The Theatre Beautiful

Tuesday, April 11, Paramount Presents Marguerite Clark

In an elaborate and impressive Photo production of MARK TWAIN'S Masterpiece The Prince and the Pauper MARGUERITE CLARK featured in the dual role of the Prince and the Pauper reaches the artistic climax of her career in her marvelous interpretation of these distinctly different yet closely associated characters. Her exquisite artistry was never displayed to better advantage than in her spirited enacting of the charming Prince, and her sympathetic portrayal of the pathetic Little Beggar.

Scene from "The Prince and the Pauper."

G. A. R. and W. R. C.

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent at the armory on last Wednesday, April 5, by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. members, in holding memorial services at their hall in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the first post organized in the United States.

Quiet prevailed as the president of the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Mattingly, roused the gavel, and services were opened by singing "America." Mrs. Lulu Howard was accompanist at the piano.

Adj. Comrade Patrick of Burnside Post, No. 23, Ashland, gave a historical sketch of the first organization of the G. A. R. post in the United States of America. This was followed by an old war song, "The Battle Cry of Freedom." Comrade Spencer of our local post gave a very interesting talk on our own post and corps. Then little Olivia Bentley gave a very fitting recitation, "The Stars and Stripes," and all joined in singing of "We're Tenting Tonight." Comrade Rev. Smith gave a very interesting talk of the war life as it is found by a soldier. Then one of our mother corps members, Mrs. Isabelle Spencer, favored the gathering with an old-time ballad, "Glittering Banner," which was beautifully rendered and captivated the audience. Comrade F. K. Hall was called on to give us a little talk, and it proved very interesting as he gave us an idea of their first initiations in the G. A. R. post. Followed by a reading by Mrs. Isabelle Spencer. The old patriotic song, "The Star Spangled Banner," closed the afternoon program with appreciated applause.

The Dorcas Society met in the Christian church parlors Thursday afternoon and held their business meeting. Some plans were made for future work and social affairs, and the following officers elected: President, Mrs. E. N. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Haskins; secretary, May Benedict; treasurer, Mrs. A. H. Peachey. Ladies present were Mesdames Hattie Smith, Benedict, Swingle, Wright, McAllister, Peachey, Haskins, Vallandigham, E. N. Smith, Caldwell, Booth, Hale, and Misses Hazel Wright and May Benedict.

Annual Church Meet.

Members and friends of the Presbyterian church gathered at the church last Wednesday evening for the annual election and business meeting and the basket supper and social time which is incorporated with the business features of the annual event.

Frank Schneider, C. W. Nims and W. D. Carey were elected trustees. Two women, Mrs. O. Winter and Mrs. E. La Garrett, also serve on the board of trustees. O. C. Tiffany, H. E. Badger, R. P. Neil and C. H. Gillette were elected elders. Frank J. Shinn was elected clerk and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin superintendent of the Sunday school, with Mrs. Shinn as assistant. O. C. Tiffany was elected treasurer and Miss Gladys Carnahan treasurer of benevolences. It was voted to hold the annual meeting on the first Wednesday after the last Saturday in March.

The receipts for the past year were $2,360 and expenditures $2,292. The membership is 237. The pastor, Rev. H. A. Carnahan, who presided as moderator, reported that he had preached 150 sermons during the year, made 550 pastoral calls and had officiated at two weddings and ten funerals.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson Entertain.

On Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson delightfully entertained a company of friends with games and music at their home on Pioneer avenue. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, and the Misses Peters, Mrs. Casey and daughter Helene. The social hours passed all too rapidly. A bouquet of beautiful carnations, a set of Luthia Park pictures and a "life-size" walking stick fashioned out of peppermint candy were awarded as first and second prizes, respectively, for adeptness in manipulating the real genuine pasteboards. Elaborate refreshments were served. The event was a strictly informal one, and both host and hostess set the pace for one of the jolliest reunions of the social season.

Band Ball.

The Ashland band benefit ball at the armory last Friday evening proved to be the most successful and enjoyable public ball given in Ashland in years. About one hundred and fifty couples danced and over two hundred spectators filled the gallery. The floor was in better shape than ever before and the music was simply irresistible. The people of Ashland showed their interest in the band in a most convincing manner and the band boys are much gratified over the result. Several dozen Medford and Central Point people attended. The band boys plan another like event to be given later in the spring. The success scored by the Friday ball means an even bigger crowd at the next dance. A most substantial sum was cleared from the Friday affair and will make a good start toward the amount needed for uniforms, music and so forth for the coming summer's activities.

Visit Val'ey Lodges.

Grand Warden George W. Trefren of the Odd Fellows lodge and W. W. Ussher of Ashland visited the Grants Pass lodge last Wednesday night and participated in an affair which was one of the most pretentious staged by that lodge in recent months. A musical program, lecture and stereoscopic pictures shown by W. W. Ussher and a big banquet served to over one hundred members were some of the features. The Ashland Odd Fellows went to Eagle Point and held a similar event Thursday night.

Medford Men Talk.

Prof. Hanby, H. D. Nordwich and Mr. Maxwell of Medford spoke at the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Congregational churches Sunday night, explaining the benefits accomplished by the evangelist meetings held by Rev. Mathis in the city of Medford. They congratulated the people of Ashland upon securing his services. The visitors were very enthusiastic over the results of the Medford meetings.

Wednesday Afternoon Club.

Mrs. B. R. Greer, assisted by Mrs. Charles Loomis, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. N. W. Gorham, will entertain the Wednesday Afternoon Club Wednesday afternoon at her home on the Boulevard.

Reserve your Easter lily orders for the Trinity ladies. On display Thursday before Easter at Rose Bros' 11

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed By Ashland Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Ashland endorsement. Read the statements of Ashland citizens.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

John W. Wells, Hargadine and Gresham streets, Ashland, says: "I don't hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills publicly for I have taken this old, reliable medicine on several occasions when I have found that my kidneys haven't been acting as they should, and it has always done all that is claimed for it. Doan's Kidney Pills are a family medicine for kidney disorders in our home and they never fail to give good satisfaction."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wells had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HANDY HUSBAND

Knew How to Get Part of the Breakfast.

"I know one dish I can prepare for breakfast as well as any cook on earth," said my husband one morning when the cook was ill and he had volunteered to help get breakfast. He appeared with his dish and I discovered it was Grape-Nuts, which, of course, was easy to prepare for it was perfectly cooked at the factory, but it was a good illustration of the convenience of having Grape-Nuts about.

"We took up Grape-Nuts immediately after returning from a five years' sojourn in a hot country. Our stomachs were in bad condition and we were in poor health generally.

"In a day or two we liked Grape-Nuts better than any other kind of food on the table. We both gained steadily in health and strength, and this was caused by Grape-Nuts and Postum.

"A friend of ours had a similar experience. She was seriously ill with indigestion and could find nothing to eat that would not give her heartburn and palpitation, especially at night.

"She found that a small dish of Grape-Nuts with cream made her a satisfactory supper and gave her a comfortable night's rest. In a short time she gained several pounds in weight."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Dinner.

Mrs. A. Raydure Brown and Mrs. Edgar Barron entertained with a dinner party Sunday. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Minnie Kinsman, Mr. and Mrs. Helms and Master Billie Helms of Medford.
