In the Social Realm

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
The W. C. T. U. will hold its annual election of officers at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. All members are requested to attend.

Cowboy Evangelist.
Rev. Better, cowboy evangelist, will preach at the Christian church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Rev. Better has "something different" in the way of a message, worth hearing.

Social Service League.
The regular meeting of the Men's Social Service League will be held Tuesday evening, August 22, at 8 o'clock at the Congregational church. An interesting and instructive program has been provided, and all men of all the churches, as well as all other men of the city, are especially invited to be present and take hold of the work of this league.

Free Methodist Campmeeting.
The people of the Free Methodist church from Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland and the surrounding communities are to join in a campmeeting in the grove at Phoenix August 24 to September 3. The camp ground is on the Pacific Highway and is a good place for an outing. Rev. D. D. Dodge, district elder, is to have charge of these services. He will also be assisted by the several ministers of the district. A cordial invitation is extended to all to bring their tents and enjoy the meeting.

Slumber Party.
Taking advantage of the absence of Pastor Carnahan of the Presbyterian church from his home, and inveigling Mrs. Carnahan into "going visiting," a party of young ladies held a social gathering which was professedly a "slumber party" last Tuesday evening at the Carnahan home. A watermelon feast started off the evening of joy, unalloyed by the presence of any of the sterner sex. Some of those present have been heard to proclaim the "slumber" part of the title a misnomer, but it surely must have been a "party." Those present were Misses Olive Thorne, Lucile Barber, Vivian Greer, Gladys Carnahan, Priscilla Carnahan, Ruth Turner, Hortense Winter, Allie Shinn, Josephine Saunders, Margaret Hodgson and Helen MacDonald of Corvallis.

Dance Wednesday
There is to be a dance Wednesday evening of this week at the Bungalow which will no doubt attract one of the jolliest crowds of the season. The music will be of the most peppy variety—a three-piece orchestra. Waits and two-steps will be plentifully interspersed along with the fox trots and one steps which the young folks demand, and everyone will be pleased with the evening.

Jack True Says
Road Open to Autos

Jack True, roadmaster in charge, of the opening up of the road to Lake of the Woods, was in the city last week and reports fine progress. Cars can now easily get to Lake of the Woods, and by the end of this week the road will be in still better shape, as he expects to go back over it making a few changes on the return.

He states that he has money enough left to complete the road to the other end of the lake and that possibly arrangements may be made to push the work on through to Pelican bay. A car came through from Pelican bay last week, thus proving that the road is not impassible. High centers is the worst feature and can be easily overcome.

Ashland has now a road to Lake of the Woods which anyone need not be afraid to attempt in their car. Owing to the cool season there are not as many campers going out as usual but a few warm days will cause a general exodus and Lake of the Woods should become the mecca of the majority.

Lithia Park Will Be Busy Place

Beginning with the 24th of August and until the 15th of September, Lithia park will be the busiest place in the history of the park and not alone will a good many of the people of Ashland be there, but the valley folks also for that matter. Invitations have been extended to Roseburg and Klamath Falls in many instances.

The following outings, in the form of basket picnics, are to be held. Each have sent invitations either direct to the various lodges or individuals in the neighboring cities, or invitations have been extended through the press.

- Thursday, August 24th—Iowa day.
- Saturday, August 26th.—Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft.
- Monday, August 28th—Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan day.
- Tuesday, August 29th.—Rebecca's.
- Wednesday, August 30th.—Order of the Eastern Star and Masonic day.
- Friday, September 1st.—Elk's day.
- Monday, September 4th.—Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors.
- Tuesday, September 5th.—Odd Fellow's day.
- September 11th to 14th inclusive.—Veterans Reunion.

The Illinois-Indiana association, Maccabees and the Eastern States' association have not as yet selected a day for their outing, but will be announced later.

In the State day outings all former residents of these states are respectfully invited to attend. At all the outings the participants are expected to provide their own lunch and cups and spoons. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished by the associations or lodges giving the outing.

With Oregon Lumber Co.'s mill at Dee, plant of Stanley-Smith Lumber Co., at Great Point, and a half dozen smaller mills operating in full blast, the daily average of lumber shipments from Hood River is greater than in any former season.

Ore mill at Conner creek, near Baker, will start operations, employing from 40 to 50 men.

Contract has been let for a concrete stockyards building at Portland.

Camped in Barnyard
Finding Camp Full

W. H. Banes and B. J. Howland and their families of Portland, recently made the trip from that city to Southern Oregon through Central Oregon and back by the Pacific highway. They write entertainingly of the trip for the Sunday Oregonian. A lesson which Ashland should take to heart is contained in the few words devoted to Ashland. They follow:

"We had intended camping Monday night at Ashland, but upon arrival found the free auto camp filled to overflowing, so we went back on the road toward Medford and camped at "Animal Fair camp." This was in the yard of a very kind and considerate rancher and we had plenty of company that night."

This party then were unable to find room to camp at the Ashland auto camp and instead camped in the barnyard at the Arnold place at the foot of the Billings hill.

Accommodations for twice as many cars at the auto camp is an imperative necessity. The camp has been crowded, with as high as 40 cars there, many times this season. People don't like to be jammed up close together when they are camping.

Land on up the creek must be utilized for increasing the camping space before next year. The fame of the Ashland camp is spreading so that this year's total of visitors to the Lithia park auto camp will not be a starter for the throngs which will come next year.

Grant Fee, of San Francisco, low bidder on the Portland post office, his bid being $762,300.

Swift Packing Co., in North Portland, will erect a new $150,000 building.

Miss Catlin's private school at Westover, Oregon, is to have a $16,000 addition.
