

EXTRA

Here's Real News
Scarcity of All-Wool Fabrics

EXTRA

Fine Grade Pure Woolens Hard to Get

But despite this the most complete assortment of all wool fabrics in the season's most attractive patterns for men's stylish clothes are on display at our store. This is an event you can't afford to overlook.

Come in and look 'em over, and you'll agree with us that it is truly SOMETHING EXTRA.

Orres Tailor Shop

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

COMING PICNICS

- Elks' day. . . . . Date not set
Eastern states. . . . . Date not set
Veterans Reunion. . . . . Sept. 11-14
Illinois-Indiana. . . . . Date not set

Blaine Klum, the popular advertising man, was up from Medford Thursday on business.

For sale, Alberta peaches for preserving and canning. See G. S. Butler or phone 265-J.

E. E. Phipps and C. L. McKimney left last week for a hunt of several days at White Point.

J. S. McMurray, at the advice of his physician, is going to take a three months' layoff from his work.

For sale, Alberta peaches for preserving and canning. See G. S. Butler or phone 265-J.

E. J. Steele and a friend left Friday morning for a ten days' hunting trip in the Aspen lake region.

Central Point Herald: D. M. Lowe of Ashland was working this vicinity in the interests of the county fair last Monday.

The regular meeting of the Sunshine Society at the Temple of Truth will be held Thursday, September 14, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gorham left Thursday morning for Lake of the Woods to spend a week.

Miss Frances McWilliams expects to leave tomorrow for Calexico, Cal., on the Mexican border, where she will resume her work of teaching in the public schools.

Clarence Lane and wife and Miss Danford left early last week for Klamath Falls by automobile. Miss Danford will stop there, but the Lanes will continue their trip as far as Bend.

H. Shoemaker of the Victor Talking Machine Company is visiting Rose Brothers, local dealers for the company. He is very much impressed with Ashland, her beautiful location and surroundings.

Mrs. Lundy, Nu-Bone corsets, 730 West Eleventh street, Medford. Mall card for call, or will call upon request.

Orville Glick and Eben Martz with their wives took a trip by team last week to Watkins, near the headwaters of Big Applegate creek. They were gone about four days and returned Friday noon.

Mrs. J. J. Murphy and Mrs. Murray Murphy with her little daughter, Mary Louise, went to Lester, Iowa, last Thursday to visit with the parents of Mrs. Murray Murphy. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

Clifford E. Dana has begun his fall term in piano and voice and new classes in beginning and advanced harmony are being organized.

Southern Pacific Division Engineer C. A. Wester and his assistant, J. W. Harshaw, reached Ashland Thursday night and left Friday about noon on the first section of No. 13. No information was given out as to their mission in Ashland.

A. C. Dixon and son Richard of Eugene arrived in Ashland Saturday morning to attend the funeral of John S. Herrin on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Herrin is the father of Mrs. Dixon, who remained home on account of illness.

Tradition describes Mary Chilton as being the first person stepping ashore when the colonists landed at Plymouth. The name has been adopted for a simple pattern of silverware in which the perfection of modern processes is combined with the classic grace of the early colonial patterns. A display in our window.

Charles J. Ferguson and wife left Ashland Friday morning for their home in Klamath Falls after an over-night visit with Mr. Ferguson's brother, L. F. Ferguson of Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are just completing a 55-day trip through Oregon, Washington and the Yellowstone park. He is a prominent attorney of Klamath Falls.

A. C. Dixon, manager of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company in Eugene, while in Ashland Saturday stated that his company had been promised cars by the railroad company, so that they hoped it would not be necessary to close down their mills on account of shortage of cars.

John B. Griffin with his son-in-law, Mr. Bailey, and Mr. Bailey's wife and two children are camped in the park on their return from Klamath county. Mr. Griffin lives in the vicinity of Waldo and is the man who wrote a mighty good hunting story which is printed in the Tidings for last Thursday and today under the heading, "Early Hunting on Mt. Pitt."

Rev. Hicks, formerly of Ashland, is visiting here.

L. A. Nell and family motored to Lake of the Woods Sunday.

Dr. J. S. Herndon, who formerly lived in Ashland, is in town.

Dan Conner returned from a short hunting trip to Dead Indian with two fine bucks.

Ed Spencer is up from Modesto, Cal., for a stay of two weeks or so in Ashland.

Carol Woods has returned to Medford after spending the week-end with Mrs. C. P. Christensen.

Bob Sherwood left this morning for Portland, where he will look after business interests. His future plans are indefinite.

Ed Gowland and family arrived home Saturday evening from a ten days' trip to the Chetco Cove Carnivals of the Klamath County pleasant trip.

Harry Fuller and Mr. Wiggin motored up from Sebastopol, Cal., going on north to Roseburg and will return by way of Crater Lake and Klamath Falls.

W. H. Hodgkinson of Grants Pass has opened a jewelry store in the Elks building on Main street in the room formerly occupied by Smith's jewelry store.

