In the Social Realm

Eastern Star.

The Eastern Star ladies met in another of their Tuesday afternoon thimble sessions Tuesday and spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Informal Hop.

Another of the jolly informal dances which have provided several happy times for the young folks of Ashland will be held at Memorial hall Saturday evening.

Band Benefit Ball.

Plans are progressing merrily for the band benefit ball which will be held at the armory on Friday evening, April 7. Tickets are on sale at several of the stores. Do your part to help make a good band.

Teacup Club.

The Teacup Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Lane on Laurel street next Tuesday afternoon. Hostesses are Mesdames Lane, Van Fossen, Van Leer, Dodson and Miss Ewan.

Ladies' Aid Elect.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church have elected Mrs. Ella Garrett president, Mrs. Clara Wick treasurer, and Mrs. Sue M. Day secretary. The society meets weekly in the church parlors.

Eleven O'clock Club.

The Eleven O'clock Club held the first of their second series of dances at Memorial hall Monday evening. The music was excellent and two hours and a half of dancing most thoroughly enjoyed. Coffee and sandwiches were served at 11 o'clock.

Progressive Club.

The anniversary meeting of the Progressive Club will be held Sunday, April 2, at the residence of Mrs. Dora Young on Granite street. A good program has been secured. This is an all-day meeting and everybody come and welcome.

Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary met Tuesday evening for the first time in their new club house. Needles were busily plied in the making of curtains. The club house was in a far from perfect shape but will be real homey by the next meeting. The Auxiliary ladies are planning a big ball for May 5.

East Side Association.

The East Side Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the library Monday afternoon, April 3, at 3:45. Miss Hicks will tell about "The Books Our Children Read," and Dr. Gregg will speak on "Medical Inspection in the Schools." Election of officers for the coming year will be held and refreshments served at the close of the program.

Dinner.

Mrs. Emil Peil entertained Messrs. and Mesdames J. M. Wagner, F. D. Wagner and E. V. Carter, and Misses Lydia McCall and Harris at dinner Saturday night. The occasion was the near proximity of the birthdays of three of the ladies present. Place cards were horoscopes of the guests. Dinner was followed by bridge.

C. L. S. C.

The regular meeting of the Chautauqua Literary and Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Swigart on Oak street Monday night. The program was the culmination of a series of excellent programs given from the book, "American Ideals," by Hamilton Wright Mabie. American authors from Washington Irving's time to the present have been studied. An evening on American art was one to be especially mentioned.

Monday evening's program consisted of "Music Distinctly American," Mrs. D. Perozzi; "Women Famous in American Music," by Mrs. C. W. Chattin; "Melodies of Dixie Land," by Mrs. C. B. Wolf; "Orchestras and Their Famous Leaders," by Mrs. Dawson Foster; "Famous American Composers," by Mrs. H. S. Palmerlee; "Carrie Jacobs Bond and Her Music," by Miss Gertrude Engle.

Mesdames Wolf and Palmerlee and Miss Engle gave vocal and instrumental selections from the musicians they discussed. Mrs. V. A. Stewart gave a reading with instrumental accompaniment. A quartet composed of Mesdames Palmerlee, Wolf, Perozzi and Miss Engle sang "Annie Laurie."

Guests invited by individual club members were Mesdames Robertson, Goodman, Briscoe, Briggs, Barber, McGee, Everton, Stewart, Miller, Engle, Myers, White, Dean, Winter, Schuerman, Van Fossen, Whited, Choate, Misses Calkins, Hicks, Poley.

Refreshments were served consisting of cake and chocolate. The color scheme of the club was carried out in the decorations.

Shriners.

A gala event in Shrinedom will occur at the Elks temple on Friday evening, March 31, when Hillah Temple will give a reception and dance on a scale commensurate with the entertainments given by that order, to which all Shriners throughout the valley are invited.

G. A. R.

The Grand Army post and Relief Corps held one of their pleasant reunions on Saturday afternoon. After transaction of routine business refreshments were served, the ladies having solved the problem of "preparedness" as far as delicious eatables were concerned. Captain Thomas is post commander and Mrs. Elmira Mattingly is president of the Relief Corps.

Girls' Team Entertained.

The high school basketball first team girls, their coach and substitutes were entertained at the home of Superintendent Briscoe Tuesday evening. A five-course dinner was served at 6 o'clock by the hostess, Mrs. Briscoe. The table was beautifully decorated with the school colors, red and white, while the place cards were a source of merriment to all. The Vining Theatre was visited later. The girls who enjoyed this gay evening were Charlotte Chappelle, Helen Eskey, Gertrude Moore, Queritta Brown, May Skeene, Rita Gard, Mary Mathes and their coach, Miss Moffit.

Card Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Mitchell were pleasantly surprised at their home on Main street Saturday evening by the "Jolly Bunch." The evening was spent with 500, after which dainty refreshments were served to the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Alex Livingston, Frank Foltz, F. L. Long, C. D. Cain, Jack McRae, Cliff Shutz, Walter Frulan, Walter Gorham, Roy Hale, W. Wallace, and H. D. Mitchell and Mr. Anderson.

Mrs. Reed Entertains.

