

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that I expect to be a candidate for nomination for the office of Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primary election next ensuing to be held in and for Jackson county, Oregon.

I will be remembered that I held that office when the district embraced the counties of Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake. I refer to that record.

C. B. WATSON.

District Attorney.

I hereby announce that I have filed my declaration of intention to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of District Attorney for Jackson county, Oregon, subject to the decision of the Republican party in the primary election to be held May 19, 1916.

G. M. ROBERTS. 70-1f

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT—I hereby announce my candidacy on the Republican ticket for the office of County School Superintendent for Jackson County, Oregon, subject to the will of the Republican party at the primary election May 19, 1916.

(Signed) FRANCIS C. SMITH.

COUNTY CLERK—I hereby announce that I have filed my declaration of intention to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of County Clerk for Jackson county, Oregon, subject to the decision of the Republican party in the primary election to be held May 19, 1916.

(Little) JOE H. WILSON.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF—I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination for Sheriff on the Republican ticket, to be voted upon at the coming primaries May 19th, 1916. I have held the position of Deputy Sheriff for the past four years and am thoroughly familiar with the duties connected with the office, both clerical and outside work.

E. W. (Curly) WILSON.

FOR ASSESSOR—I hereby announce my candidacy for County Assessor, subject to the Republican primaries May 19, 1916. I pledge myself to an honest, efficient, impartial and economical discharge of the duties of the office and propose to make all assessments upon the basis of the true actual value of the property and not upon any inflated valuation.

GEORGE LAUNSPACH.

COUNTY TREASURER—I hereby announce that I have filed my declaration of intention to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of County Treasurer, to be voted on in the coming primaries. If I am nominated and elected will conduct the office in an efficient and business-like manner.

ROY. L. MAULE.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE—I hereby announce my candidacy on the Republican ticket for Representative from Jackson county. If nominated and elected, I shall do all in my power to serve the best interests of the whole county and the state of Oregon.

BENJ. C. SHELDON.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Don Drake was a visitor from Hornbrook last week.

Miss Geraldine Fox visited friends in Medford Saturday.

D. R. Davis of this city was a visitor to Medford Saturday.

S. A. Parker visited his son, H. G. Parker, at Hornbrook last week.

George B. Coon has been appointed postmaster at Dunsuir following the resignation of Postmistress Minnie R. Crist.

James Howard has returned to his home at Klamath after a week's visit with his mother and sister in Ashland.

Miss Myrtle Lee returned to her home at Grants Pass last Wednesday after a visit spent with her grandmother in Ashland.

Rose S. Treaber of Talent was adjudged insane and committed to the state hospital at Salem, by Judge Calkins, Thursday.

The local Dodge car agency has sold two cars in the past few days, the proud possessors being Emil Peil and W. B. Beebe.

Mrs. Permin Zana spent a few days last week at her former home in Gold Hill. The Zanas conduct a restaurant in Ashland.

Mrs. J. E. Angwin of Dunsuir arrived yesterday to join her husband, who recently assumed the foremanship of the local roundhouse.

A number of Medford basketball fans were up for the Franklin games both Thursday and Saturday, among them being the players of the Medford team and Coach Klum.

F. E. Walters joined J. E. Cowgill of San Francisco at the station Sunday, and the two proceeded together to Portland to attend a meeting of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

The Franklin high school basketball team left Sunday morning for Portland. The boys expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the treatment received during their stay in the valley.

The Mexican government requires that all persons from the United States must have at least $50 in American currency in their possession before they will be allowed to cross the border.

Among the Ashland real estate deals recently recorded as the county seat, J. H. Morton is reported to have sold property in the Allendale addition of Ashland to Sidney Jacques, the consideration being $1,800.

Wilfred Carr, Roy McDaniel and H. L. Whited attempted to make the top of Pilot Rock Sunday, but owing to deep snow were forced to turn back when several miles from the rock. They motored up as far as Steinman.

Jack Overdorf, formerly connected with the Ashland Natatorium, has been barred from the state championship swimming events at Portland because of professionalism. Jack is said to have stood a good chance of winning the sprints.

The annual spring migration of hoboes and unemployed is now on from the south, according to the local police, and the patrolmen are kept busy handling the traffic. All of the travel stops between trains in Ashland, this being a division point on the railroad.

The will of the late W. I. Vawter was filed for probate in the circuit court Thursday. The estate is valued at $100,000, and is equally divided between the two sons, William and Vernon, and the widow. The executors are Mrs. Etta Vawter and Vernon Vawter.

