and thimbles were busy throughout the evening.

Siskiyou Social Circle.
The Siskiyou Social Circle will meet at the Swendenburg home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Members are requested to bring a friend. Especial invitation extended to strangers.

Men Will Entertain.
The men of the Trinity church will entertain the ladies at the parish house Friday evening, all of the entertainment being exclusively in the hands of the men in accord with leap year moods. All members and friends of the parish are invited.

Entertains Teachers.
Mrs. Van Sant entertained a few of the teachers of the Ashland schools at an informal affair Thursday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Powers, whose birthday it was. A variety of games and entertainment passed several pleasant hours. Delicious refreshments were served.

Order 22 Issued.
Company order No. 22 from the Coast Artillery Corps, ordering the recipient to attend the annual military ball to be given by the First Company at the armory on Washington's Birthday, Tuesday, February 22, are out. Eight-thirty p. m. is the hour set.

Republicans Visit Elks Club.
An informal reception was held at the Elks' club rooms last Saturday afternoon and local republicans and democrats alike shook hands and fraternized with the visiting delegation of state officials and lower valley republicans who assisted in showing Governor Withycombe around Ashland Saturday.

Upper Granite.
The Upper Granite Street Embroidery Club met at the pleasant home of Mrs. Purdin, on Granite street, Friday, February 11. The day was lovely and the attendance good. An enjoyable afternoon was spent, the fancy work being interspersed with readings from the lives of Lincoln and Washington. The hostess was presented with a slight token of remembrance in view of her early departure from Ashland. Delicious refreshments closed a profitable afternoon.

At Parish House.
The young Episcopal church set enjoyed a merry evening at the parish house Friday with dancing, games and the like. This crowd, which is composed in the main of high school students, are instigating many fine times for themselves this winter.

Bishop-McClellan.
William Guy Bishop of Medford and Miss Gladys McClellan were married on Friday night at the Newman Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Grants Pass, Rev. Melville T. Wire officiating. The young people will reside on a farm near Butte Falls, Jackson county.

Lincoln Day.
The G. A. R. and W. R. C. held an informal gathering with entertainment features last Saturday afternoon in honor of the anniversary of Lincoln. A light lunch was served and a happy social time enjoyed. Quotations and anecdotes of Lincoln were given by about fifteen members. Other features made up a suitable program.

West School Parent-Teacher Circle.
The Parent-Teacher Association of the West Side school will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. The literary program will be conducted by Mrs. J. W. McCoy, assisted by Mrs. Fred Wagner and Mrs. George Yeo. Mrs. Cornelius will be chairman of the refreshment committee. The title of the subjects discussed will be "Table Talk in the Home," "Problems of Fighting" and "Our Boys."

For the Cause.
The Civic Improvement Club will give a party Friday afternoon, February 18, at 2:30, at I. O. O. F. hall. All the ladies of Ashland are invited to come, prepared to play cards or bring their fancy work. Refreshments will be served and an admission of 25 cents charged, to be used in starting the club's spring work. The committee are preparing for a large crowd. All the ladies are urged to take an active interest in this club's work as they have some important problems to solve during the next few months. Your 25 cents will materially help the cause. 1t

Evangelistic Services.
The meetings are continuing with interest in the Baptist church. Good audiences heard the messages morning and evening on Sunday. Meetings every night this week except Saturday. Bible study on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 3 o'clock. On Thursday afternoon at 2:15 the W. C. T. U. will hold a memorial service in honor of Frances Willard. We extend a cordial invitation to everybody in the city to attend these services.

The pastor would like to call the attention of the music-loving public to the fact that in the Baptist church on Sunday, February 27, the DeMoss Concert Company will furnish music at the regular services. There is only one other Sunday in the year when Ashland will have such an opportunity as this; that is on Chautauqua Sunday.

Lincoln county, Oregon, is planning a new road around Pioneer mountain.

New lumber companies are filing articles of incorporation in Oregon almost daily.

Vining Is Drawing With Fine Pictures

The past few days have seen the best attendance in recent months at the Vining Theatre. Manager Bergner is furnishing absolutely the best in picture attractions and his efforts deserve the patronage which they are beginning to receive. For this week the bills are all features, every one being well worth seeing.

