Over Stocked

We are overstocked on the following:

LANTERNS

Both Driving and Plain.

Milk Pails

Both Plain and with strainer.

Axes

Double-bit, single-bit, boys' and freighters'

Lock Sets

All finishes, for all kinds of doors.

Door Butts

All sizes, all fini-hes, half-surface and plain.

We will make very tempting prices on all the above articles, to reduce our stock on these lines.

Mail Orders

When your next order is all made out and ready to mail, just bring it or mail it to us and let us fill it for you. We believe everyone prefers to trade at home if the prices are as low and the quality as good.

Wouldn't you rather see the article itself than a picture of it?

We will save you money on

Garden Hose, Lawn Mowers, Garden and Poultry Wire

Warner

The Low Price Hardware Man

Phone 146 375 E. Main

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Laura Owens visited friends in Jacksonville last week.

Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-tf

Mrs. A. L. Strickland visited in Medford Friday.

Clif Payne makes fruit pruners' ladders.

C. P. Hughes was a visitor from Hornbrook last week.

L. D. Hayes was a business visitor to Medford Saturday.

The sale closes Saturday. Don't be late. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

Attorney E. D. Briggs attended to business in Jacksonville Saturday.

I. A. Robie of Grants Pass was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Game Warden Driscoll spent Monday in the lower valley and at Grants Pass.

Mrs. C. A. Akard visited with friends and relatives in Montague last week.

Work is to be started immediately upon construction of a fish hatchery at Butte Falls.

Glenn Taylor, justice of the peace at Medford, was up Friday attending to legal business.

Belleview, our lively little suburb, was well represented on our streets both Friday and Saturday

Miss Ruth York returned to her home here Saturday after a visit with relatives at Williams creek.

Men's work shoes now on sale. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

The Talent Methodist Hikers' Club will visit Ashland park next Saturday, according to present plans.

"Little Joe" Wilson of Talent, candidate for county clerk, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

C. A. Malone of the California-Oregon Power Company went to Grants Pass Saturday on business.

Mrs. A. Marske and son arrived from Hornbrook Friday to make their permanent home in Ashland.

Get your shoes now and save money. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

The Payne block on East Main street has been sold by Clyde Payne to A. B. Gardner of Santa Ana, Cal.

J. H. Dill is making extensive improvements on his North Main street property and is putting in park rows.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cromer left the first of the week for Vancouver, B. C., where she will visit with a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Loosley have returned to Ashland after a visit with their son, E. K. Looseley, at Montague.

Paxson's dahlias, a few of the tried-out best, prepaid, eight for $1. April 1 delivery. Order early. List for postcard. R. H. Paxson, Central Point, Ore. 87-tf

Engineer A. H. Conner is painting his house and garage and making numerous other improvements on his property.

Mesdames E. D. Roberts and Jos. Shultz were over from Hornbrook Thursday, shopping and visiting friends.

Visit the shoe sale before Saturday. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

W. O. Dickerson left Sunday morning for Portland on a business trip and will be back about Wednesday or Thursday.

Next Saturday ends our big shoe sale. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

Miss Elsie Bryant, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at a local hospital, has returned to her home at Montague.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Pay by Check

If more people only realized how

SECURE, ECONOMICAL AND CONVENIENT

it is to pay by check, there would be many more checking accounts than there are today.

You are invited to make use of this modern medium of settlement by starting a checking account with us.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Just What U Want

A Big Automobile Sponge 25c

See our Auto Chamois Skins, Polish

Displayed in Window at

Poley's Drug Store

Poley & Elbart, Druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hile are the proud parents of a fine baby girl. Grandma and Grandpa Mattern are even more than proud.

Have you been to the shoe sale? Briggs & Shinn. 1t

Mrs. Frank Vining of San Jose is visiting at the home of Mrs. G. M. Grainger. She stopped off while en route to visit relatives.

Benton Bowers was up from San Francisco over Sunday and went back Monday morning. He was called to the city on federal business.

Mrs. R. L. Burdic left for Grants Pass Monday evening for a brief visit. The Burdics will move to Grants Pass the latter part of the month.