Allen G. Hudson of Detroit, Mich., is in the valley for a three weeks' visit and is spending a majority of his visit with friends in the Ashland district. He will remain here for several days longer before continuing his journey south. He is making a three months' tour of the coast.

Professor Anthony of New York was elected a director of the Pompadour Mineral Springs corporation at a meeting held in Ashland Saturday afternoon. Mr. Anthony is now preparing plans for a bottling plant for the company to be erected upon their property near the Ashland lithia spring.

Yreka News: Mrs. Elda Orr, Mrs. Leonard G. Grease and nurse, Mrs. Edith P. Harper, left Monday night for Reno, Mrs. Orr's home. On the night of December 24 Mrs. Orr was seriously injured in an automobile accident which occurred on Butchell hill, and has since been bedfast at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Orr.

R. H. Jennings, a former resident of the Table Rock district, who was arrested upon complaint of his wife at Roseburg, for non-support, has been brought from Santa Cruz, Cal., by Sheriff Quine of Douglas county. The trial centers about the custody of the two minor children. Jennings returned from California without extradition papers. Mrs. Jennings now lives at Yoncalla, Ore.

J. D. Grant, president, J. D. McKee, vice-president, and Paul B. McKee, assistant vice-president of the California-Oregon Power Company, came up from San Francisco last week and spent several days in the valley. On Saturday they went to Copco to witness the work that is being carried on there, and have decided to put one hundred men at work on the dam. The company expects by November 1 to have work completed on the large retaining system and power will be generated at that point.

Scene from "The Family Stain" at Vining, Thursday.

Blaine Klum was a visitor from Medford Sunday.

Mrs. Hume of Roseburg is a visitor at the home of Mrs. Bartges.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gall of Bellevue were Ashland visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. A. W. Bish of Medford is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Whelpley, on Pine street.

Miss Vera Culey is quite ill with pneumonia. She is being cared for by Mrs. Sober, a nurse.

Mrs. T. M. Lynch is in very poor health and her physician prescribes a lower altitude for her.

Otto Klum of Medford was up for the basketball game Saturday and remained over Sunday in the city.

Mrs. M. F. Swigart and sons have moved into the house on Oak street formerly occupied by Dr. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McClaren and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ball made a visit to the county seat last Thursday.

Mesdames E. E. Gall and L. O. Van Wegen were the guests of Mrs. George Barnum of Medford last Wednesday.

Johnny Harrell, Southern Pacific fireman, who has been holding down a main line job, is back on the day switch engine in Ashland.

J. W. Johnson and family of Medford were up Sunday and spent the day with O. H. Johnson, visiting Lithia park in the afternoon.

Basketball

O. A. C. Varsity

Pacific Coast Basketball Champions

ASHLAND High School

TUES. Feb. 22 H. S. GYM

The fastest game of the season. Oregon Agricultural College has the fastest team in the West.

See Delsman Meet the O. A. C. Giants

Game at 8 Sharp. No preliminary because of Military Ball later in evening

Admission 25c, 35c Seats at Rose Bros.

James Rudd is convalescing from a severe attack of illness.

Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-1f

Belle West of Hornbrook was over last week visiting Ransie Rouse and the J. P. Sayles family.

Repairs for plows that were sold by Phipps & Bressler can be furnished by Peil. 77-4t

Mrs. Frank Doran, who has been suffering with an acute attack of heart trouble, is somewhat improved at this writing.

A big delegation of Ashlanders attended the Christian Endeavor state convention at Grants Pass last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

W. C. Lacy of Portland has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Anna Stephenson, and his nieces, Mrs. Frank Crouch and Mrs. Will F'agg.

Orchardists of the valley are getting busy. The fruit growers will be kept on the jump from now until the apples are shipped in the fall.

Miss Elizabeth Wagner is up from Myrtle Creek, where she teaches school, to spend Washington's birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner.

Frank Nelson and Bill Young motored to Butte creek Sunday and spent the day fishing. They report several hundred fishermen on the creek and but little success.

Mrs. George Noland of Klamath Falls, who has been a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders, Jr., left Friday for Portland, where she will visit friends.

Mrs. R. T. Cane returned to her home at Gold Hill last Thursday after spending a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Butler, in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Butler motored down as far as Medford with their guests.

Weaver, the shoe man, has moved his repair shop from his former quarters in the building next to the Hotel Ashland to the room in the Allen block formerly occupied by Yeo's barber shop.

Sumner Parker and wife have returned from San Francisco, where he was studying the violin under a prominent teacher of that city. Mr. Parker suffered an attack of typhoid fever but is now practically recovered.

