for the development of various domestic and Canadian markets, utilizing experienced men and the combined resources of the said agents.

(g) To develop foreign markets along the following lines:

(1) To conduct comprehensive foreign investigations for the purpose of knowing trade demands and making reliable trade connections.

(2) To see that the fruit is prepared for market shipments through to final destination and to secure adequate insurance so that the hazards may be reduced.

(4) To secure capable foreign agents to conduct sales abroad.

(5) To expand old markets and develop new ones by direct contact and through the soliciation of special agents.

(6) To devise ways and means to safeguard and secure prompt collections.

(7) To secure adequate transportation facilities by underwriting steamship charters and promoting new fruit routes.

(h) To pool proceeds of sales and share, pro rata, any loss sustained in the developments of new markets according to the varieties and grades over definite periods, so that profits and losses therefrom may be equalized.

(i) To secure the standardization of agents accounting records, to the extent that all account sales issued by the said shipping agancies will be figured on the same basis and in such manner that they will be uniform, allowing true comparisons to be made by the grower between the services rendered and prices by the different agencies.

(j) To secure an annual audit of the sales records of the current season's business of said agents by forms of certified accountants of recognized standing, the reports of these audits to be available to the growers not later than one month prior to the closing of the contract period for the next season.

(k) To make all possible legal and banking arrangements for the financing of the growers.

(l) Advancements shall in no case be made in such manner as to pass the title of the fruit.

Why Is a Barber Pole?

not think Mr. Phipps should be allowed the sign privilege unless anyone else who wished a sign was also granted the privilege, but thought when the signs were not in the way they should be allowed.

Mr. Nininger stated that he was in favor of allowing stripes on barber poles and thought if anyone wanted a street sign taking only a few inches and not a menace to the safety of the public it should be allowed and suggested an amendment referring the matter back to Mr. Phipps with the suggestion that he ask for a different kind of sign.

Mr. Ashcraft voiced his desire for a signless city, "with nothing but sightly electroliers on the sidewalks."

After a tangle of motions, amendments and reniging, the matter was finally disposed of by referring it to the street committee. Someone suggested the cemetery committee but not until official action had been taken.

The police department is including the park in the regular rounds of the patrolmen.

FRUIT and FARM

Frost Warnings.

The weather forecasts issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau for the benefit of the fruitgrowers in the valley during the frost season will be obtainable, through the courtesy of the telephone companies' "central" operators, as was the custom last year. These forecasts will be given the operators usually about 8 o'clock in the morning, though occasionally when special weather changes are probable, an additional forecast will be issued about 9 o'clock in the evening.

This work is in charge of Edward A. Beals, district weather forecaster at Portland, who, with the assistant forecaster, T. Francis Drake, are making the predictions from that office. Amplifications of the forecasts will be made for various parts of the valley, when conditions warrant, by J. Cecil Alter, observer, temporarily stationed at Medford, in this office.

F. E. Conway Co. Buys Bandon Bonds

Coos Bay Times, March 16th.

F. E. Conway announced yesterday that the Port of Bandon had awarded the $25,000 bond issue to the F. E. Conway Mortgage company, representatives of Carstens & Earles, investments bankers of Seattle

Mr. Conway, who represented his company at the meeting of the Bandon Port Commission at Coquille, bid par, accrued interest and $375.00 premium for the entire issue which are 5½ per cent securities. There was keen competition for the securities which are regarded as a high-class investment and Mr. Conway is elated over the success of his firm. The Port will use the funds to purchase the tug Klyhiam to be operated by them at Bandon.

Prominent Men In It

The F. E. Conway Mortgage company was recently organized on Coos Bay with $100,000 capital stock. The officers of the company include the following:

President and general manager and director, F. E. Conway of Marshfield, builder of the Myrtle Arms Apartments and broker in securities, president Myrtle Arms, Inc.

Vice-president and director, J. W. Bennett, president of the Flanagan & Bennett bank of Marshfield and Myrtle Point and prominent Marshfield lawyer, president Bennett Trust company.

Vice-president and director, John F. Hall, Marshfield attorney and former county judge of Coos county.

Vice-president and director, Frank B. Waite, Sutherlin capitalist and real estate dealer and owner of much Coos county real estate.

Director, Taylor Dement of Myrtle Point, Coos county commissioner, mayor of Myrtle Point, and one of the largest individual land holders in Coos county.

Secretary and auditor, G. W. Kaufman of Marshfield, real estate and insurance broker, city treasurer of Marshfield, and member of Marshfield board of education.

Assistant secretary, Ernest Harrington, assistant city recorder of City of Marshfield.

The other directors will be announced later.

