First Church of Christ, Scientist.
South Pioneer avenue. Sunday service at 11 o'clock. Subject of lesson sermon, "Life." Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Reading room open from 2 to 4 daily except Sundays.

Dinner Party.
At the home of Mrs. F. D. Yarbrough occurred a dinner party Saturday evening in honor of her son Clifford and Mr. Gordon Cornell and Mr. Paul Kurs, who were leaving for Odessa, where they are employed by the Pelican Bay Lumber Company. Clifford and Gordon acted as hosts and served a very dainty luncheon. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hadfield, Miss Agnes McAllister, Mrs. F. D. Yarbrough and Miss May Hadfield.

Baptist Church Notes.
O. F. Carson and his corps of teachers are on hand every Sunday morning at 9:45 for the work of the Sunday school. Our attendance keeps up even if we are having celebrations and the Chautauqua. Come and find your place in one of the various classes.
Next Sunday evening we shall all go to the Chautauqua building, but in the morning there will be services in the church at 11 o'clock. Rev. L. L. Simmons, the pastor at Eagle Point, will preach. Let us greet our visiting brother with a full house.
Next week the pastor will again be at his work.—A. R. B.

Abof.
Way back in pigtail days a number of the little girls of Ashland who are now grown up, or at least look upon themselves as grown up, organized a club which they christened the Abof Club. For the first time in history sixteen members of the fair sex have kept a secret for a period of years and the meaning of Abof remains a mystery. The club has of course met irregularly, sometimes only once or twice a year, but the organization still lives, and on last Tuesday the club members who are now in Ashland entertained a number of guests at a picnic dinner in Lithia Park. A jolly evening naturally resulted. The club members present were: Misses Ruth Turner, Josephine Saunders, Olive Thorne, Marian Hodgson, Vivian Greer, Allie Shinn, Gayle John son and Lucile Barber. The guests: Miss Hortense Winter, Gladys Carnahan, Doris Bagley, Alice Vandersluis, Margaret Ames, Ruby Palmer, Freeman, Leonard of Fargo, N. D., Vivian Washburn of Napa, Cal., and Waive Jacobs of Klamath Falls.

Presbyterian Church.
The Presbyterian church will hold regular services next Sunday morning at 11. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. There will be no evening services, due to the union meeting at Chautauqua.

Young People's Union in Chautauqua Hall.

Dr. J. D. Springston, a director of young people's work in the northwest, will meet the young people of the city every evening until the end of Chautauqua at 6:30 in Chautauqua hall. His subjects will be: "The Christian and the Church," "The Young Christian's Devotional Life," "The Young Christian and Education," "The Young Christian and Social Service," "The Young Christian and World Evangelization" and "The Young Christian and His Life's Work." This is a rare opportunity that we have of catching inspiration and getting the ideals and methods from a specialist in young people's work.

Heinsbergen-Lennart.
Miss Dorothy Lennart, a former Ashland girl and a graduate of the Ashland high school, was married in Los Angeles to A. B. Heinsbergen of that city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Chisholm, formerly of this city. The couple are touring Southern California in an automobile which was a wedding gift and will afterwards visit Seattle en route to Minneapolis. Mr. Heinsbergen is a decorator of the interior of theatres and an artist whose ability is becoming recognized all over the country. He has decorated several of the big coast theatres and goes to Minneapolis to decorate the Pantages Theatre at that place. Miss Lennart has a host of friends in Ashland who will send congratulations.

More Campers Than Ever Before in Park

And still they come. Vacant spaces which in past years were given over to benches and lawn are now occupied by tents. A half dozen were put up yesterday. The warm weather is driving people from their homes to the park—that is, all who can conveniently go—where the thermometer registers from five to ten degrees lower than on the sunny hillside. Ashland is indeed fortunate in having her park. It offers really the only comfort in the valley on the warmest afternoons. The campers in the park are more numerous this year than ever before. Home folks of course are in the majority, but from all over the valley the visitors have brought their tents and Chautauqua Park has representatives from almost every community in southern Oregon. And the best part of it is the air of hominess which seems to prevail everywhere in the park. It is just like one big family with everyone knowing everyone else.