Every shoe in our entire stock is cut to the quick. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

Mrs. Myrtle Amick of Hilt died at a local hospital Friday after a lingering illness and was buried Sunday at Beagle. She was 39 years of age.

J. N. Dennis has practically completed remodeling his residence on Allison street and now has one of the prettiest homes in that neighborhood.

Motorcycle enthusiasts of Klamath Falls are planning an endurance run which will take place over a route including Crater Lake, Medford and Ashland.

Messrs. Carlton and Bowers of this city are arranging for the installation of necessary machinery in their recently acquired cinnabar mine on Hayden creek.

Mrs. H. L. Wolter stopped off over the week-end for a visit at the O. Winter home. She is bound for her home in Portland after spending the winter at Los Angeles.

The residents of Scenic Drive are planning to hold a tree-planting day in the near future, their purpose being to line that beautiful residence street with shade trees.

E. E. Bagley and family have decided to return to Ashland to live. They have been residing at Rogue River. Mr. Bagley contemplates an extensive eastern trip.

Rev. Alfred W. Griffin, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church of Eugene, arrived in Ashland Saturday to conduct a mission at Trinity Episcopal church. He will be here all this week.

W. H. Wallis has leased the Wagner Springs ranch and hotel property. The property includes a hotel which in past years was famous as a summer resort owing to the mineral springs.

Robert D. Hall of New York city, a nephew of A. M. Beaver of Ashland, was a visitor in the city the first of the week. He is identified with Y. M. C. A. work among the Indians.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Carter are visiting at the home of Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. L. A. Phillips. They are en route from their home in Ellensburg, Wash., to California, where they will visit.

T. E. Simpson, W. E. Newcombe, Otto Winter and C. W. Nims motored to Medford Thursday afternoon to attend the meeting of Malta commandery of that city on the occasion of the visit of state officers.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES

Resharpened

30c a Dozen, Any Make

Provost Bros.'

Hardware Store

GUARANTEE—Every edge made better than new. Your own blades back sterilized.

Work done by Sanitary Sharpening Co., Edge Experts, Berkeley, Cal.

Straight razors re-edged 35c

There Are

Nine Ideal Figures

Which is Yours?

All are shown Correctly Corseted in a

GOSSARD CORSET

SELECT the drawing that represents your general figure lines. We have in stock, in your size, just the Gossard you need at any price you may want to pay—$2.00, $3.50, $5.00, $6.50, $8.50 and up.

Each Gossard is designed to accentuate the natural beauty of your figure—correct any slight imperfections, and give you comfort such as you have never known. Doctors say: "A Gossard corset safeguards your health."

Gossard style is yours—exclusive style—regardless of the price you pay.

It is with great pleasure that we announce the Seventh Semi-Annual Proclamation of Authoritative

Gossard Corset Styles

for Spring and Summer, 1916

The freakish and generally unbecoming tendencies of the mode are past. In the natural lines and beautiful fabrics of the new models, here shown, is reflected the demand of fashion for a simpler style which depends upon beauty of line, correct design and exquisiteness of material for its charm.

Gossard corsets are fitted here by experienced corsetieres. It will be a pleasure to show you the new models. We shall expect you.

Graduate Corsetiere

McGee's DRY GOODS

New Stock Is Here

J. C. Herring of Central Point was in Ashland Tuesday. He is thinking of announcing his candidacy for county assessor.

Cliff Payne makes stepladders.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Butterfield, who moved recently to Albany, are the parents of a baby daughter, who arrived on March 12.

Mrs. L. O. Van Wegen spent a couple of days last week with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Gall, of Belleview, and also attended the church services conducted by Rev. Simmons, Wednesday evening at the school house.

The mineral baths in Ashland will be opened earlier than usual and with added facilities because of the considerable number of seekers for health by the mineral water bath route who have arrived in the city.

Howard Ewer's wife underwent an operation at a local hospital last week and is recuperating nicely. She was taken to her home Sunday. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, are here from Springfield, Ore.

