Form Wilson Club At Talent

Not to be outdone by her larger neighbors, Ashland and Medford, the city of Talent has a Woodrow Wilson club which was formed Tuesday evening in that city. About forty men and women were present. The organization was quickly formed, Porter J. Neff delivering the principal address, followed by Newton W. Borden. Officers were elected as follows: J. H. Tuller, president; Dr. J. F. Hart, secretary; J. Terrill, vice-president; Louis Brown, treasurer.

Meetings will be held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. The club promises to be one of the most active in the county.

Talent Tidings

Miss Alice Vandersluis, Talent correspondent, is authorized to represent the Tidings in all business relations in this field. Headquarters, Vandersluis & Burgan store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Withrow are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son April 30.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Purvis are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter April 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean of Wagner Creek motored to Phoenix Wednesday.

Mrs. Allan Abbott of Wagner Creek was a business visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Murphy has accepted the position of housekeeper, for the summer, for Mrs. Inman.

R. J. Luke has added a new awning to his building.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. High entertained a number of little girls at a party Friday afternoon in honor of their daughter Helen's seventh birthday.

On Thursday evening seventeen men met at the lecture room of the Methodist church and spent a very pleasant and profitable evening talking over the proposed new club. It was the unanimous opinion of those present that such a club would do very good work along a number of lines, and J. H. Fuller was elected president, Mr. Weaver vice-president, and Jay Withrow secretary and treasurer. After deciding to hold meetings on the first and third Thursdays of each month, refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

James Eads and daughter, Miss Maude Eads, of Hammond, Ind., arrived Monday and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Mark Kline of Wagner Creek. Mrs. Kline is a daughter of Mr. Eads, and it is twenty years since they had seen each other. Mr. Eads came with the idea of making a permanent home in the valley.

The Yeoman lodge served ice cream and cake at the hall last Tuesday evening. Later on in the evening dancing was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Scott of Wagner Creek were business visitors Friday.

Mrs. M. C. Reed of Ashland entertained the ladies of the Missionary Society of the M. E. church at a luncheon Thursday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pellett and family have moved to the Barron ranch, south of Ashland.

Mrs. E. Adamson and daughter were Medford visitors Monday.

The Community Club held their regular meeting at their club rooms Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in listening to the reports of the delegates. Mrs. A. E. Perry and Mrs. Crawford, who attended the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs at Ashland. A committee was appointed to submit subjects for the next year. A reception for the elderly ladies of the community is planned for some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell of the Big-ham ranch were business visitors Friday.

Mrs. E. A. Perry entertained the P. C. Club at her home Thursday.

Miss Jenks of Fresno, Cal., arrived Thursday to visit. She expects to stay two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kerby left Thursday to spend the summer in California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perry, Mrs. L. P. Ames and daughter Lucile were Medford visitors Friday.

R. J. Luke spent Thursday at Frederick, looking after his ranch work. At the M. E. church a junior choir was organized, consisting of twenty-five voices, for the purpose of increasing interest in the Sunday school. The choir always commences at 9:45 Sunday morning. Remember to come early or you will miss the chorus.

The Men's Club of the Methodist church held their regular social meeting in the church Thursday night. The topic for discussion was the subject of preparedness, which proved to be an interesting one and at times somewhat exciting. The members plunged into the debate with a fiery zeal and readiness that kept Chairman Fuller busy every minute attending to his job. Those who took part were H. C. High, Henry Elmore, Ernst Minuth, Mr. McCormick, Carl Froman, Carl Lehman, Jay Withrow, M. C. Reed, James Weaver, Mr. Sleppey, E. E. Cook, E. B. Adamson, J. H. Fuller and I. C. Williams. After the program refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

PHOENIX AND TALENT ITEMS.

(By C. O. M.)

Emmett Beeson of Talent was a Medford business caller Monday.

R. E. Robison of Wagner Creek was at the Carey plant farm Saturday, buying tomato and cabbage plants. Homer Niel of Talent was buying hay in North Talent last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler of North Talent drove to Ashland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rader of Phoenix attended the Elks ball at Medford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terrill of Brownsboro came over to Talent to attend the track meet last week.

Joe Henry of North Talent, who lost his home on April 3, by fire, received the amount of his insurance. The sum was only $500, but will be that much help in rebuilding.

John Schideler and wife of Talent visited their daughter, Mrs. Lacy, of Phoenix, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Mast of Phoenix were Ashland visitors last week.

J. M. Rader went out to his mountain ranch in the Dead Indian country Wednesday.

A. S. Furry is having a Myers deep-well pump installed for pumping water for his house and grounds at his home near Phoenix.

A number of the Ladies' Aid gave Mrs. Scooby a shower at the home of Mrs. Fred Furry of Phoenix last Tuesday.

Water has again been turned in the big irrigation ditch in the Talent-Phoenix vicinity, and it is hoped will stay there throughout the summer. The company has had more or less trouble with leaks and with a fish wheel which did not work to suit them.

The Commercial Club requests the names and addresses of parties who are considering coming to the coast this summer. We wish to send them literature and give them a good conception of Oregon. 74-tf
