

Mr. Went-And-Cut-It —Here's Mr. 'Gets-It'

The New Plan Corn Cure That's as Sure as the Rising Sun.

"Glad to meet you" says the razor to the corn. "I'll bleed for you" says the corn to the razor. Razors and corns love each other. Corns love to

"Why, O Why, Did I Do It 'Gets-It' for Me After This—If I Live!" he cut, picked, gouged, saved, plastered and jacked out—they grow faster. Mr. and Mrs. Went-and-Cut-It realize it now—they use "Gets-It" instead—it's the wonderful, simple corn-cure that never fails, stops pain. You apply it in 2 seconds, it dries at once, the corn is loosed. Nothing to stick to the stocking or press on the corn. It means good-night to plasters, salves, diggers, razors and toe-bundling. You can wear smaller shoes. Your corns will come right off, "clean as a whistle." Never inflames healthy flesh. The world's biggest selling corn cure. "Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, in a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Ashland and recommended as the world's best Corn remedy by McNair Bros. and J. J. McNair.

WEST PHOENIX.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Webster and Dr. and Mrs. Gordon McCracken and family of Ashland enjoyed a very pleasant motor trip last Sunday, touching at Willow Springs, Rock Point, Gold Hill and Grants Pass. Before returning they visited the teachers' colony near Gold Hill and disposed of a delicious picnic lunch on the beach opposite the Rosalie ranch. Needless to say, ample justice was done to the several dainties, the appetites of all being enhanced by the long ride.

Mrs. H. H. Corliss and Mrs. Dave Walker motored to Talent to attend to business matters on Tuesday morning. In the afternoon they went to Medford. Mrs. Corliss has become quite proficient in handling her machine, but there are those who say that good old "terry terms" is good enough for them.

In spite of the recent frost scare there is quite a lot of thinning being done in this section. Dr. Webster is thinning apples and pears and there is a crew at work on the Beavard ranch thinning apples.

Albert Ship, who is captain of a freighter plying between Sacramento and San Francisco, is visiting his mother, Mrs. H. C. Ship, of Medford. He was a visitor at the Rocky Ford ranch on Thursday.

Bill Cottrell was down from The Meadows on Thursday looking after his interests at the old Cottrell place.

Mrs. Sheets was the recipient of many beautiful and dainty gifts at a stork shower given for her by the ladies of the Presbyterian choir and Ladies' Aid at the home of Mrs. Frame in West Phoenix on Thursday. A dainty lunch was served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore and family of The Meadows motored down to the valley and attended the funeral of the late Rev. William Clyde. Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Caldwell, of Los Angeles, who has been visiting in Ashland, returned to The Meadows with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cottrell and infant son motored down from The Meadows on Monday and visited Mrs. Cottrell's parents, returning the same evening.

Mrs. Evelyn Johnstone of Medford visited Mrs. E. Calhoun one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Denzer entertained with a turkey dinner at her ranch home in West Phoenix last Sunday. Mrs. Debley and Miss Margaret Dally

DON'T BE CARRIED AWAY BY THE CATALOGUE HABIT

ARE YOU among the thousands of men and women who are CARRIED AWAY by the catalogue habit? Is there anyone in YOUR immediate family circle who is allowing this habit to run away with him? If so, there is work for YOU to do. This HABIT started more than forty years ago. It is THIS SAME habit that has stunted the growth of thousands of communities. It has built up a few enormously large CITIES at the expense of YOUR town. DON'T allow a habit like this to run away with YOU. Take the bit in your OWN teeth. Investigate for YOURSELF. FIND OUT. Talk it over with your HOME merchant. Get your heads together. That HABIT is hurting you BOTH. By killing this habit you benefit yourself, your children, your neighbors, your community. Spend your money at home.

of Medford and the Misses Mary and Eleanor Dally and Ray Yost were dinner guests. All did justice to the delicious dinner, Miss Margaret Dally, now a full-fledged Grizzly, demonstrating to the satisfaction of all present a Grizzly's capacity for turkey. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walker called in the afternoon and a very pleasant time was spent in conversation and music. Leland Denzer played a number of popular Irish melodies on his violin and Miss Stella Denzer played his accompaniments on the piano. The guests returned to their homes voting the Denzers royal entertainers.

About thirty young people of the Presbyterian congregation met at the church last Friday evening and participated in a wood-cutting bee, the young men cutting and the young ladies tiering the wood. About five tiers were cut before it became too dark to work. After viewing their work with satisfaction the young folks gathered about a huge bonfire and a wiener roast was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Alming were Medford visitors one day last week.

Dr. Morgan has returned to his duties at Klamath Falls. Mrs. Morgan accompanied him.

SISKIYOU HEADLIGHTS.

The road camp has moved back from Bear canon to Siskiyou.

Mrs. Ragland leaves on Thursday for a visit to her home in Ontario, Canada, taking Miss Ruth with her.

Sunday school met as usual last Sunday, W. G. Tucker coming up from Ashland for it.

H. B. Cole of Colestin was at the Hornbrook ball game Sunday. Mr. Cole is making some repairs and improvements at his popular resort and will be ready for resort seekers by July.

J. L. Creeks and his bridge carpenters were at tunnels 14 and 15 for three days, putting up new tunnel warnings.

The dance at Hornbrook Saturday night was well patronized, dancers coming from Ager and Hilt for the evening. Peterson's orchestra from Yreka furnished the music and Antone Bonderson was the genial floor manager.

Jim and Frank Clegg, who have been visiting the Wycoffs at the trestle, have returned to Santa Rosa, Cal.
