THE COUNTY TICKET

Voters of Ashland can not make a mistake in marking their crosses opposite every one of the Republican candidates for county offices.

The Tidings does not advocate placing a man of unknown ability or character in a county office just because he is of your particular political party. We do not and surely you do not choose your office help because of political beliefs, and when you vote for a candidate for county office you are hiring a man to look after your business. But in this year, 1916, it so happens that every one of the Republican candidates is a tried man of the truest worth and every one is entitled to your vote.

G. M. Roberts for county attorney is a brilliant young attorney whose ability has been proven and who owes no political machine or faction anything. He is the feasible candidate in that he is absolutely free to enforce the law as it stands without fear and without hindrance.

G. A. Gardner for county clerk needs no recommendation. His record while county clerk of Jackson county stands for itself. Under his tenure of office the county's affairs have been placed in a superb condition which by the unqualified statement of unbiased experts, places this county in a class by itself in the state of Oregon.

Chauncey Florey for county recorder must, without detracting from sometimes reduces her strength to the depths of weakness—her devotion to household cares prevents sufficient rest and recreation. Thousands of women in this condition find Scott's Emulsion exactly what they need; it is predigested body-food so medically perfected that every drop yields direct returns in strengthening the organs and tissues and in making healthy, life-sustaining blood. Scott's Emulsion is devoid of alcohol or any harmful drugs, and overcomes tiredness and nervousness in a marvelous way.

Announcements

John B. Wimer, candidate for city recorder. Dec. 19, 1916. 40-22t

I wish to announce to the voters of Ashland that I am a candidate for the office of City Recorder.

At the time I came west I was serving a term in a capacity similar to our office of recorder.

If elected I expect to look after the city's interest in every particular. I solicit your support.

Very truly yours,
39-tf C. L. CUNNINGHAM.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Recorder at the coming election in December.

W. H. GOWDY.
39-tf

I wish to announce to the people of Ashland that I am a republican candidate for the office of city recorder in the election to be held December 19.

HENRY C. GALEY.

For City Recorder.
I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of City Recorder at the coming city election. I have had sufficient clerical and educational training to prepare me for the work. If elected I shall serve the people to the best of my ability.

R. P. CAMPBELL.

Clerks Gardner's glory, he given a just share of the praise which has befallen Jackson county for successful conduct of its business. Efficiency is the watchword around the county recorder's office.

E. W. (Curly) Wilson for sheriff. If Mr. Wilson could have his nickname put on the ballot it would mean votes for him as many hardly know him by any other name but then watch out for No. 60 and you can't miss Curly. His popularity throughout the county is exceeded only by the high regard in which he is held. During the past two administrations of the sheriff's office, a big proportion of the sheriff's work has been handled by Deputy Wilson, and handled in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. The tax work and other routine labor has been studied carefully and thoroughly by him and law-breakers dealt with in a quietly courageous manner, which has built up a wholesome respect for the law of Jackson county.

Myrtle Blakeley for county treasurer. Again we must repeat, thorough knowledge of the duties which lie before a candidate and ability to handle these duties efficiently is the prime requisite in hiring your help or the county's, and Miss Blakeley has both.

A. T. Brown for county surveyor has given ample proof of his ability in engineering work, as the fact that he has no opponent testifies.

John A. Perl for coroner has, through a long tenure of office, proved his capability in a manner which leaves no room for doubt as to his fitness.

Geo. W. Owen of Ashland is the logical candidate for county commissioner, and the vote of the county will no doubt express the high esteem in which his reputation, character and business ability is held. This end of the county is entitled to a representative on the county court, and should give Mr. Owen a solid vote.

Two of the candidates are from Talent, Ashland's neighbor to the north. Ashland knows these two men, J. B. Coleman and G. A. Ager, almost as well as if they were citizens of Ashland and entertains the same kindly feelings toward them. But beyond the fact that Ashland and Talent are almost one in many ways, these two men are most eminently qualified for the positions to which they aspire. If you wish to know more of Mr. Ager's reputation as a school man, ask someone from Talent. The man himself, in his earnest devotion to betterment of educational facilities and full understanding of the latest proven efficiencies in school work, is bound to place Jackson county schools on a higher standard and deserves your vote.

Mr. Coleman's level-headed business ability, true judgment and high character is too well known to need any encomiums of ours.

Voters of Ashland or of any other district of Jackson county will have accomplished a wise move by giving each of these men their vote.

YOUR satisfaction means more to us than the amount of your purchase.

The House of Born makes more clothes to measure than any other tailoring house—seventy-five per cent of our yearly sales are made to satisfied customers—their friends make up the other twenty-five per cent.

So we can't afford to let you pay for a Born garment that does not please you in every detail of the style, fit, material and needle work.

We notice in Northern California papers, a number of advertisements of Ashland fruit raisers to sell fruit "direct to the consumer," from the orchards. And the prices are reasonable too, lower in many cases than those quoted at local stores. Ashland papers, as far as we can find, have no such advertisements and it looks rather as if an opportunity of selling direct to the consumer in our own city was being overlooked. There are many Ashland folks who will buy good apples at fair prices.

The state of Oregon will spend $160,000 in improvements and additions to the state insane asylum, feeble-minded institution and girls' industrial school.

Vote Yes for the Proposed Normal School

ASHLAND, Ore., Oct. 25, 1916.

The undersigned having been requested by many citizens to give public expression of our opinion on the Pendleton Normal School initiative measure, we wish to say that it is our judgment that this bill should receive the usual overwhelming vote that Jackson county and Southern Oregon has always cast for all educational and progressive measures. We have given the entire state of Oregon a continuous and careful study and we feel that the people as a whole are steadily getting a better understanding of the real need of trained teachers, and we believe that the desire of the people of Eastern Oregon to secure a normal school should receive our encouragement and co-operation. Jackson county has an unbroken record for supporting educational measures. It would be inconsistent for Southern Oregon to fail to appreciate the needs of the children of the state even though Eastern Oregon be far removed from our knowledge and observation.