Jean Hastings left this morning for northern Oregon for a vacation outing. He will spend the early part of his vacation among the cows and chickens on a ranch near Independence, later visiting other portions of the state.

Will Denney, an old-time railroad man and former resident of Ashland, was in town Saturday. He says that his brother Fred is in railroad work running out of Roseville Junction, Cal., and that his brother Walter is living at Johnson, Tenn.

Harry Halfhill, son of J. P. Halfhill of Ashland, reached Ashland Thursday from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada. He is here on a leave of absence from the army to visit his parents.

Dr. William R. Bagley writes from Duluth, Minn., where he is now located, saying that he and his family often long for some of the Rogue river products which they learned to love so well when on their ranch in this vicinity.

While spending her vacation in Klamath Falls during part of July and August Miss Blanche Hicks of the Ashland city library catalogued the books of the Kuamath County public library. There were 2,400 volumes. Miss Hicks stayed with Mrs. J. K. Kimball while in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. R. P. Neil and Miss Anna Hargrove returned Thursday evening from a trip of several weeks to eastern and southern points. They went by way of the Canadian Pacific, stopping at Chicago, Indianapolis, New Orleans, Los Angeles and other places. They enjoyed New Orleans particularly as it is different in many ways from the other cities visited. Mrs. Dougherty accompanied them as far as Chicago but remained in the east and will visit in Missouri before returning home.

Bellevue Notes

(By the Language Classes of Bellevue School.)

Mr. Phelps is recovering from the result of having the side of his face lacerated and his ear split by a chip of steel from a splitting wedge.

Our teacher, Mr. Buchanan, is the proud possessor of a nice baby girl born August 29. She is not enrolled in school yet.

Mrs. Kelts, Grace and Marcus were shopping in Ashland Saturday afternoon.

Harry Moore made a trip to Montague last Thursday and was accompanied home by his father, W. L. Moore, Sunday. Mr. Moore has been assisting in harvesting in that locality.

Mr. Grimbsley is digging a well on his place.

Our school opened Monday, the 4th. Mr. Buchanan and Miss Sweet are the teachers. There are not so many pupils as were here at the beginning of the term last year, but more will be in attendance later as we know of several being out helping with the fruit, and some few are away on outing trips. We are planning a big year's work. There are several faces missing that are to the town schools, also quite a number of new ones.

Various hunters returning from the wilds report deer not over-plentiful near here, yet several have been brought in.

Wilbur Beagle, a member of the '16 class of Bellevue, visited school Thursday.

Mr. Miller is hauling wood from out of the hills two miles east of Bellevue to the West Side school in town.

Mrs. A. D. Moore's sister, Mrs. George Graham, of Dunsmuir, is visiting at the Moore home.

W. L. Moore is picking peaches in the Joy orchard.

Mrs. Bert Davis is helping with the peach crop at Mr. Joy's. They report a light yield this year.

Dean Scott and Paul Kerrs are cutting wood for Mr. York.

O. S. Brooks and wife of Hastings, Neb., are here for the benefit of Mrs. Brooks' health.

Lloyd Phelps had the misfortune to sprain an arm a few days ago while working in a mine.

Mr. Hawley's son, a Christian minister, who lives in California, is here with his wife and child on a visit with home folks.

Mrs. S. L. Allen reports the sale of the G. R. Slingerland property on High street to S. McGilvery of Condon, Ore., who has sold his wheat ranch in that section. Mrs. Allen also reports the sale of two lots on B street, between Fourth and Fifth, to Mrs. Clara Delsman, who will build a modern bungalow on them. Both these properties, as well as the Dodge property Mrs. Allen sold a week ago, were sold for all cash.

The Oregon Gas and Electric Company has just completed the installation of twenty-one gas plates in the West school building for the use of the domestic science department.

Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club will hold their first meeting of the season next Wednesday, September 13, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Bagley, 178 Skidmore street. Mrs. H. G. Gilmore and Mrs. F. F. Whittle will assist in entertaining. Matters of importance are to come up and a full attendance is desired.

Auxiliary Club

The Auxiliary Club will meet this evening at the usual hour at Auxiliary hall. A full attendance is especially desired in view of the fact that plans will be laid for the Auxiliary Club picnic which is to be held Wednesday and arrangements made for the winter classes which are to commence in the near future.

Mrs. H. L. Whited entertained at dinner Thursday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rose, who have been visiting here and who leave this week for Riverside, Cal., where Mr. Rose will have charge of the commercial department of the Riverside high school. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Whited's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rose, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Eubanks and Archie Eubanks.

