

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Nine feet of snow at the rim of Crater Lake is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Veghte are visiting their son Earl at Klamath Falls. Berry T. Smith of Amity, Ore., was visiting with friends in the city Friday.

Miss Agnes Dietrich of Gold Hill visited the schools of Ashland Thursday.

County Clerk Gardner of Jacksonville was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Mrs. R. Kennedy is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Rightson, in Hornbrook.

W. J. Moore attended to legal business in Medford and Jacksonville Saturday.

Mrs. William Yeo and Mrs. Minnie Sargent visited relatives in Talent last week.

F. D. Swingle and wife with some friends took an auto trip to Siskiyou last week.

Prof. Otto Klum visited over Sunday in Ashland, motoring up from Medford Saturday.

Mrs. E. F. Smith underwent an operation at the Sanitarium last week and is doing nicely.

Several carloads of Medford young men attended social affairs in Ashland Saturday evening.

Mrs. Henry Barneburg is at the Sanitarium, where she recently underwent an operation.

A. S. Meyers, telephone official from Eugene, was a business visitor in the city Thursday.

A. T. Warner returned Saturday from a visit to his old stamping grounds in the middle west.

Straw hat season is on and we are ready with the shapes and styles you may desire. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mrs. S. M. McCulloch of New Albany, Ind., is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. A. Reno, in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Alford of Medford motored up Saturday evening and spent a few hours in the city.

Misses Helene Casey, Gertrude and Helene Biede spent Saturday evening visiting and seeing the sights in Medford.

Today is May day. Hereafter straw hats are viewed as the height of fashion (except when it is raining).

Mrs. Will Dodge underwent an operation at the Sanitarium recently and is doing as well as could be expected.

Misses Mildred and Hilda Sargeant returned last week from an extended visit at the home of relatives in Pawnee, Okla.

Gene Coy, who has been employed by the railroad company at this place, has recently moved with his wife to Hornbrook.

The Hotel Oregon is doing a steadily increasing business. A goodly number of traveling men spent Sunday in Ashland.

Judge C. B. Watson, candidate for the republican nomination for district attorney, made a business and campaigning trip down the valley Saturday.

Mrs. F. C. Bergeron and little daughter, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sinclair for the past two months, left Sunday for their home at Venice, Cal. Mrs. Bergeron arrived in Ashland in very poor health, suffering from rheumatism and a nervous attack. Two months of Ashland and lithia water sends her home in fine health. Incidentally the little girl gained eleven pounds in Ashland.

Ezra Miller and wife of Pisgah, Iowa, are visiting at the E. E. Miller home. The visiting couple are brother and sister, respectively, of Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Ashland.

Charley Cain, formerly a round-house foreman for the Southern Pacific here, has secured a good position in San Francisco, working at his trade of machinist.

A number of parties of Ashland motorists journeyed over the Siskiyou grade Sunday. The roads are in fair condition with the exception of two or three places.

Remember the date, Friday, May 5, Auxiliary ball at the Natatorium. Tickets $1, spectators 25 cents. Light refreshments 15 cents. 98-2t

Arthur Webber and Delbert Evans were among the Ashlanders who journeyed to Medford Thursday evening to see the Castles in "The Whirl of Life" on the Page Theatre screen.

Herman Mattern came over from his mine in the Salmon mountains last Friday and will return this week. He reports a great deal of snow and will put on more men when the snow melts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Neil have taken the neat little Chattin bungalow on Hargadine street formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Foster, who moved into the Updegraff residence on Manzanita street.

Charley Spindler, who has worked for a number of years for the ice company, had the misfortune to get his foot quite badly cut some time since, and the injured member has confined him to his home.

T. L. Vallandigham left last Thursday evening for California and will locate either at Berkeley or Santa Rosa. Mrs. Vallandigham has gone to Eugene and will visit friends and relatives there and at Hillsboro prior to joining her husband after he is located.

W. A. Freeberg returned last week from a visit with his son Will at Reno, Nev. On the way home he ran across E. M. Childs, a business man of Ypsilanti, Mich., who is touring the coast, and persuaded him to stop over in Ashland for a sightseeing visit.

Do you admire the man who does things, or the one who just tells what he can do? G. W. Ager never lost a position in his life, nor did he ever leave a position which he could not have held. Why? Adv. 98-1t

Claud Coon, who is visiting in Ashland with his wife and child, will go from here to Boulder, Colo., where he will locate. The Colorado city is Mr. Coon's former home. He has recently been engaged in the electrical contracting and motorcycle business in Klamath Falls.

The Southern Oregon Poultry Association will meet at the Medford public market next Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. to lay preliminary plans for the securing of the state poultry show for the Rogue River valley.