Tonight "The Juggernaut," which pleased a big Sunday audience last night, will be shown for the last time. The railroad wreck in this picture is the most stupendous piece of action ever shown on the local screen. The plot and acting in the play are both immense, and if you did not see it last night you must not fall going tonight.

Tuesday.
Tomorrow (Tuesday), matinee and evening, comes Mary Pickford in a delightful romance, "A Girl of Yesterday," together with a Paramount News picture, "A Girl of Yesterday" is just the kind of quaint characterization best suited to the lovable Mary.

Wednesday and Thursday.
On Wednesday and Thursday evenings only (no matinees) the feature attraction is a Fox feature presenting Valeska Suratt, variously described as "the most discussed woman of the stage or screen," "dazzlingly beautiful," "the red rose of the great white way," in a story of New York society and criminal life, "The Soul of Broadway."

The switchboard of the mammoth police headquarters building in New York city, the largest telephone operating board in the world, is seen in full operation with its uniformed operators in "The Soul of Broadway," the sensational William Fox photodrama starring the far-famed Valeska Suratt. Such a privilege has never before been granted any picture company; in fact, the proceedings at the switchboard over which come the swiftly flashed reports of crimes, large and small, in every section, have been kept a secret from outsiders. In "The Soul of Broadway," therefore, the public at large gets its first chance to see just how the New York police headquarters telephone system is worked, including the operation of sending out a general alarm for an escaped murderer.

Grand Master Snowbound.
The grand master of the state of Oregon of the I. O. O. F. was supposed to have been here last Friday evening to pay the local lodge an official visit, but was detained by a snowslide and was forced to cancel all dates. About a hundred and seventy-five lodge members and friends, including a number from out of town, were in attendance at Odd Fellows hall Friday evening, and notwithstanding their disappointment, enjoyed a most pleasant evening. Dancing and games and a thoroughly appreciated banquet occupied the evening.

Elks' Dance.
The jolliest kind of time was participated in by about fifty Elks and their ladies at the Elks Temple last Friday evening, the event being announced as an "Elks only" dance. An intermingling of customs of 1915 with the more progressive leap year privileges afforded a most delightful variety of circumstances and every guest had "the time of his life." Dancing continued from 9 o'clock to 1, with a half hour intermission at midnight, when a light lunch was served. Loveland's four-piece orchestra furnished music which was highly complimented. The most evident success scored by this affair insures a demand for another like evening in the not far distant future.

Congregational Church.
Large congregations attended both the morning and evening services yesterday. The Rev. H. H. Wikoff, field secretary of the Church Building Society, preached an admirable discourse in the morning and began an effort to raise the church debt. Pledges amounting to $847 were given, with many friends yet to see. The trustees will take the matter in hand and raise an even thousand dollars. Nine hundred dollars is already in sight and earnest efforts will be made to reach this amount. Noble giving characterized the efforts of the congregation and great satisfaction is felt at the result.

Release from a heavy burden of debt will enable the church to do better service than ever. Secretary Wikoff left on the evening train for Portland after spending four days in Ashland.

Game With Portland Arouses Interest

Franklin high school of Portland registered a decisive victory over the Portland Academy team last Wednesday by a score of 49 to 22. The Franklin team, which will play Ashland Thursday and Saturday of this week at the local gymnasium, is said by Portland sport writers to be a wonderfully fast aggregation and took the heavy Academy boys to a thoroughly scientific cleaning. Franklin is now close on the heels of the leaders in the Portland interscholastic league and is given an excellent chance of winning the Portland championship.

The games here next Thursday and Saturday will be the first ever played by a Portland team in southern Oregon and are anxiously awaited. The biggest crowds of the season are anticipated. The locals are determined to demonstrate the superiority of basketball as played in the valley over the Portland product, while the Portlanders will come with the confidence which sees no defeat.

Phoenix boys' team, the fast aggregation which has cleaned up every second team in the valley and has twice beaten the Ashland second team, will appear against the high school second team in a preliminary game before the big event both evenings.

The will of the late Alexander Martin, Sr., president of the First National Bank of Klamath Falls, has been filed with the county clerk. The estate is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000. The widow of the deceased is left $1, provision for her having been made by the previous transfer of real and personal property. The remainder of the estate is divided among the children and grandchildren of the deceased. Martin got his start at Jacksonville.
