Band Benefit

Ball on April 7

The Ashland band has definitely decided upon April 7 as the date for the band benefit ball, and are sending out notes to the various organizations in the city requesting them to leave that date open. The ball will be staged at the armory. The band has been practicing dance music for several weeks and has some new music which is guaranteed to put the "pep" into the feet of anyone. It is but rarely that Ashland has had the chance to dance to the music of a band, and the event is looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by all who dance.

The music alone will be worth coming to hear and a full gallery of spectators is anticipated. A charge of $1 will be made for gentlemen dancers, 25 cents for spectators.

The money realized will be applied upon the purchase of uniforms.

Militia Will Play Central Point A. C.

The local Coast Artillery Corps basketball team will play the Central Point Athletic Club's team at the Ashland armory Saturday evening. The Central Pointers defeated the locals in a game played at the Point several weeks ago, and the Ashlanders are working hard and expect to reverse the outcome.

Robert Casey and wife, who left here a year and a half ago to reside on their ranch at Redmond, Ore., have returned and are residing at 461 Allison street. They have rented their ranch. Two winters in that country proved too much for them. On their way to Ashland they visited their son, J. B. Casey, who formerly managed the Plaza grocery in Ashland and is now making a success of a ranch in the Poe valley.

O. Winter, the advance man of "Mutt and Jeff" and "Jeff" himself, in real life Jerry Sullivan, left Monday morning for Rogue river where they spent the day essaying to snag a few big ones. "Jeff" is a member of the Roseburg lodge of Elks and is well known throughout southern Oregon.