Plans have been completed by the state highway department for a reinforced concrete viaduct at the To'o crossing in this county. The viaduct will be 160 feet in length, estimated cost $6,000, and its construction will eliminate one grade crossing on the Pacific Highway over the Southern Pacific railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mason arrived in Ashland Thursday, en route home by auto from a several months' sojourn in California, and reported slippery going in places on the Siskiyou grade owing to repair work. Twice their car collided with other cars and Mr. Mason had a few bent rods and fenders straightened out while in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Kennedy have moved to Hornbrook for the summer. Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-1t

Loveland's orchestra will furnish music for the Auxiliary ball. 98-2t

Several local physicians are planning to attend the annual convention of the Southern Oregon Medical Association which will be held at Roseburg May 9.

The genuine Eastman film and other Kodak supplies at H. L. Whitted's. 97-2t

Miss Ruth York spent last week in the Pilot Rock district, visiting her sister Bessie, who teaches there. Misses Susanne Homes and Bessie York, who teach in district 38, spent the week-end at their homes in Ashland.

Allen Eaton of the University of Oregon, who spoke before the Federation Friday, left Saturday for Medford.

Mrs. L. O. Clement of Grants Pass was among the delegates from that city who attended the Federation meet.

George McColum and wife of Grants Pass came up Thursday to spend a few days visiting Ashland friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wimer returned to their Grants Pass home Thursday after a several days' visit in the city.

Miss Maude F. Barnes, librarian at the Grants Pass library, attended the Federated club meetings Thursday and Friday.

C. T. Wade, who is employed with the Southern Pacific company at Weed, Cal., spent the week-end with friends in Ashland.

A few of the liveliest merchants are tearing down decrepit appearing canvas awnings and replacing them with substantial awnings.

Don't miss the garland and other special dances at the Auxiliary hall at 8:30 at the Natatorium, Friday evening, May 5. 98-2t

Mrs. G. E. Millner of this city stopped for a few days with her husband at Weed, then went on to visit relatives in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Roy Cook and daughter Elva of Sacramento are spending a month's visit with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Peters.

Mrs. J. C. Thomas and two children returned to Grants Pass Thursday evening after a visit of several days with relatives in the city.

Mrs. A. H. Gilmore of Rogue River was the guest of Mrs. E. E. Bagley during the Southern Oregon District Federation convention last week.

Dr. J. M. Keene of Medford was in Ashland Saturday, accompanied by Charles Moore of Portland, a candidate for the republican nomination for secretary of state.

If you are not getting good Kodak pictures we will gladly help you. Genuine Eastman film, paper and Kodaks in stock. H. L. Whitted. 97-2t

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Conklin of Grants Pass arrived in the city Thursday, the former to attend to business affairs and the latter to attend the Federation convention.

Mesdames O. H. Gilmore, B. H. Harding and W. P. Wetherell of Rogue River were delegates to the District Convention of Women's Clubs last week. Mrs. Brower of Rogue River also attended.

The last chapter in the affairs of William Greenfield, the postal clerk who shot Postmaster Kaiser and then committed suicide in the Ashland postoffice last year, comes with the advertisement of his Indian motorcycle for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stoner are recent arrivals from California, where they have been spending the winter, and have rented the B. Beach home on Gresham street for the summer. Their home is in the state of Washington. Mrs. Stoner is a sister of Mrs. L. S. Brown of the Ashland Trading Company.

J. Edward Thornton, secretary of the Elks club, has joined the ever-increasing throng of slaves to the rise in the price of gasoline. Hum Pracht took his life in his hands and accompanied J. Edward on a drive over Glenview Drive, above the city, Sunday, it being the first venture of the new convert off the pavement.

Commencing at about 2 o'clock, a steady stream of cars and pedestrians poured up into Ashland, Chautauqua and Lithia parks yesterday afternoon. A beautiful day brought out a big crowd. The trees in the parks are leaved out and the shady walks are very attractive on warm days like Sunday.

Khaki colored auto overcoats at $2, made of good washable material, all sizes, at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

The Commercial Club requests the names and addresses of parties who are considering coming to the coast this summer. We wish to send them literature and give them a good conception of Oregon. 74-1t

There's a Reason

G. W. AGER, Republican Candidate for School Superintendent.

Why is G. W. Ager the highest salaried school man in this part of the state employed as principal in a high school maintaining less than four years? After serving two years as rural school supervisor in Jackson county, why was he rehired to go back into the Talent school, where he had previously been principal for nearly three years? Why was he again retained with increase of salary? Why has he been asked to remain at Talent another year? Why did the citizens of Willmont, Minn., retain him as principal of their schools for six years and with an increase of salary each year? Give him your vote and find out. (Paid advertisement.)

H. P. Campbell and wife of Rogue River drove to Ashland Monday and from here took the train to Monte Vista, Col. They expect to take about three months to reach their destination as they will visit several places on the way. They were accompanied as far as Ashland by their daughter, Mrs. E. R. Strahan, who returned later in the week.

