

In the Social Realm

Pupils of Miss Calkins, Miss Vandenshuis and Mr. Dana will give a public recital on Friday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Quite an original picnic was held Sunday in Ashland Lithia Park when the wedding anniversary of four Medford couples was celebrated. They motored from Medford early in the morning and a bountiful dinner was set at noon, of which all partook. The four were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Van Scoyoc, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs, and their families, seventeen in all. Lunch was served in the evening before returning home.

The Chautauqua Park Club will meet at Chautauqua hall Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Special business will be attended to and a full attendance is desired.

The Ashland lodge of Elks will be represented at the Grand Lodge at Buffalo, N. Y., by D. A. Applegate, past exalted ruler of 944. He will leave about July 1.

Practically everybody in Ashland who dances will drop in at The Bungalow this evening and dance a couple of rounds for the benefit of the fund which the ladies of the city are raising for the purpose of bringing the Grants Pass band here for the celebration. Ten cents a dance will be charged. The Bungalow is donating the floor for the occasion. The following will act as patronesses: Mesdames E. D. Briggs, Stuart Saunders, A. D. Graham, Sylvan Provost, M. E. Briggs, D. D. Norris, O. A. Paulsen, A. L. Strickland, J. K. Choate and B. R. Greer.

A jollier crowd cannot be found than those who partook of the 6 o'clock picnic dinner given by Dr. Hawley in Lithia Park Wednesday. Two long tables were beautifully decorated and fairly groaned with all that could be desired in the culinary line—a veritable feast. The fortunate guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McAllister and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyd and son, Prof. and Mrs. Dana and children, Mr. and Mrs. Barber and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beagle and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Dunford and son, Mr. Hawley, Mrs. Willson and daughter, Mrs. Drake and Violetta, and Miss Katherine Van Dellen of Yreka. At 8 o'clock the party repaired to the vicinity of the bandstand to enjoy the concert, all voting Dr. Hawley an ideal hostess.

The Woman's Benefit association of the Maccabees, formerly the Lady Maccabees of the World, was visited by the state leader, Margaret Herrin, Wednesday and Thursday of last week. There was held a rally at the hall and an initiation of 25 members. Luncheon was served on Wednesday at Crowson's confectionery. The tables were decorated with the colors of the order and Loveland's orchestra dispensed music during the eating, and also favored the ladies with several songs. On Thursday a picnic was held in Lithia park with about 20 in attendance. Among the guests were ladies from Sisson, Hornbrook, Medford, Talent, and other valley points. Mrs. Herrin organized this lodge 19 years ago next month and the class initiated Wednesday was the largest in the history of the order.

Former Captain Goes to Mexico

John L. May, now lieutenant-colonel of the third regiment, Oregon Infantry, passed through with the third troop train today on its way south. He is familiarly known to Ashland people as Captain May, having been captain of company D, third regiment, O. N. G., before the war with Spain. He is in command of the troops on his train today, is a little stouter than he used to be, looks hale and hearty and able to withstand the ordeals of a strenuous campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Thomas arrived yesterday from Los Angeles for a stay of two or three days on their return to their home in Portland. Both are well known in Ashland, where they formerly lived. Some years ago Mr. Thomas was a train dis-

This Week at the Vining Theatre

Thursday.
William S. Hart comes to the Vining Theatre in an exceptionally strong play of the old-time west, "Hell's Hinges." As the strong character, Blaze Tracy, Hart is at his best. The scene of the story is laid in a western mining town aptly named Hell's Hinges and living up to the name.

With Hart's picture comes a rollicking comedy featuring William Collier in "Wife and Auto Troubles."

Friday.
Marguerite Clark in "Out of the Drifts," one of the choicest offerings of her career, comes to the Vining Friday.

The eternal snows of the Swiss Alps serve as the background for the thrilling story of a young Alpine shepherdess and her trials betwixt her love for an unworthy man and the love of a worthy man for her. It is a story of suffering and self-sacrifice which ends happily. The settings of the play are very beautiful.

Saturday.
John Emerson in "The Flying Torpedo" heads a list of film stars which make this Triangle offering a great one. As the name denotes, the picture is unique in the extreme and combines clever acting with photography never before attempted. In these war times the picture is sure to draw. A two-reel Keystone, "The Village Blacksmith," is also an attraction which will aid in making Saturday's Triangle program rank as one of the best of recent weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson of Winchester, Cal., arrived on Saturday for a visit during the celebration and Chautauqua periods with relatives in the families of Sylvester Patterson of this city and Joshua Patterson of Phoenix. John is the oldest of the surviving Patterson brothers.

Ms. Calver Furry of Phoenix returned with her mother to Portland for a short visit with her brother, and with old friends.

patcher at the Southern Pacific depot here and later was assistant cashier of the old Bank of Ashland. He is now filling a position in Vice-President Fuller's office of the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company.