Saturday, March 25, Mrs. M. C. Reed entertained for Miss Lucile Ames of Talent, at her home on Scenic Drive. The rooms were appropriately decorated with ferns and many spring blossoms, while the darkened dining room was most attractive with numbers of yellow tapers and daffodils in profusion. Gathered around the luncheon table were, besides the guest of honor, Miss Ames, Mesdames L. P. Ames, Peter Vandersluis, E. B. Adamson, Ernest Minuth, Misses Margaret Ames and Alice Vandersluis.

The Mathis-Vessey Evangelistic Meetings

The Evangelist Frank Mathis and his singer, Bernard Vessey, who recently held a very successful meeting in Medford, and who are now in the midst of a big meeting in Klamath Falls, will begin a union campaign here on the evening of April 21.

On Monday afternoon the Ministerial association appointed the following named men as an executive committee: C. B. Lamkin, V. O. N. Smith, W. D. Hodgson, Mr. Dickerson, R. W. Farquhar, W. J. Douglas, H. A. Carnahan and A. R. Blackstone.

On Tuesday afternoon this committee met in the office of Reed & Hodgson and appointed the following committees, the first-named being chairman:

Cottage Prayer Meetings—East Side, R. W. Farquhar, H. O. Butterfield, Mrs. Rachael Harris, Mrs. Powel, and Mrs. C. T. Payne.

West Side, W. J. Douglas, Miss Jessie Hatheway, J. W. Brunner, Mrs. J. R. Robertson, and Mrs. T. J. Shinn.

Music—Howard Ewer, V. O. N. Smith, E. L. Rasor, and L. E. Stennett.

Publicity—M. C. Reed and A. R. Blackstone.

Secretaries—E. O. Smith, S. A. Peters, Percy Stratten, M. W. Hayes, Freda Butterfield, Priscilla Carnahan, and Mrs. L. Hilty.

Finance—H. D. Badger, Walter Powel, A. M. Beaver, Mayor Johnson, J. F. Gaines, and J. W. Milner.

Entertainment—W. D. Hodgson and V. O. N. Smith.

Building—G. F. Billings and C. B. Lamkin.

Ushers—H. S. Palmerlee, F. H. Christie, Lewis Worth, Mr. Prescott, John Patty, F. J. Shinn, Homer Billings and Leslie Phillips.

It was further agreed that Rev. Carnahan should have charge of the Personal Workers' class which will have its first meeting next Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church.

The final action of the executive committee was to adopt the suggestion of the evangelist and have the laymen come over from Medford and hold meetinggs in our churches before the campaign begins. April 9 has been set as the date when we shall have a large delegation of men from Medford.

Vining Bills For Friday and Saturday

Friday.

Friday evening at the Vining Theatre the attraction is Pauline Frederick, who made a place in the movie hall of fame for herself in her interpretation of Zaza, in a film adaptation of the famous novel and play, "Bella Donna."

Bella Donna, a London adventuress, lures the Hon. Nigel Armine into marrying her in the hope of saving her from the gossip of the capital. He takes her to Egypt, where she becomes infatuated with a powerful native, Baroudi, who persuades her to poison her husband. This she does, but as he becomes gradually weaker and weaker from the effects of the drug, Isaacson arrives and discovers her treachery in time to save the husband's life. Driven to hate Armine and foiled in her attempt to kill him, Bella Donna finally tells him the truth in a burst of uncontrollable fury. Then she goes to Baroudi, who now discards her as being too dangerous. Stunned, she returns to her home, only to be turned away by Dr. Isaacson, who sends her out into the black desert and—what?

Saturday.

A Triangle program is Saturday's attraction.

Lillian Gish, fast taking a place alongside of Mary Pickford as one of the really famous actresses of the screen and regarded by many as a far superior actress than the winsome Mary, stars in a clashing drama, "The Lily and the Rose," in which the conflict between the sweet southern girl and the loud, florid, but charming dancing girl for the love of the Lily's husband furnishes inspiration for some really great acting. One of the thrilling and picturesque scenes is that in which Miss Dolly as the Rose does a bewildering dance on the ocean shore.

With this drama comes a sensation comedy, "The Great Vacuum Robbery," with Charles Murray playing the role of a typical dime novel detective. The play is more than a comedy—it is a scream.

The diversified Triangle programs are making a hit with Ashland theatregoers, and this week's Triangle attraction bids fair to be the best yet.

Sunday.

On Sunday comes Holbrook Blinn and Alice Brady in a five-part film production based on the play, "The Boss."

Added Attraction Saturday.

On Saturday evening as an added attraction the vaudeville team of the Medford high school, fifteen strong, will add several enlivening vaudeville acts to the bill.

ARTHUR R. BLACKSTONE.

The Church of God.

The Scriptures define sin as the breaking of the law, and say that the Ten Commandments are not annulled, but are "briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Also, "Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus." There is a dreadful penalty attached to the breaking of God's law, and we are warned to flee from the wrath to come. Again, Paul speaketh: "For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollos, are ye not carnal?"

We are told to love and look for the glorious appearing of Christ, and that the Sabbath of the fourth commandment is the seventh day of the week, in celebration of the creation, and that it is blessed and hallowed.

These things we teach, and exhort men to repent from breaking these laws. Our room is 343 East Main street, and we keep open door from 10 to 2 and at 7:30 o'clock every evening (except Saturday and Sunday). Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
