In the Social Realm

Mrs. L. Hilty has been elected Sunday school superintendent of the Congregational church in place of J. Hoag, who has resigned.

Mrs. Elsie Churchman leaves the last of the week for Portland, where she will attend the Rose Festival and represent Alpha chapter of Ashland at the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. She will visit her sister while in Portland.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner leaves Friday for Eugene, where she will attend the commencement exercises at the University of Oregon. Carol Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner, graduates next week. He has been specializing in chemistry and mineralogy and has taken high honors in these branches.

Harrington-Ramsay.
J. H. Harrington and Miss Myrtle Ramsay were married in Ashland Monday. Mr. Harrington is in the employ of the California-Oregon Power Company as lineman. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Susie N. Ramsay. She is a young lady of very pleasing personality.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mrs. C. T. Sanford and Miss Gertrude Churchman will leave Saturday in the former's car for Portland, where they will attend the Rose Festival. Miss Churchman, who has been visiting the Carters here, will remain in Portland. Mrs. Sanford, who has spent the winter in Ashland, will continue her journey from Portland to her home in New York.

O. A. C. Commencement.
Invitations are out for the forty-seventh annual commencement at Oregon Agricultural College. The commencement festivities will extend over several days, from June 2 to 6 inclusive. Pageants, great musical recitals, the alumni festivities, ball, baccalaureate, senior play, commencement and a host of other features will make the five days full ones for the visitor and student alike.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were granted at the county seat this week:

Harvey E. Wilcox and Ethel D. Burnett.

Frank Jones and Malvira Goodwin. Frank H. Harrington and Myrtle M. Ramsey.

Harold Gregory and Thory Johnston.

Epworth Convention

The annual meeting of the Klamath district of the Epworth League will be held at Roseburg, June 2 to 4 inclusive. About eight delegates will go from Ashland. John Riggs of this city is down for a talk, his theme being "Service". The Ashland delegation will make an effort to secure the convention for this city next year.

University's Fortieth Anniversary.
Announcements and invitations have been received locally to the exercises celebrating the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the University of Oregon. The exercises will be held in Villard hall at the university in Eugene on Monday, June 5. The speakers will include Governor Withycombe and several prominent alumni. The laying of the cornerstone of the new education building at the university will be a feature of the day.

Farewell Good Luck Party.
Acorn Circle No. 54, Women of Woodcraft, desirous to give Godspeed to two of its members who will soon leave Ashland to make their home elsewhere, found expression in a farewell good luck party Saturday evening at I. O. O. F. hall.

The clerk in behalf of the circle presented to each guest of honor a token of love and appreciation: To Emma B. Earle a silver pie knife, and to Naomi L. Reynolds table linen.

An interesting program of music and readings was rendered. A delicious menu was served in the banquet hall. The decorations were appropriate for the occasion.

Will Represent Lodges

Stuart Saunders, worshipful master of Ashland lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., and Dr. W. E. Blake, high priest of Siskiyou chapter, No. 21, R. A. M., will represent these bodies at the grand lodge and grand chapter gatherings, the 66th and 56th respectively, which will convene at Albany this year, the dates being June 5-9, inclusive. Mrs. Elsie Churchman, worthy matron of Alpha chapter, No. 1, O. E. S., will represent that body at its grand chapter meeting in Portland.

Luncheon.

Mrs. H. L. Whited entertained at luncheon last Friday for the pleasure of Mrs. Ella Rice of Portland, who is visiting relatives in the city. The following were present besides the guest of honor: Mesdames Ella Mills, O. Winter, F. D. Wagner, A. E. Kihney and G. W. Eubanks.

A. Lemery; Sunday, 8 p. m., Rev. H. A. Autry. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. Come and visit the Ashland Mission at 223 Fourth street. COMMITTEE.

Baptist Church Notes

Mr. Ora Delbert's class of boys will give an ice cream and strawberry festival in the basement of the church on Friday evening. Our boys have given themselves to the task of helping to raise the Judson Memorial fund. Let us rally around the boys Friday night. Everyone is invited.

Thursday night is a special night in every week. Every Baptist in the city ought to be at prayer meeting every Thursday night.

Our average attendance at Sunday school is increasing. Let's keep it on the run. 9:45 is the time every Sunday morning.

At the morning service the theme will be, "All Things Working Together for the Progress of the Gospel." In the evening at 8 o'clock it will be "My Salvation."

The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7 o'clock. The topic, "The Consecration of Money." The leader, Miss Thelma Thorne. Under the leadership of H. O. Butterfield we have live meetings. Come!

ARTHUR R. BLACKSTONE.

Glass of Water Envelopes.

The glass of water envelopes are now on sale at Poley's drug store and East Side Pharmacy at the same price as at the Tidings office. Citizens should buy these envelopes and use them on all their correspondence. It is a small contribution to so great a cause as the establishment of Ashland as a resort of consequence. Every citizen owes that much to the cause. Buy and use the glass of water envelopes in all your correspondence. The future of Ashland will be determined largely by the force each citizen puts behind its enterprise.