R. F. Robinson of Siskiyou, who from time to time has favored the Tidings with news items concerning the goings and comings up in that district, informs us that he will move in the immediate future to the Climax neighborhood.

A $ saved is a $ earned. Let us save it for you by buying a pair of our shoes at a big reduction. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

O. E. Diebert, who was operated upon for appendicitis at a local hospital two weeks ago, was down town for the first time since his ordeal on last Tuesday. "Shorty" says he is still far from fit for a hard day's work, but feels better every day.

H. A. Ray and George Haff, Gold Hill mining men, have discovered a body of Sheelite tungsten ore of high grade quality on property three miles from Gold Hill. This is the first discovery of its kind in Oregon, although it is said the float has been found in different parts of the state.

L. J. Orres is moving his tailor shop from the Allen block on North Main to the old Fuller stand on Oak street. E. La Belle of St. Paul, Ore., will put a bakery in the room he vacates. Mr. La Belle is the father of Mrs. George Cyester, employed by the Southern Pacific Company.

M. J. Duryea, former Ashland publicity manager, will lecture on the Elison-White circuit this summer, according to word received from Eugene, where he is now residing. Mr. Duryea has a pleasing personality and is a fine talker, and should make good on the Chautauqua circuit.

Coach Otto Klum may not stay at Medford this next year. The school board is considering a proposition which will cut the maximum salary of high school teachers to $900. Klum is receiving $1,100 and offers to stay for $1,200. He is said to have been offered $1,400 by a California school.

Clif Payne makes screen porches.

George O. Howard was in the city from Portland yesterday in behalf of the presidential boom of Senator Cummins. He is manager and secretary of the Cummins campaign in Oregon. Tom Kay is chairman of the organization. Mr. Howard was formerly secretary of the Ashland Commercial Club.

Mrs. Robert Clay and two children leave today for Eagle Ridge Tavern on Upper Klamath lake, one of the prettiest summer resorts on the lake. They have been visiting for a few days with Mrs. Clay's sister, Mrs. Henry Enders, Jr., after spending the winter on the ranch of Mrs. Clay's mother, Mrs. Wing.

Come to the shoe sale. It will pay you. Briggs & Shinn. 1t

INSURE YOUR

Life Against Accident

These are days when Electricity is the motive power and Motorcycles and Automobiles increase the chances of Accident a hundredfold!

Should you meet with a slight accident the Policy benefits you; if fatal, your family will not want!

Large protection for small cost.

Billings Agency

ASHLAND Storage and Transfer Co

C. F. BATES Proprietor.

Two warehouses near Depot. Goods of all kinds stored at reasonable rates.

A General Transfer Business. Wood and Rock Springs Coal.

Phone 117.

Office, 99 Oak Street, ASHLAND, OREGON.

C. E. Bassett, the government marketing expert who addressed the local fruit growers last Saturday on behalf of the new fruit-selling plan, was a guest of Mrs. E. I. Bingham while in the city. He is a brother of Mrs. Lucas, wife of the late Rev. Lucas, who was pastor of the local Episcopal church.

The Civic Improvement Club are having the railroad lot opposite the Congregational church, on East Main street, spaded and will plant an old-fashioned flower garden and lawn. A sprinkler system was installed last year on this lot, which before the ladies were granted permission to beautify it, was a tangle of weeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham and baby son of New York city are visiting at the home of Mrs. Cunningham's brother, J. A. Ruger. They are making a leisurely tour of the south and west and came here from Pasadena, where they spent several months. They will continue on their way home by the northern route after a visit here.

F. Babcock and family leave this week for a three months' visit with relatives at Flint, Mich. They have stored their household goods. Mr. Babcock took a goodly supply of Ashland literature with him and proclaims himself to be "an Ashland booster, first, last and always." They consider Ashland their home and will return here to live.

John A. Harvey, formerly of the Citizens Bank of Ashland, but now connected with a bank at Santa Ana, Cal., was a visitor in Ashland over Sunday. He was on his way to Portland on business and stopped off here to spend a day with friends. Mr. Harvey now lives in the banner orange county of southern California and says fruit raising is a success where proper distributing organization is maintained.