The law of "try again" is as potent in want advertising as in any other effort or enterprise.

Pensions for Express Employees

Things are picking up for Express Agent Dan Applegate. He now is established in the spick and span new Wells-Fargo office in the Hotel Oregon. He is also happy over receiving word of a new pension and benefit system which has been inaugurated by the Wells-Fargo company. This enlarges the age pension allowances and provides substantial additional allowances to the employee in the event of disability, and to his beneficiaries in case of death. The disability allowance is alike a re-assurance against the fear of loss of income through sickness or accident and a means of support should such misfortune occur.

Boys May Enlist Parents' Consent

Former Resident Dies at Oroville

Word has been received from the postmaster at Honcut in Butte county, California, that G. W. Wood, a former Ashland resident, died about the 1st of June at the county hospital at Oroville, California.

The deceased conducted a barber shop at Honcut and left his outfit of barber tools, personal belongings and house furnishings in the building he lived in where they remain unclaimed. The postmaster requests that publicity be given this so that if the deceased has any relatives they can care for his belongings and if they wish can learn about the circumstances surrounding his death by communicating with the superintendent of the Oroville County hospital.

Professor Gilbert, authority on economics, finds that the aggregate wealth of Oregon is $1,944,354,463, about 60 per cent of which is real estate. The rest is public utilities, livestock and manufactures in the order named.

Among the world's great story tellers, those gifted, entertaining fellers, Rex Beach is stacking high; and I am always in my glory when I have got a new Beach story; it suits me more than pie. Red blood in all his yarns is seething; his characters are living, breathing, not dummies made of wood; strong men admire his kind of writing, of heroism, peril, fighting—it's always to the good. And Rex, when he's busy working, his trusty old typewriter jerking, until it busts a spoke, to have his inspiration quickened keeps all the air around him thickened with rich Tuxedo smoke. Say, have you noticed, gentle readers, how many famous men and leaders explain Tuxedo's worth? As man's great solace they expound it, and that's because they all have found it the best there is on earth.

REX BEACH Famous Author, says "I have smoked Tuxedo in sub-Arctic Alaska, at Panama and everywhere—would not smoke another kind."

Many Pythian Bands At Grand Lodge

So many northwest lodges of the Knights of Pythias are going to be accommodated by their own bands when they go to Portland to attend the meeting of the Supreme Lodge of the order, August 1 to 10, that the local committee will be able to supply music for every conceivable occasion. Eastern Oregon lodges are preparing to keep the Union and Wallowa district K. of P. band on the ground from the time the first visitors begin to arrive in Portland until the last outgoing ticket is punched by the gateman at the union station. The band is one of the best musical organizations in the eastern part of the state. It is composed of members of the order. Washington's Uniformed Rank brigade is bringing two bands, all soldiers of the rank, to liven up the military camp at Vancouver's City Park and to participate in the parades and festivities of the program being arranged for Portland. Four companies of the Oregon division of the Uniformed Rank are expected to join the Washington brigade at Vancouver. They will be the crack drill squads of Portland, Hillsboro, Medford and McMinnville. The Supreme Lodge meeting at Portland bids fair to be the largest attended and most successful convention held by the Pythian order in many years. From many sections of the northwest lodges are coming in a body, while hundreds of parties of friends are being made up to visit Oregon's chief city and the Columbia River Highway.

Frank Hanly of Indianapolis, Ind., is soon to issue an art volume, 'A Day in the Siskiyou,' as one of the results of his lecture tours into Oregon. He tells about climbing Mt. Ashland and seeing the sunrise, and