Many campers found locations for their tents higher up the canyon, finding Chautauqua Park so crowded, and it is hard to get the names of all. The tents are numbered and the tents in Chautauqua Park were assigned to the following persons:

1. G. A. Morse; 2. W. N. Grubb; 3. G. F. Billings; 4. Mrs. E. A. Smith; 5. Mrs. M. J. Norris; 6. B. C. Tabor; 7. Rev. J. S. Smith; 8. C. W. Fraley; 9. Mrs. George Pisk; 10. Mrs. Gore and Mrs. Keizer; 11. T. M. Lynch; 12. Mrs. W. N. Wright; 13. Mrs. W. M. Yeo; 14. Alva Norcross; 15. G. E. Carpenter; 16. Mrs. W. H. Tinker; 17. E. S. Jacobs; 18. Frank Rose; 20. Mrs. Ada Evans; 21. J. W. Birkhoz; 22. Mrs. B. R. Greer; 23. R. W. Eldon; 23 1/2. Rose James and Mrs. J. H. King; 24. Prof. A. J. Hanby; 25. B. I. Van Gilder; 26. I. S. Hodges; 27. Nora Newton; 28. Sorena Stratton; 29. A. E. Stratton; 30. J. D. Sears; 31. R. H. Arnold; 32. W. J. Freeman; 33. O. F. Carson; 34. Lulu M. Roberts; 35. W. H. Hodgkinson; 36. C. W. Roberts; 36 1/2. E. A. Richards; 37. H. Estes; 40. George Watson; 41. W. A. Turner; 42. Mrs. A. P. Holmes; 43. Mrs. H. C. High; 44. Mrs. Jeffreys; 45. W. A. Patrick; 46 1/2. W. W. Hevener; 47. G. B. Halley; 48 and 49. W. C. T. U. tents; 50. W. M. Stump; 51. W. S. Standliff; 52. F. B. Oatman; 53. Frank Tompkins; 54. Mrs. W. N. Holdridge; 55 1/2. Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Mullt; 56. Mrs. H. W. Frame; 58. F. W. Moore; 59. Mrs. C. Price; 60. Rev. H. A. Carnahan; 61. Miss Hazel Lowe; 62. I. C. Williams; 63. J. M. Martin; 64. Enders and Wright; 65. W. F. Wood; 66. E. M. Stannard; 68. Church rest tent; 73. Mrs. H. P. Hargrove; 74. Mrs. N. S. McCormick.

Patriotic Ceremony Inspired Big Crowd

One of the features of the Fourth of July celebration which should not pass unmentioned was the patriotic ceremony which was held at ten in the morning of the Fourth in Lithia Park. A vast crowd assembled and enjoyed an address by Prof. I. E. Vining which permeated the spirit of the day throughout the throng. E. D. Briggs presided as chairman over the affair and after a few appropriate remarks introduced Miss Minnie Jackson, who read the document without the reading of which the Fourth would be incomplete—the Declaration of Independence. E. L. Raser sang two selections, the audience rising and joining in his rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner." The Grants Pass band played inspiring patriotic airs.

Forest Officers and The National Guard

District Forester George H. Cecil of Portland has received the following telegram from the chief forester, Henry S. Graves, of Washington, D. C., in reference to employees of the Forest Service who belong to the National Guard:

"Forester desires to aid employees who are members of the National Guard to fulfill their military obligations. For this purpose he will approve applications for leave and will, so far as possible consistent with civil service rules and future appropriations, assure them restoration to present positions after completion of service in the army. Please report immediately approximate number of employees in district who are members of the guard and will probably request leave in response to the president's call."

Contract has been let for the construction of an amusement park at Roseburg.

Next Four Days At Chautauqua

Attendance at Chautauqua this year is the greatest yet, and immense crowds from out of town arrive to attend the evening sessions. The offerings of the next four days include attractions which should pack the Chautauqua tabernacle at every session. The program of the next four days follows:

Scott Makes Long Stay in Ashland

John M. Scott, general passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, and who with other Southern Pacific officials, including Vice-Presidents E. O. McCormick and W. F. Herrin, was here for the Springs Dedication Celebration, says: "I have remained longer in Ashland this trip than I have ever stayed in any city in Oregon outside of Portland. And I am not ready to go, either, although I have to." Mr. Scott is and has been from the first inception of the park and springs project one of the enthusiastic believers in Ashland's future. While here the past week he and Mr. McCormick climbed Mount Ashland and almost lived in the parks. They went from here to Grants Pass and visited Josephine County Caves.