Bryan Ahl of Dunsuir visited over Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loveland, returning home Sunday afternoon. Young Ahl is pass clerk in the Dunsuir offices of the Southern Pacific and has many friends in Ashland who greeted him.

Mrs. Owens, who has been in the Granite City Hospital for some time, has returned home much improved in health. Both she and Mr. Owens have been making their home with Mrs. Owens' brother, George Culey, of Liberty street.

Arthur Webber returned last Wednesday from a ten days' stay in Klamath Falls. He reports the lumber outlook over there to be good and an optimistic feeling prevalent. The weather was ideal during his stay in the Klamath metropolis.

Jack Bailey and the Martin brothers left Thursday in the latter's car for Rogue river, where they are camping for a few days and trying their luck against the wiles of the steelhead. They took along a big supply of fish eggs and grub enough to feed a regiment.

The high school boys put on a unique street parade Saturday afternoon to advertise the Franklin game Saturday night. Attired in costumes, the lads to the number of about twenty paraded the streets to the music of a tin horn band. One feature was an Ashland player leading a lad decked out in the Franklin colors.

The suit of Contractor J. S. Sweeney against Jackson county for the collection of money alleged to be due for road work on the Skiyu division of the Pacific Highway will commence at Portland next Wednesday. The county is represented by Attorney Evan Reames of this city. The trial promises to last three or four weeks.

McEe's DRY GOODS. NEW LOCATION—FEW DOORS EAST OF HOTEL OREGON. Original Agents for Pictorial Review Patterns. First to Stock Renfrew Devonshire Cloth. FIRST ALWAYS--You Can Count On Getting What Is Correct Here AND AT THE RIGHT PRICE. Gossard Corsets. New Suits and Coats. A New silk. Expert Corset Fitting and Alteration of Garments. 131 E. MAIN FREE DELIVERY PHONE 131

Peter Applegate, a valley pioneer, passed away quietly in his sleep Saturday at his home at Central Point. He is an uncle of Dan Applegate of Ashland. His age was 64 years. He was a former resident of Ashland and was deputy city engineer here. He has held several county positions, including that of assessor and recorder.

Wanted, second-hand cypress or redwood tank, suitable for wagon. Capacity 200 gallons. 303 North Main, phone 304-J.

Klamath Falls is in the throes of a comic opera "recall" agitation. The recall is talked because of stringent rules laid out by the council for the guidance of the fire department.

Ladies, if you have goods for a suit, talk to Paulserud & Barrett. Their tailors can give you satisfaction at reasonable prices.

A deputation from the Medford Commercial Club attended a meeting at Yreka last Friday evening, at which all of the northern California cities were represented.

Recital of the Diamond Disc Edison at Vining this evening. Also at Presbyterian church exhibition Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Medford Tribune: Constable A. B. Hammond returned last night from an official plunge into the jungles at the head of Coleman creek for M. Peck, whom he arrested and brought back to this city. Mr. Peck's family resides at Phoenix. Mrs. Peck has charged her husband with failure to provide. He will have a hearing before Justice Taylor in this city.

Enjoy the recital of the Edison Diamond Disc at the Vining this evening in conjunction with feature pictures, at usual prices. Also recital at Presbyterian church exhibition Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Kindergarten and Private School. Why not put your children in a first-class kindergarten this spring? If your child will be ready for school next fall, why not give him the advantage of personal attention?

CHIEF Payne makes quilting frames.

Monarch Shirts $1.00. Vaupel's The Quality Store. Holeproof Hose 25c. Special Showing Skinners Black Taffetas. At $1.50 and $1.75 per yard. Also Skinners 404 Satins in plain colors in dress lengths, yard $1.50. Special Showing New Striped & Plaid Silks. In one of a kind dress patterns. Also one of a kind Tub Silk Waist patterns at $1.00 to $1.50 yd. Just received Corded Cluster Skirtings in cream brown and blue, a beautiful weave priced at 50c yd. 36-inch all-over lace for waists at $1.50 and $1.75 yd. Broadhead 42-inch Panamas, all colors, $1.00 yd. 38-inch Curtain Net in cream 25c value 20c yd. All colors and plain silkolone per yd. 12c. Splendid selection dark dress percales, 32-in yd. 10c. Skinners Satins $1.50. "Meet me at VAUPEL'S" Ashland's Shopping Center. Broadhead Wool Serges $1.00

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND. Financial Development. The young man starting in business finds it to his advantage to make The Citizens Bank of Ashland his depository. It is a substantial aid to financial development and business enterprise. Accounts subject to check are invited. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS