

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Kenneth McWilliams, salesman for the local agency of the Chevrolet car, reports selling cars to George Dodson, H. H. Gearheart and J. H. Fuller.

The gas meters at the auto camp netted $27.50 during the past month, according to the report of the park commission.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith and daughter, Miss Helen, of Grants Pass were visitors in the city Monday.

Mrs. O. P. Johnson and Mrs. M. Fullemeder of Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wade of Indianapolis, Ind.; J. S. Hoagland of Boise, Idaho; Dr. J. S. Wilson and wife of Spokane, Wash., and C. D. Montie and Henry Voldstedt of Albany, Ore., were among the tourist visitors registered at the Hotel Austin Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ashcraft left Tuesday evening for Crater Lake, expecting to be gone three days.

Bob Keller, who is employed in the box factory at Hills, visited over Sunday at his home in Ashland.

Miss Lillian Greer returned Tuesday from Hills, where she has been rusticated on her aunt's ranch.

Chester Haskins and wife of Merrill are visiting at present at the home of Mr. Haskins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haskins, of Garfield street.

Your gowns cut and fit. Room 2, Allen building. Phone 296-Y. It

Miss Nell Peachey and Miss Hazel Wright were taking an outing in the mountains the first of the week.

Miss Elizabeth Shroyer, who resides in the vicinity of Alida street, was enjoying a visit from one of her daughters from the east last week.

Ed Wolters and wife, with Mr. Wolters' parents from Medford, expect to start to Crater Lake soon by auto, and will spend several days sight-seeing, camping and fishing before they return.

After using Shoo Fly, animals gain flesh and milk. For sale by Emil Fell. 21-tf

Mrs. O. L. Young has returned to her home again on Granite street after undergoing an operation at one of the local hospitals.

Ladies, don't forget the food sale in the Swedenburg building all day Saturday. It

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Freeman of Portland were tourists who registered at the Austin Wednesday.

Reports from Medford state that the Bartlett pear price ranges between $1.65 and $1.75 per box.

Junior high school rooms are being fitted up in the West school, including domestic science and sewing rooms. This year the change from the old system to the Junior high school system will be made and the Junior high schoolers will go to the West school.

A number of Ashlanders attended the meeting of the Talent Farmers' Club held Tuesday evening at the Talent Methodist church. J. H. Fuller of this city is president of the organization, Rural credits were discussed. Refreshments were served.

Charley Logan of Yreka is visiting his mother and transacting business in the city.

Among recent realty transfers is one from E. D. Briggs of this city, administrator of the estate of W. F. Lambertson, deceased, land in Ashland to the Carson-Fowler Lumber Company, for the consideration of $1,350.

Camping suits for men at $2.50 and $4.25 in khaki and whipcord. Mitchell & Whittle. It

Mrs. Pat Meego was brought up from Medford Sunday and will be operated upon at a local hospital as soon as her condition will allow.

Guy Harper and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Moran and Curly Wilson came up from Jacksonville and enjoyed a swim Sunday evening. Mr. Moran is the bookkeeper for the Rogue River Canal Company.

Deputy Sheriff Curly Wilson was up from Jacksonville Monday attending to official matters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barrett of Hugo are spending a month visiting in the city.

Fruit-picking season is at hand, with a scarcity of fruit pickers available.

Jack Dent took care of the local Wells-Fargo express office during the absence of Dan Applegate. Mr. Dent returned to Medford Tuesday.

M. J. Houseman returned the first of the week from Roseburg, where he has been attending to business affairs.

Summer hats less than cost at Mrs. Simons' millinery parlors. 19-3t

Judge and Mrs. F. M. Calkins spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day in this city.

August Schuerman, who is now proprietor of a flour and feed store at Gold Hill, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family here.

You can always find the right thing for men to wear at an exclusive men's store. That's why they go to Mitchell & Whittle's. It

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Blake leave this week for a three weeks' automobile tour of northern Oregon, which will include visits with relatives and friends at Corvallis, Albany and Portland.

Mrs. Kate King of Merced, Cal., renewed the acquaintance here of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller last Saturday, while on her return home from a visit to her son in Portland.

W. T. Veghte returned the first of the week from California, where he spent the winter.

C. H. Veghte left the last of the week for Eugene and other Willamette valley points, where he will attend to business matters.