Mrs. Charles Schock recently spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bates on the Boulevard. Last Sunday they took Mrs. Schock in the Bates automobile to her home in Montague, where Mr. Schock is in the mercantile business. Mr. Bates found the road from Hornbrook to Ager very good and between Ager and Montague it is splendid—really a fine boulevard. Returning, Mr. and Mrs. Bates drove to Yreka and from there came in to Ashland on the Pacific Highway. From Hawkinsville down the Little Shasta river to the Klamath river the road is good but pretty narrow for several miles.

Sunflowers Flit Through Park

Today is Kansas day, and decked out with immense sunflowers for evidence of their state, former Kansans from all over the valley are making merry in Ashland park. A Kansas program of unusual merit was given this morning at the Chautauqua building and a big Kansas dinner in the park followed.
To remind the editor that the Kansas spirit lives or else to prove that Ashland can grow anything, even Kansas sunflowers, John Dill brought an immense sunflower on a husky five-foot stalk up to the Tidings office this morning, labelled "Kansas greetings to Mr. Bert R. Greer from Mrs. Dill."

Mrs. Margaret brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Winter, who has been visiting her old home here for several weeks, started Saturday on her return to her home in Glendale, Cal. She will stop at Stockton, where Mr. Brown is attending the state Christian Endeavor convention and has just been elected president of the state association, having been installed in the office Sunday night.

Mrs. Dr. Webster of West Phoenix spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. McCracken at Ashland.
Miss Ruth Walter is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Pelton, on the Pelton ranch near Gold Hill.

Thanks.

To the Members of the General and All Sub-Committees of the Springs Dedication Celebration:

As there were an army of workers connected with the Springs Dedication Celebration and as it would be impossible for me to see all personally, I desire to take this means to express to you my appreciation and thanks for the hearty co-operation and support that you have given me to make possible the success that we had in entertaining our visitors.

I have been congratulated many times the last few days for the success of this great undertaking, but I feel that whatever aid I have been to make this affair a success has been in my ability to select you my assistants, who have done your work faithfully, and to you belong the congratulations for this success.

Sincerely yours,
H. O. FROHBACH.

Card of Thanks.

I desire by this means to express to the friends and neighbors the thanks and appreciation of my brother and sister, as well as myself, for the kindness and many favors shown to our father during his recent illness and burial, all of which are warmly appreciated.

NORTH TALENT-PHOENIX ITEMS.

John Cope of the Cope Hardware Company of Phoenix is very ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. A. H. Fisher of Phoenix spent the last of the week at Ashland attending the celebration and Chautauqua.

James Harvey of Myrtle Creek was among an auto party who came to Ashland from Myrtle Creek. Mr. Harvey visited his daughter, Mrs. George McClain, of Phoenix.

Dr. Webster had the misfortune to lose a very valuable cow from alfalfa bloat last Wednesday.

Those from North Talent who attended the celebration and dedication of Lithia Park were Mr. and Mrs. B. N. French and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts and daughter Julia, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry and family, S. S. Stephens and family, F. E. Jacobs and family, M. L. and C. C. Heartley and family, Joshua Patterson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, James McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. William Bruin, Berthold Hearn of Phoenix, the little carrier for the Mail Tribune who was run over by Mrs. Porter's auto ten days ago, is still bedfast and suffering from injuries sustained in the accident.

Ernest Reames and family camped at Lithia Park during the three days' celebration at Ashland. Mr. Reames had two horses in the parade.

Mrs. Laira Reames, Mrs. E. G. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Art Rose, Mrs. Dave Cottrell were among the many who went from Phoenix to Ashland to celebrate.

James McDonald of North Talent has returned from an extended trip into the northern part of Oregon and Washington. James says Talent is good enough for him.

Montague sent a big delegation over to help Ashland celebrate the springs dedication. Among the visitors from that flourishing northern California town during celebration week were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schock Jr., Mrs. Charles Schock Sr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kennedy and little son, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Spilman, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Parshall, Miss Stella Simon, Miss Martha Gisbrecht, Walter Simon, John Cooley and family, Bud Bryant and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donahue, Miles Stuart, Ruth Niles, Alberta Murphy, Elma Eddy, Fred Niles, Ray Smith, Claud Logan and Bob Smith.
