Freeburg Tells Of Auto Trip

W. A. Freeburg, who returned Thursday from an extended auto tour, writes as follows of his experiences:

"A ten weeks' trip in a car, covering 3,000 miles, leaving Ashland on the 13th of May, going over the Green Springs mountain to Klamath Falls to Tule Lake the first day, second day to Eagle Lake, Roads fine. The next day over Hayden Hill that was very steep and rocky going down for two and a half miles. Here I passed an old mine where immense work had been done years ago. Got to Susanville, Cal., at noon, and by making a late drive got to Reno, Nev., having to make a two hour drive without lights, breaking my electric bulbs from a heavy jar that I got that day. Staying at Reno several weeks with my son, then to Carson City to Lake Tahoe and Placerville, to Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose, King City, Paso Robles, where I had to make a very bad detour of five miles owing to new construction. Camped seven miles north of San Luis Obispo. A lonesome place. Several Gypsy wagons with the customary loose horses made camp near. One tough looking duck came over after dark. From his talk I got a bad impression. He said that he was going to have a car, and soon, too. I determined he was not going to get mine. Throwing everything in the car, I here made the first real night drive, down a steep, crooked grade three miles long, and camped in town at 11:30. The roads from here to Santa Barbara were mostly very rough, but very good to Los Angeles, where I stayed ten days, going back over the valley route via Bakersfield, Sacramento, Auburn, Truckee, Reno. After resting five days I took my daughter-in-law and her two children to Lakeview. After spending a week there, went to Bend. From here north to The Dalles wheat and other crops are very fine, but the roads are mostly fierce to the end of the Columbia Highway, which is fifty-eight miles west of The Dalles, but the road and scenery on the constructed highway is simply beyond the power of description. I doubt if there is anything to compare with it in the world. This brings me to Gaston, where my oldest son is in business, thirty-one miles west of Portland. After three days' rest I was on my way homeward bound—Ashland the beautiful—in a little over two days, getting here Thursday, the 27th of July.

"I made this trip alone all but 250 miles, Reno to Lakeview. I never enjoyed anything better. Feeling fine. Cooking my own meals and sleeping on a folding cot, without tent, while on the road. I am very sorry that I failed to place an Ashland banner on my car. This is a thing no one should fail to do. You have no idea how people take notice of them. "Sincerely yours, "W. A. FREEBURG."

Interest on said amounts as follows: Year's tax, 1911; date paid, April 22, 1915; tax receipt, No. 14296; amount, $26.51; rate of interest, 15 per cent. Year's tax, 1914; date paid, April 23, 1915; tax receipt, No. 4379; amount, $21.82; rate of interest, 15 per cent. Year's tax, 1913; date paid, January 24, 1916; tax receipt, No. 735; amount, $28.93; rate of interest, 15 per cent. Year's tax, 1915; date paid, February 28, 1916; tax receipt, No. 276; amount, $14.32; rate of interest, 15 per cent.

The Horse's Point of View in Summer
If a horse could talk he would have many things to say when summer comes. He would tell his driver that he feels the heat on a very warm day quite as much as if he could read a thermometer. He would say: "Give me a little water many times a day, when the heat is intense, but not much at a time if I am warm; if you want me to keep well don't water me too soon after I have eaten."

Medford Plays Crabless Game
The Medford base ball team defeated Grants Pass last Sunday by a 7-6 score in a game which was both interesting and free from crabbing. Medford wen when Siberts banded out a three-bagger with two men on in the seventh inning, and then came in on a sacrifice. A number of Ashland fans went down. Medford fans are trying to charter a special train to carry the rooters to Weed next Sunday, when they meet the team which beat them during the celebration.

He would talk of slippery streets, and the sensations of falling on cruel city cobblestones—the pressure of the load pushing him to the fall, the bruised knees and wrenched joints, and the feel of the driver's lash. He would tell of the luxury of a fly net when at work and of a fly blanket when standing still in fly season, and of the hon to him of screens in the stable to keep out the insects that bite and sting. He would plead for as cool and comfortable a stable as possible in which to rest at night after a day's work under the hot sun. He would suggest that living through a warm night in a narrow stall neither properly cleaned nor bedded is suffering for him and poor economy for the owner. He would say that turning the hose on him is altogether too risky a thing to do unless you are looking for a
