LOCAL AND PERSONAL

P. Provost went to the state fair at Salem Monday.

Take your lunch at the Lithia. 36-2t

Mrs. W. H. Paul left Sunday evening for Lewiston, Idaho, to visit at her old home.

If you haven't been there you have missed a good meal. The Lithia Bakery and Restaurant. 36-2t

Rev. W. F. Gloeckner of Grants Pass came up Wednesday to spend a few days in Ashland.

Galvanized pipe, 1 inch, 1½ inch and 2 inch, for sale at cost by Peil. 27-tf

Elmer Patrick is up from Newport for a few days' visit with friends and relatives in the city.

Don't miss seeing The Bugle Call at Vining Theatre tonight. Special music by orchestra. Big show. 1t

Perfectly good, stylishly made, three-piece blue serge suits for $15 each at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

R. M. Conley has rented the Kirschbaum property on Iowa street. He is a recent newcomer to the city.

No trouble to find the correct shape and style hats you may want at our store for $3 each. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Engineer W. N. Ellis, who has been running on the Hornbrook helper, is home on a few days' layoff.

H. L. Arant and family, who have lived in this city for a year, returned to their ranch home at Dairy, Ore., last week, going by auto.

The Lithia is the place to eat. 36-2t

Mrs. Ella Mills is enjoying a trip through the Willamette valley and will visit friends at Roseburg, Cottage Grove and Portland.

All persons having garden hose purchased of us this season, that has proven defective, please report to us right away, that we may replace it.—Warner Mercantile Company. 1t

D. D. Norris is moving his family and belongings from Church street to a residence on Beach street formerly occupied by H. L. Arant.

Fred Herrin left Tuesday for Salem, where he will attend the state fair and incidentally purchase some thoroughbred bucks for his herds.

Frank Jordan left Monday evening for Yreka, where he will commence work upon the construction of a public building, the contract for which he was recently awarded.

Z. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, George Eifers, R. E. Robison, F. E. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hartley of the Talent-Phoenix district were visitors in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. P. B. Rackliff of Sacramento is visiting at the J. R. Casey home in Ashland. Mrs. Rackliff resided in Ashland about ten years ago. Her husband is now a prosperous grocer of Sacremento.

Ready-to-wear men's suits and overcoats for this fall and winter are now subject to your inspection. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

J. Arant has moved to the residence on the Waite tract across Bear creek from the city, which is known as the Bungaolw. He has rented several hundred acres of ground and will raise sheep.

Hodgson & Reed have for quick sale a matched team of iron-gray horses, weight 1,300 pounds, eight and nine years old, with good Studebaker wagon and harness, for $325. Phone 31 Ashland or see us at Hotel Austin building. 37-2t

Sylvan Provost has gone to Yreka, taking along three plumbers. He will superintend the installation of the plumbing system in a building which is being constructed by Frank Jordan in that city.

Frank Swingle and Mrs. Holly Swingle arrived last week from Klamath county, driving over in an antomobile. Mr. Swingle recently suffered a dislocated hip and Mrs. Swingle drove the car over.

Charles Gard of Seattle has been a recent visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Gard, in this city. From Ashland he went east to Michigan, where he will visit before returning to the Washington city.

$3.75 will buy one pair of real good, heavy work shoes in dark tan colors, all sizes, at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

A. E. McFarland is now employed at the Ashland mine in carpenter work. The erection of the new mill is to be rushed. The sawmill is now about ready for operation and will be used in getting out timber for the new mill.

Mrs. Mary Dunn and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, will leave this week for an indefinite stay in Portland. Mrs. Eugenia Atkinson will accompany them for a visit of several weeks with friends in the Rose City.

Ira Pittman, a 16-year-old son of an Ashland family, ran away last week and was located at San Francisco, where he was attempting to inveigle the naval officials into allowing him to enter the service of Uncle Sam.

The turn toward fall weather last Monday and rain in the high mountains and over in California Sunday night, cleared up the atmosphere of the smoke and haze and Tuesday was an ideal Indian summer day, the timber on the mountains standing out in clean-cut greenness.

T. M. Lynch and family have broken camp in Chautauqua park and returned to their home on Liberty street.

Judge J. F. Lodge and wife of Yreka came over Saturday to spend a brief vacation in Ashland. They stopped at Hotel Austin and returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Don Whitney and baby daughter have moved over from Hornbrook and will spend the winter in Ashland, residing with Mrs. Whitney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford.

George T. Hegler and wife, who spent a couple of months in Ashland, left Monday for their home near Waldo, Josephine county. Mr. Hegler was much improved in health by his stay here.