Ashland's Parks

Well Described

(Continue from Page One)

principal business section, and one-half block from the city building enters the City park. This is two acres in extent, is a matter of beautiful lawn, perfectly kept flower beds and walks, and a two-lot lake filled with pond lilies. This is a park Ashland has enjoyed several years. Immediately adjoining, the walks being continuous, is Chautauqua park of ten acres. This is beautifully wooded, cleared for tents and campers, and contains the conveniences that have made it a pleasure for hundreds to camp there during Ashland's yearly Chautauqua. Continuing through this along Ashland creek one comes to Lithia park of 80 acres, and from the Chautauqua park line to the upper end of Lithia park it is a trip along a wonderfully beautiful mountain stream, frequently crossed by rustic bridges, past dams and pools, high waterfalls, lighted at night by giant scintillators, the Devil's grotto in the granite cliff, on past fresh water springs, open air auditorium, picnicking grounds with tables, gas stoves, cobblestone receptacles for burning trash, on past steep hillsides covered with vines and ferns, over well-made paths through the woodlands that skirt the stream, the banks of which are covered with masses of flowers, and ever to the right, in the open—from which no less than thirty houses were moved to secure the space—there is in view artistically arranged beds of flowers or the great classic "Fountain of Youth," the marble figure and bowl of which came from the recent exposition, or the glass-enclosed lithia springs, or the majestic poplar tree that at night is a myriad of electric lights, or the great rustic bandstand, the lawn-covered incline forming a natural amphitheatre, the children's playgrounds with every modern equipment, asphalt tennis courts, the newly set grove, rose gardens, drives—but what's the use, I'm out of breath.

"The auto camp grounds is at the upper end of Lithia park. Here, in the heart of a grove, is a camp for twelve or fourteen camping parties, and every provision for their convenience and comfort is provided. On either side of a pathway are numbered posts, these being set far enough apart to provide for tent room. Very near is a camp house always open, this containing just as many lockers as there are posts, and also having corresponding numbers, the lockers built on the air-draft plan and intended for the storage of food, utensils, etc., during the stay. The crowning feature of this building, however, is the cooking equipment—just as many gas stoves as there are lockers, and these numbered likewise. No one has to ask questions or get directions—everything is fool proof, and once on the auto camp grounds all one has to do is to eat, drink and be merry. And he can drink the nectar that Jupiter sips without having to trot more than ten steps to as fine fresh water as ever flowed from a granite mountain. If he has not the provisions he desires he can step into a telephone booth (of which there are three in the park), call for any business house he desires and have the goods delivered at his post. At night his front yard and the entire park are electric lighted, and if he is there on either Wednesday or Saturday night the family and sit near the front door and enjoy the sweet cadences floating from the big bandstand, where either the Ashland or Medford band plays on these nights, frequently offering special features in the way of local or visiting artists. In the camp is a register, and since June an average of eight camping parties a day have registered there, the list showing groups from practically every state in the union.

"Ashland also spent $1,100 in making a two-mile high drive on the mountain above the city, this furnishing a view that is not surpassed by many anywhere on the globe.

"Ashland certainly has done splendid things for the touring autoists, but in doing this has she not done more for herself?"

It Is Important

The seed you plant are selected with great care.

The bank is a necessary factor in your success and it is important that you use great care in selecting your bank.

This bank will bear your closest investigation and invites your business.

First National Bank

ASHLAND, OREGON. Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND
You Have the Key to prosperity if you have acquired the saving habit—a habit which will give you confidence in opening the door to success.
Begin now by starting an account with us.
4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Wool Blankets
Here indeed you will buy a better Wool Blanket, a larger Wool Blanket than elsewhere. We want you to see our big line of Blankets in wool at, pair 4.50
At $5.00 we show you Blankets easily worth $6.00. At $5.50 the quality and patterns cannot be equaled. At $6.00, $6.50, $7.00 and up to $10.00 no city could or can show you any better for the money.
See Us Sure!
A big, elegant Wool Batt of large size and full two pounds in weight, fluffy and white, 1.85
At this popular price we carry the greatest selection of Plaids $1.00 Yd and novelty dress goods and serges of fast color in Southern Oregon
42 to 48 inches
54-inch all wool Checks and Stripes, yard 2.00
The best Man's Union Suit value here for 1.00
Georgette Crepe in all the leading wanted shades, yard 1.75
More than 50 patterns in 36-inch Silko-lines, yard 12 1/2 c
Cotton Blankets
A 50x72 Cotton Blanket . . . . . 90c
A 54x72 Cotton Blanket . . . . . $1.00
A 62x76 Splendid Cotton Blanket . . . . . $1.25
A 64x80 Heavy Cotton Blanket . . . . . $1.50
A 66x80 Heavy Cotton Blanket . . . . . $1.75
A 68x80 Beautiful Cotton Blanket . . . . . $2.00
No shoddy in any of the above.
A 60-76 Wool Finish Blanket . . . . . $2.00
A 64x76 Wool Finish Cotton Blanket in plaid or plain . . . . . $2.75
A 66x80 Wool Finish Cotton Blanket in plaid or plain . . . . . $3.00
A 72x80 Wool Finish Cotton Blanket, plain colors . . . . . $3.25
A handsome big check Cotton Blanket, wool finish, looks like all wool, pair . . . . . $4.00
The cleanest Cotton Batting ever shown, priced from, a batt. . . . . 12 1/2 c to $1.25
VAUPEL'S 60C Yd 40-in. Fast Color Fall Plaids, in Many Shades and Styles 60C Yd VAUPEL'S