David Ivy, a blacksmith formerly employed in the S. P. shops here, is back from Eugene, where he has been for some time past.

'Faultless' pajamas at $1.25 and $1.50 in neat stripes, also plain colors. Mitchell & Whittle. It

Miss Ada Iverson came up last Saturday to spend a few days with her friends, Leda and Opal Harvey.

Through Welborn Beeson the Tidings learns that Victor Bursell of Talent reports a crop of barley near Central Point which threshed 1,850 bushels from 15 acres. Last year the ground was in corn and hogs were turned in to eat the fodder. The previous year the land was in alfalfa. Mr. Bursell and his brother-in-law, Benson, of Central Point, are college farmers who do their farming in a scientific manner, using brains as well as brawn, and they make it pay.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaumlöfel, who have been visiting here, leave tomorrow for Newport for a brief stay.

Harry Sayles returned this morning from Portland and Salem, where he has been visiting since the militia encampment at Fort Stevens came to a close.

Ladies' don't forget the food sale in the Swedenburg building all day Saturday. It

Mrs. Benton Eowers and son Raymond have gone to Vancouver and Seattle, where they will visit during the month of August.

Mrs. R. P. Neil and sister, Miss Anna Hargrove, left this week for a lengthy trip through the east, during which they will visit relatives at various points. Their journey will carry them as far east as New York.

Light flannel trousers are the thing for now. Get them at Orres' Tailor Shop.

Lee Caldwell, one of the Pendleton buckaroo bunch, has just returned from Canada, where he won additional honors in roundup events by annexing the bucking contest at the Moose Jaw Stampede.

L. S. Brown of the Ashland Trading Company is again in Canadian territory on a trip to British Columbia regarding an important business proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Richards and their niece, Miss Hayes, returned to Albany on Saturday, after a month's stay in Ashland.

A Salem firm manufacturing loganberry juice had a full-page advertisement in the Saturday Evening Post this week. Loganberries were once one of the biggest berry crops of the Ashland district, but that being before the day of loganberry juice and its exploitation, and no other reliable market being open, most of the growers uprooted the plants.

Mrs. Wendell Phillips and two children of Lewiston, Idaho, are visiting at the B. M. Shoudy home.

Miss Voda Brower returned home Saturday from Chico, Cal., where she attended the summer school at the California normal.

J. L. Calvert and wife of Grants Pass were recent visitors at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. George N. Anderson.

If you want a fine blue serge suit, order it this month at Orres' Tailor Shop. Serges will be higher this fall. You can get a big discount this month.

E. W. Hoag, who lives near the west end of Ashland street, reports seeing two deer out in his orchard the other morning. The sight of deer around town is becoming so common as to cause little comment.

Harrison Allen, a prominent attorney of Portland, is in Ashland for a few days. He is accompanied by his wife. They registered Wednesday at the Hotel Austin.

Dr. Lance Briscoe was up from Talent Wednesday, having one of the local surgeons perform a minor operation upon one of his eyes, which had become infected.

Many campers are putting up their tents for the month in Chautauqua Park, and give evidence of the attraction which a well-built tent city would be. Among the latest arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Terrell and son Irving of Medford and Mrs. H. H. Stapleton of Roseburg.

Mrs. Sarah Updegraff, who recently gave up the management of the Hotel Ashland restaurant, will go to the coast for a rest. Mr. Staples has placed a force of employees in charge of the restaurant and will continue dining room service.

Do Your Own Dry Cleaning by using a Gasoline Soap called PUTMAN'S Dry Cleaner See our window

Poleys Drug Store Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

J. H. Hoxie and family report a most enjoyable time on their trip to Crescent City, from which they have just returned.

John E. Enders returned home Tuesday from a visit at Klamath Falls, which included a trip to Crater Lake.

Henry Switzer and wife have moved from Klamath Falls to Ashland. Mr. Switzer is a Southern Pacific conductor and recently was transferred from the branch to the main line.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster left Sunday on a two weeks' vacation trip, going first to Roseburg, then to the coast and motor to Crescent City before returning.

W. J. Fulgham of Visalia, Cal., and George Watt of Klamath Falls are in the valley this week on a cattle-buying expedition. Their wives are staying in Ashland.