For something to eat, men may go to a grocery store, but for something to wear they are sure to go to a men's store. Exclusive men's store, Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Fred G. Buchtel of Salem, deputy sealer of weights and measures under State Treasurer Tom Kay, was in the city Thursday on official business with his deputy, C. L. Hanson, of Jacksonville. Mr. Buchtel is a candidate for the republican nomination for a member of the public service commission, but owing to his official duties will not be able to make a personal campaign of the state.

"Keep Cool" underwear in short sleeve knee length or long sleeve ankle length at $1 per suit. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Mrs. George H. McCoy and infant son are visiting at the J. W. McCoy home, having recently arrived from San Diego, Cal., where Mr. McCoy is installing a plant for the Swift corporation. The family home is at Bartow, Fla., where C. R. McCoy, father of the boys, and his daughter, Miss Bessie, formerly living here, are now residing. The son, George, will join his family here later on from southern California.

If the need for and the use of glasses were better understood, the benefits derived from wearing them would be fully appreciated, and much needless suffering and annoyance avoided. We suggest that you have us examine your eyes. H. L. Whitted, optician. 97-2t

Mrs. J. J. McMahon and sons of Rogue River were recent visitors with relatives in the city.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

What Prudent People Want

Safe investment—that is what prudent people desire for their funds.

You can accomplish good results by starting an account with The Citizens Bank of Ashland.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

$19.50

For any Silk Suit up to $35.00

For any Wool Suit up to $35.00

This lot now includes every one of our better suits. Those that were $22.50 and $24.50 last week.

Too Many Suits Left—That's Why

Other Suits $12.50 up

Corduroy Sport Coats - $5.00 up
A Dozen Cloth Coats - $7.50 to $11.85

Crepe de Chine Waists $3 to $5

In spite of the scarcity of this favored silk a recent shipment brings to us a goodly quantity, $3.00 up.

Taffetta Petticoats $5

A dozen new ones made of plain and changeable chiffon taffetta, $5

Gaiety Waists
1.00--1.19--1.50

They are here, and they are splendid! You will be pleased to find that you can buy such pretty waists for so little. 108 of them at 1.00, 1.19, 1.50

Underwear

We believe we have assembled the best values in knitted vests and suits we have yet shown.
Vests 15 to 60c
Suits 35c to $1.50

Niagara silk vests and suits. Niagara silk envelope chemises.

Undermuslins

Envelope chemises and drawers, corset covers, combination Princess slips and gowns.

Middy blouses and Middy suits, Bungalow kimonos and aprons.

McGee's
DRY GOODS

"Old Homestead" Wednesday. Following close upon "The Ne'er-Do-Well," which is the Monday and Tuesday attractions at the Vining, comes "The Old Homestead," a film adaptation of Denham Thompson's rural classic which for thirty years has held the laughter and tears of the public under its magic spell. Frank Losee plays the lead, assisted by such clever actors as Creighton Hale, Denham Moley, Louise Huff and others. This Paramount attraction will be shown at the Vining Wednesday.

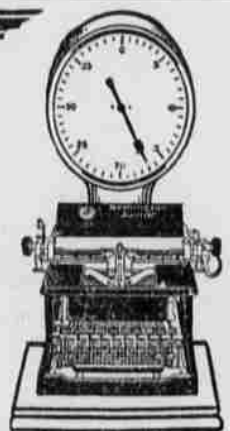

ASHLAND Storage and Transfer Co
C. F. BATES Proprietor.

Two warehouses near Depot. Goods of all kinds stored at reasonable rates.

A General Transfer Business. Wood and Rock Springs Coal.

Phone 117.
Office, 99 Oak Street, ASHLAND, OREGON.

Seventeen Pounds of Satisfaction

DIRECT TO YOU BY PARCEL POST

REMINGTON JUNIOR TYPEWRITER

Here at last a real writing machine, simplified and boiled down to the smallest practical size, sold on terms and at a price that place it within the reach of every one.

Built by the world-renowned Remington Typewriter Company, and carrying the regular Remington guarantee.

A labor saver for the home and an educator for the children. A work facilitator and thought accelerator for professional men. A time saver and business safeguard for the farm and office.

Say the word, and we will mail it to you on ten days' examination. Set it up and use it. If you decide not to keep it, send it back—that's all. If you decide to keep it, the price is $50. Send us 10 monthly payments of $5 each and the machine is yours.

MAIL THE COUPON TODAY

Remington Typewriter Company, (Incorporated) 327 Broadway, New York

Send me a Remington Junior Typewriter, price $50, on free examination. It is understood that I may return the machine, if I choose, within ten days. If I decide to purchase it, I agree to pay for it in 10 monthly payments of $5 each.

Crowson's

Cordially invites you to attend

the season's opening,

Wednesday, May 3rd

Music and entertainment afternoon and evening.