Mrs. C. Price, a New York lady who has spent a good portion of the summer camping in Chautauqua park, left Saturday for Talent, where she will visit a sister before leaving for Southern California, where she will spend the winter.

Grants Pass Courier: R. K. Beattie, left this morning for Ashland. Mr. Beattie is connected with the Department of Agriculture and has spent several days at the caves camp gathering certain specimens of gooseberry and currant.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Helmuth and two children of Kokomo, Ind., arrived on Tuesday for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Brower. Mrs. Helmuth is a sister of Mrs. Brower and visited Ashland previously about twenty years ago.

The Lithia is the place to eat. 36-2t

The nominations of L. M. Boucher of Applegate and F. E. W. Smith of Talent as candidates on the socialist ticket for Jackson county representatives in the legislature have been rejected by Secretary of State Olcott, owing to dilatoriness in forwarding papers, they having been filed after September 12.

The following party of Medford people motored through here Sunday and spent the day at Lake of the Woods: Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison, Miss Fern Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mrs. Charles English, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rothermol, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Newman and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Lumsden, Trieve Lumsden, Mrs. W. I. Vawter and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vawter.

Sells-Floto circus is exhibiting in Medford today and this evening and a big crowd from here is in attendance. The jitney lines are all running special trips and the highway is lively with private cars carrying circus-bound Ashlanders. Attendance at the schools took a decided falling off as well.

Hodgson & Reed have for quick sale a matched team of iron-gray horses, weight 1,300 pounds, eight and nine years old, with good Studebaker wagon and harness, for $325. Phone 31 Ashland or see us at Hotel Austin building. 37-2t

Francis Donahoe and wife are at the Hotel Austin for an indefinite stay in the hope of relieving Mrs. Donahoe's asthma. They came Saturday, accompanied by a daughter, who has since gone to Roseburg for a visit. Mr. Donahoe is a retired rancher of Chehalis, Washington, vice-president of the Dobson-Kauffman bank there.

Regardless of the high prices that prevail in the wool markets, we are still able to sell ALL WOOL suits of clothes at $15. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Medford Sun: The Medford high school athletic circles will be without the services of one of its best athletes this year, owing to parental objections. "Mutt" Williamson is absent from the foot ball squad, and will not answer the basket ball call. Williamson played center on both teams, and is one of the cleverest basket ball players ever produced in Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Newland's Montessorri school will be conducted in the afternoon instead of forenoon, hereafter. Hours 1:30 to 4 p. m. 1t

Two big real estate deals were reported this week at the county seat, one being the sale of land in township 38-1 W, from Thresa Critzer to G. Kulzer, the consideration given out being $40,000. The other was a $29,297 sale of land in Shasta and Siskiyou counties by the Northern California Lumber company to the Fruit Growers' Supply company.

Prof. Carl Loveland will render a 'cello solo Sunday evening at Vining Theatre. Concert by orchestra. 1t

Henry Simms of Eugene, an old friend of Chauncey Casebeer's of the days when he attended the Oregon University, has been visiting at the Casebeer home here recently, and with Chauncey enjoyed a hunting trip up Rogue river last week. Mr. Casebeer left this week to attend the University of Southern California dental school, from which he will graduate this year.

Reports were brought to this city Tuesday night of the wreck of a Ford car on the Pacific Highway in the Siskiyous, by plunging over a steep bank. Investigation showed that the car had gone over the cliff, but that no one was in it at the time. The occupant got out to watch a freight train pass and the car started down the hill of its own free will and accord and plunged off an embankment, and is now a mass of wreckage 200 feet down a ravine. The identity of the owner of the car has not been established.

Park Property for Sale.

Six-room house, modern, and barn, and one of the finest lots on Granite street, facing the park. About 65 foot front. Will give real buyer a price on this for next two weeks at which he can make some money.

HODGSON & REED.
Real Estate.
37-4t Austin Hotel Building.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dahlbery of Grants Pass visited over the week-end with friends in this city.

Orres cleans clothes. Phone 64.

Miss Emma Jenkins returned to her home here Monday after spending several days with Mrs. C. A. Winetrout at Grants Pass.

Napa-tan shoes in heavy ten-inch tops are the very best yet when it comes to service. Seven dollars a pair at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

John and Ed Martin have gone to Tigard, Oregon, a small town near Portland, for the winter. Their sister, Mrs. McGowan, lives near there.

Jack and Bert Mattern came over from the Salmon river mines last week. The latter has gone to Kern county, Cal., to talk charge of a mine.

Winifred Coldwell, a former Ashland girl who was committed to the State Industrial school at Salem, was one of the twelve girls who escaped recently from that institution. Her whereabouts are still unknown.