C. F. Bates and wife have joined the Beebe-Kinney-Langhorne camp near Siskiyou.

Cottrell "Cott" Avent and wife arrived recently from Mississippi and are visiting Mrs. Avent's folks, the Kincaids, on Neil creek.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hodgson left Tuesday for Roseburg, where they will spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Langhorne left Sunday evening for Portland. Mr. Langhorne made a host of friends here, as did also his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Barrett of Rupert, Idaho, have taken a tent in Chautauqua Park for the month of August.

G. C. McAllister, wife and son left the last of the week on a month's auto camping trip to Twin Falls and Spokane. They will combine business with pleasure on the trip, Mr. McAllister having business affairs in Idaho and Washington.

F. W. Carpenter and son Guy, from Skagit county, Washington, are here for a stay of indefinite length after a trip all up and down the coast looking for a climate which would aid in the recuperation of Mr. Carpenter's health.

In one day last week there were parties registered at the auto camp from the four corners of the domain of Uncle Sam—the Philippine Islands, Florida, Boston, Mass., and Alaska.

Mrs. F. E. Van Winkle and family of Portland are staying at the auto camp for a few days, their auto undergoing repairs. The car broke down at Talent and Dr. Lance Briscoe kind-heartedly towed them into Ashland.

IN THE COUNTRY GOD MADE AND MAN FORGOT. CHETCO COVE CARNIVAL, SEPTEMBER 2, 3, 4. BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON. 21-tf

Mrs. C. E. Davis, who recently disposed of the Columbia Hotel, which she has so successfully conducted for

Introducing for the first time to Ashland women the famous

Bridal Line

Muslins, Cambrics, Nainsooks,

Long Cloths, Sheets, Cases,

Sheetings, Tubings, and

Tissue Nainsooks

Comes to us through one of the best houses in the country, and brings a branded line which this house features. You may always expect the highest quality to be maintained.

This Line Will Be Found Only at This Store

Table listing various fabric items and prices, including 36-in. Bridal Muslin, 36-in. Bridal Long Cloth, 36-in. Bridal Nainsook, etc.

We will be pleased to have you compare these with the best Sheetings and Muslins you have been buying. And remember, you can get this Bridal line only at the past year, left with her son Blair Wednesday for Klamath Falls, where they will visit for a few days before going to Boise to visit a son. Mrs. S. H. Wilson assumed charge of the hotel Tuesday.

Alvin Wheeler, Ashland high school and O. A. C. graduate, will teach agriculture and manual training at the Wapato, Wash., high school during the coming term. Mr. Wheeler and wife are down from Corvallis for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wheeler, and will visit Crater Lake before returning north.

Cliff Payne makes center tables. Mrs. Bella DeLeon and daughter, Miss Etta, of San Francisco, who spent a month as the guests of Mrs. C. E. Davis at the Columbia, left Tuesday for Ney Springs, Siskiyou county, where they will stay for a week before returning to their city home. While in Ashland they became greatly attached to the place and will return next summer.

Abe Bowman and wife of Reece, Kan., have rented the Lane residence on Laurel street and will remain in Ashland a month or more. They are on a leisurely tour of the coast and just came from a several weeks' stay at Long Beach. Ashland is much to the liking of the Bowmans.

Max GeBauer, prosperous merchant of Waltherville, Lane county, is here with his wife and children for a two months' stay. They have taken a house on Granite street above Lithia Park.

Orres cleans clothes. Phone 64.

Contract has been let for an $11,297 school building at Dufur, Ore.

The railroad from Roseburg to Coos Bay has been revived by W. J. Wilsey with English capital.

The stevedore and longshoremen strike is closing sawmills and shingle mills along the coast.

The Portland Rose Show may develop the industry of making attar of roses.

Astoria has ordered improvement of Commercial street, with an overhead viaduct crossing.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND. The Most Important thing for a young man, if he wishes to win financial success, is to make regular deposits to his credit in the bank. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Great 10 Day Clean up at Vaupel's. To buy goods at ROCK BOTTOM with the wearing qualities is your first duty to yourself. These prices quoted for ten days assure you rock bottom prices on bright new merchandise, of best quality. This is our final clean up for this season. List of items and prices including 18c and 20c Dimities, Children's two-piece Wash Suits, Blue Chambray Sport Shirts, etc.