REX BEACH'S Famous story of love, romance and adventure in Old Panama

THE NE'ER DO WELL

In 9 reels

THERE are hair-raising hand-to-hand fights, plot and counter-plot, love and intrigue, and the do or die spirit of the "get there" Yankee that makes this one of the most fascinating offerings in the history of motion pictures. This picture was made in Panama upon the exact spots alluded to in the story.

NO PLAY of the year has met with such phenomenal success. Highest box office records in the history of the business have been smashed to smithereens. Played three weeks at Clune's Auditorium, Los Angeles. The Portola in San Francisco has been unable to handle the huge crowds. Get your friends together and come.

Specially arranged music will be played by our orchestra both nights.

Talent Odd Fellows' Convention a Success.

The Odd Fellows' convention held at Talent on Wednesday, April 26, was a huge success. A business session was held at 10:30 a. m. and was presided over by J. B. Coleman because of the absence of the president, R. G. Lockwood of Medford. The regular order of business being attended to and several resolutions being passed and adopted, the congress adjourned for a basket dinner, which was well represented in both numbers and quantity.

It was voted upon that the fall session be held in Ashland in September or October. The date will be announced later.

The afternoon session began at 2 p. m. and was opened by an address of welcome by G. W. Ager. Following this was a violin and piano duet by Margery and Helen Adamson. The principal address was by Mr. C. M. Thomas of Medford, who spoke about the teachings of Odd Fellowship. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott rendered a vocal selection which was appreciated by all. After a short address by Grand Warden Trefren of Ashland, the gathering adjourned to the ball grounds, where a baseball game was played.

The evening session was especially entertaining. After a few talks and some splendid music by the Siskiyou quartet of Ashland, dancing and cards were enjoyed. The music was furnished by Mr. H. O. Powers and Mr. Lonspaugh.

The convention is considered the best one ever held in the Odd Fellows' hall at Talent.