Neil Shinn came over from Klamath Falls Monday and Monday evening had his tonsils removed at a local hospital. He will return to the Falls after a short stay in Ashland and resume his work in a shoe store in that city.

Clif Payne makes apple presses.

The Big Sale

Of one of the finest stocks of millinery ever placed before the public, going on every day. Stock to be sold. Ahren's, Medford. 1t

Next Sunday, October 1, the Christian church will welcome the homecoming of Rev. W. L. Mellinger, who returns to Ashland and resumes the pastorate after an absence of several years.

Second half of taxes should be paid on or before October 5. See Billings Agency. 37-2t

J. B. Icenhower of the second-hand store on North Main street will move his place of residence this week from 148 Mechanic street to the Hayes house at the corner of Nursery street and the Scenic Drive.

Ladies' suits and coats remodeled and made up in the latest style. See Orres' tailors. 1t

The R. P. Neil block on North Main street has been leased to M. E. Horr, a newcomer from Vancouver, B. C., who will install a real estate office in the second story, renting the first floor for other purposes.

Eighty acres for rent near Ashland, suitable for grain or hay. See Billings Agency. 37-4t

Have a fit at Orres'. 1t

Notice

One of the most up-to-date stocks of ladies' wearing apparel is ordered sold. It will pay you to make a call at the Ahren's Cloak & Suit House, Medford. 1t

Have You Seen

Those Splendid Values in

Photo Albums

in our window

Get one of these and use the long evenings for gluing in your pictures.

Real Values at

Poleys Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Lack of Definite Purpose

Many a person has been side-tracked to a forlorn hope by not having a definite purpose.

Have an object in view

—a reserve fund for emergencies.

Start today by starting an account with us.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Mail Orders Received Now—Regular Box Office Sale Opens Next Monday

PAGE Thursday Night,

MEDFORD, Tel. 418 October 5th

The Winter Garden's Most Dazzling, Gorgeous, Girliest and Tuneful Revue

A WORLD OF PLEASURE

Traveling in their own special train of Pullman and baggage cars

Nine Huge Scenes of Barbaric Splendor---125 People. A Deluge of Girls

CHALLENGE CAST INCLUDES Wm. Norris, Conroy & LeMaine, Courtney Sisters, Margaret Edwards, Collins & Hart, Rosie Quinn, Wanda Lyon, McMahon, Diamond & Chaplow, Franklin Bates.

Manager's Note—This is positively the greatset musical revue ever playing Southern Oregon, and the greatest show on the road this year.

Send in your mail order today for Oct. 5, or miss the surprise of your life.

Floor $2.00
Balcony, $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c

Mortgage Property Sale

One Bay Work Mare 9 years old, weight 1300; 1 Bay Work Horse 8 years old, weight 1200; 2 sets Work Harness, 3 Farm Wagons, Plows, Cultivators, Spud Digger and Planter. See them at

115 Granite Street

Instantly Recognized

The man who does all his business through his bank is recognized as a systematic business man and one whose chances for success are excellent.

The man who does not use a bank is not making the most of his opportunities.

A cordial welcome awaits you at the

First National Bank
ASHLAND, OREGON.
Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

Saturday Night Rings The Curtain Down

on the Largest Blanket Sale ever held by any one firm. It's been a success, and you who need blankets should not leave the one best opportunity of securing from the best and foremost mills bright. new blankets---No shoddy or short fillings or warp---at prices that absolutely mean

THE BIGGEST VALUES EVER OFFERED ANYWHERE

40x68 Cotton Blanket, 65c quality, special, pair 43c	50x72 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, 90c Blanket, pair 69c	54x72 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, $1.00 Blanket, pair 85c	62x76 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, $1.25 Blanket, pair 1.05	64x76 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, $1.50 Blanket, pair 1.19	70x80 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, $2.00 Blanket, pair 1.69
72x80 Cotton Blanket, white, grey, tan, extra heavy, special, pair 2.05	60x76—Wool finish cotton blanket, plain colors, grey, tan, white, blue and pink borders, $2.00 blanket, pair 1.69	64x76 Wool Finish Cotton Blanket, greys, tans, white, $2.50 Blanket, pair 2.05	64x76 Wool Finish Cotton Blanket in checks only. $2.75 Blanket, pair 2.33	66x80 Wool Finish, Large Check, Cotton Blanket, $3.00 regular, pair 2.69	66x80 Wool Blanket, beautiful quality, in all sorts of checks, $4.50 Blanket, special, pair 3.89

90c Baby Blankets, special 73c	$1.25 Baby Blankets, special 1.05	EVERY ITEM BONI FIDE—COME SURE Vaupel's, Ashland's Shopping Center	50c Baby Blankets, special 39c	75c Baby Blankets 48c