

In the Social Realm

Spooks Will Assemble.

Spooks in great number will gather in mysterious high jinks at Auxiliary hall next Monday evening. The Auxiliary Club membership will no doubt turn out in force, as many unique features are promised for the Halloween party which is scheduled for that evening. All members are requested to wear sheet and pillow case costumes and come masked. Mesdames Sylvan Provost, J. P. Wolf, L. Gilvee and F. A. Grisez will be hostesses.

Civic Club.

The next meeting of the Civic Improvement Club will be held on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 24, at 2:30 o'clock, in the Auxiliary hall. An attractive program will be given by the C. L. T. C. under the leadership of Mrs. Rocho.

W. R. C. Club.

The W. R. C. Club, organized a short time ago by the ladies of the Relief Corps, is proving quite a success. The last meeting was held at the home of Elva M. Rouse on Seventh street, Monday afternoon, October 18. After spending a pleasant social afternoon light refreshments of chicken sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Rouse was assisted by Mesdames Coder, Corbett and White. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Carlton, Spindler, Peters, Bentley, Brady, Buck, Jennings, Mattingly, Sayle, Stacy, Howard, Corbett, Coder, Matthes, White and Rouse; invited guests, Mesdames Monroe, Wilcox, Long, Deal, Stennett, Turner, Robison, Young and Irene Wilcox.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. meets next Tuesday, October 24, at 2:30 p. m. in the Epworth League rooms of the Methodist church. Candidates for office will be discussed.

West Side Parent-Teachers.

The second meeting of the West Side Parent-Teacher Circle was held Tuesday afternoon at the West Side school with a goodly number present. After the reading of the minutes of the past meeting a few important matters of interest to the Circle were taken up, the most important of which is an invitation from the Educational Bureau of Medford, asking that a program be furnished by Ashland's circle for the meeting to be held there next month. At this meeting all Ashland babies may be registered for testing.

An interesting program followed, Mrs. Caldwell reading a most instructive paper, "Mendel's Law On Heredity." Mrs. Woods gave an inspiring paper on "Music in the Home and Its Influence," in which she urged mothers to cultivate this common interest in the home. Mrs. Millican read a musical article from Froman, Mrs. Slingerland read from the Musical Journal of the influence in character building a teacher of music may exert upon pupils. Mrs. Wolf gave a short definition of music. Mrs. McCracken read from the Musical Journal on "Making Our Neighbors Happy Through Music," and Mrs. Hensley read an article from The Etude. The program was concluded with Brahms' "Lullaby," sung by Mrs. Esther Ashcraft.

A pleasant surprise to the ladies was an invitation from the domestic science class to partake of refreshments served by the following young ladies: Norma Williams, Marie Good, Kate Fulgham, Irene Wilcox and Dorothy Tinker.

The committee for the next meeting are: Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Millican and Mrs. Merrick.

Zwicker-Hall

R. H. Zwicker and Mrs. Fleda E. Hall of this city were married in Yreka Wednesday of last week and motored to Grants Pass that same day to attend a dinner given at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Geo. Swinney.

Picnic at Arnolds

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Arnold, east of Ashland, was the scene of a happy picnic gathering last Sunday when about twenty-five friends gathered for the day. A picnic dinner was enjoyed, the young folks afterward climbing the slopes of Grizzly peak and the older folks passing away the time pleasantly with games and conversation.

Old Dances and Old Clothes.

Old-fashioned dances of the vintage of years ago will be interspersed at intervals at the Auxiliary Club's harvest dance at the Natatorium on Friday, October 27. Everybody is going and the attics of Ashland are the scenes of searches for suitable costumes. Some of the "make-ups" will be screams. Dig out some old duds if you are going. Ball dresses and stiff collars are taboo.

Medford Surprises.

Burnside Corps No. 24 of Ashland aimed to surprise Chester A. Arthur Corps No. 24 of Medford. "But what's the matter with Medford?" She simply surprised Ashland Corps with a banquet spread.

Mrs. Elsie C. Clay, deputy senior vice-president, had just arrived home after three months' absence from Medford corps as their secretary, and she was the forerunner of the banquet. Burnside members, post and corps, numbered twenty—Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ganere, Mr. and Mrs. James Mattingly, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Swingle, Mesdames Carlton, Howard, Nellie Peters, Mathis, Mills, Stacey, E. K. Hall, Bentley, Coder, Nellie White, Lizzie Sayles, Ida Jennings, and also a corps member of Elsworth No. 7, Corvallis.

We found out you would have to get a move on you if you found Medford asleep.

The happy affair ended with three cheers for Medford. A MEMBER.

Marguerite Clark And Hart at Vining

William S. Hart tonight in conjunction with Fatty Arbuckle and Al St. John, and Marguerite Clark tomorrow night, should mean two great big crowds at the Vining Theatre with a record-breaking matinee crowd tomorrow as well.

Tonight.

William S. Hart in "The Apostle of Vengeance" comes to the Vining tonight. Also Fatty Arbuckle and Al St. John in "The Waiters' Ball." "The Apostle of Vengeance," a drama from the pen of Monte M. Katterjohn, is a tale of Kentucky mountain feudists and has been handled with the realism characteristic of Ince productions. Its many tense scenes are framed in settings of unusual picturesqueness, thus combining two of the most important elements in photoplay production.

Hart is cast as David Hudson, a minister who is the eldest son of a sturdy Kentucky mountaineer. He is brought face to face with the problem of choosing between avenging the death of his father, killed in a feud battle, and abiding by the scriptural teaching that "To me belongeth vengeance and recompense." decision forms the big scene of the story, and how he succeeds ultimately in restoring order among the warring factions is forcefully depicted throughout the remainder of the play.

Friday.

Little Marguerite Clark, who has graced the garb of prince, pauper, orphan, Spanish girl, little Irish lass, Swiss maiden and others too numerous to mention, is to be with us again Friday at the Vining. This elfish maiden is presented in "Silks and Satins," a romantic story of two centuries.

In this unusual romance Miss Clark is a modern girl who is to marry a certain young dandy against her wishes. Through the careless maneuvering of a table a drawer is dislodged, revealing a diary, the story of which reveals a way of escape for the unhappy girl. The story of the diary and the way in which Marguerite Clark follows out the plan make a charming story.

Miss Lena Casey has returned from a month's vacation spent in southern California with her father. Mr. Casey remained at Los Angeles and Mrs. Casey will leave Saturday to join him there. Miss Casey says the southern California climate agrees with her father, who is walking miles every day and having the time of his life. During her stay they visited Los Angeles, all the adjacent beaches, Santa Monica, San Diego and the fair, and other points of interest. She was shown through some of the biggest motion picture studios near Los Angeles. In Los Angeles they met Mr. and Mrs. Glen, who she says are boosting for Ashland for all they are worth. "And say, Ashland is sure on the map in California," stated Miss Casey. "Everywhere you hear Ashland mentioned and the auto camp and park spoken of in highest terms. There are crowds coming up from down there next year. I myself know of five cars of friends of ours who are coming for a several weeks' stay."

A warrant was sworn out before Justice Taylor at Medford Tuesday morning by Charles F. Jacobs charging Harry Hildebrand and Raymond Ranch with assault and battery. The men all live near the county rock crusher near Siskiyou on the Pacific highway.

Roseberg Review: C. J. Mast, for the past year connected with the local train dispatchers' office, left today for Portland, where he will have a position in the general office of the Western Union Telegraph company in the Wells-Fargo building. Mr. Mast was formerly employed in Ashland.