Represents Much Capital

The F. E. Conway Mortgage company was organized by Mr. Conway after eighteen months of preliminary work.

The company is spending much time, energy and money to establish the credit of Coos and Curry counties so outside money can be interested to develop them.

Many loans are now being made by the company in the territory extending from the Siuslaw to Rogue river and extending east to Roseburg.

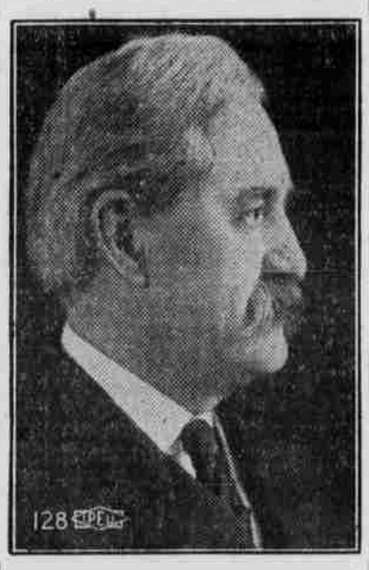
They have excellent financial connections with large capitalists and investors.

Waite Buys Interest

F. B. Waite, of Sutherlin, well known capitalist and broker, while here the past week purchased a $10,000 block of stock in the F. E. Conway Mortgage company and will be actively identified with it. In addition to his large realty itnerests on Coos Bay, Mr. Waite has the largest financial interests in the Kinney properties.

Cummins Club Organized Here

Friends of Senator Cummins in Oregon are getting active in their effort to have the Oregon delegation to the national republican convention instructed for Senator Cummins for president.



Senator Cummins, Presidential Possibility.

Wednesday morning a number of Cummins supporters met in the Commercial Club rooms and formed a Cummins club. C. B. Lamkin was elected temporary chairman, and F. E. Watson, secretary. Mr. Howard, now of Portland but formerly a resident here, was present and made a clear statement as to why he believed Senator Cummins to be the logical candidate of the republican party at this time, expressing the opinion that he was the one man who had been mentioned so far that could best unite the party.

Remarks were made by Attorney Briggs, who declared himself for Hughes, and by Ed Staples, F. E. Watson, Dr. Julius P. Johnson, B. R. Greer, C. B. Lamkin, and Mr. Banta, who said they saw in Senator Cummins the logical candidate to bring the warring elements of the party together.

Most of those present signed the nomination petition of Senator Cummins and the club roster.

State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay is president of the Oregon State Cummins campaign committee and George C. Howard is state secretary and manager.

Big Bills At Lyric Theatre

The Lyric Theatre has two great big bills for tonight and Friday and Saturday nights. Thursday and Friday comes "The Phantom Witness," a gripping three-reel Thanhouser drama; "The Thunder Bolt," another thrilling drama, and "Grace's Gorgeous Gowns," an unusually good Falstaff comedy. Also a Beauty comedy, "Getting in Wrong."

On Saturday night an even better and bigger bill is promised. "Some Night" is proclaimed to be the "original gloom chaser; "The Mender," a stirring drama with an original plot; a rollicking Keystone comedy, "Mabel and Fatty's Married Life," and another installment of the great railroad serial, "The Girl and the Game." These big bills should be worth several times the admission price.

Three Nights of Comedy at Vining

Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Vining will be all comedy. Not ordinary slapstick comedy, but high-class pictures with plot, action and lots of good honest laughs.

On Friday night comes Victor Moore in a five-reel production, "Jimmie Fadden Out West." The Jimmie Fadden stories are familiar to nearly everyone. He is one of the greatest characters in literature and will delight you on the screen.

On Saturday night come two great Triangle pictures, "Double Trouble" and "A Janitor's Wife's Temptation." The first is a five-reel feature film and is a most entertaining story of trouble, love, business and politics, revolving around a man with a double personality. Douglas Fairbanks plays the lead role. The myriad temptations which pervade the life of a janitor's wife form the basis for a screamingly funny Triangle-Keystone comedy in "The Janitor's Wife's Temptation."

On Sunday night comes a film which Manager Bergener proclaims to be "a knockout." This picture has his unqualified recommendation as he ran it for a week in Portland, where it attracted monster crowds. Lew Fields of the great comedy team of Webber and Fields is supported by a cast of the greatest comedians of the day in "Old Dutch." Ashland will have a chance to see a $2 Broadway comedy at the usual prices of admission. Don't miss this one.

Notice.

Wagner Springs ranch has changed hands, W. H. Wallis being the new renter, taking charge April 1, and notice is hereby given that there will be no Sunday dinners given to the public. 87-1t*
