

Social Realm

Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night is the Harvest dance at the Natatorium and the several committees of energetic ladies who have the arrangements for the affair in charge are hurrying around with a concentrated expression on their faces which promises great doings before the clock strikes midnight tomorrow. And nearly everyone is taking a few minutes today or will take them tomorrow to dig out the old dress or apron, sunbonnet, overalls, hickory shirt or patched trousers which are necessary to proper costuming at the affair. It won't be a fussy affair. Far from it. While hobnails are frowned upon, almost anything else goes and some great make-ups are sure to be there. The ladies want it made plain, however, that it is not necessary to go to the expense of purchasing old clothes if you have none. Borrow them from the neighbors or come to the editor of the society realm. Lord knows he hasn't much of anything else. Use the trousers you wear when you spade the garden and, girls, any old gingham gown will do. The hall is going to be remodelled into a resemblance of the interior of a barn and a few cows may possibly be tied in the out of the way corners for effect. The music will be old-fashioned in spots and schottisches, lancers, Virginia reels, square dances and all sorts of old-time go producers will be intermingled with the one-steps, two-steps and waltzes. The orchestra will be dolled up as well as the rest and if you haven't ever seen Carl Loveland wear a Bill Bailey hat, Friday night is your opportunity. We have a hunch there will be some cider on tap. But anyway, go get your best gal and come over and play in Hum Prachts' barn with the rest of the neighborhood for the evening.

Auxiliary Sees Spooks

Auxiliary club members attired in sheets and pillow cases and other spooky costumes, sneaked through the back alleys to the Auxiliary hall Monday night of this week and put in one of the most mysteriously, creepily jolly evenings on record. Before gaining admission to the dark and dismal caverns of the hall, the spooks were obliged to shake the clammy hand at the door. Four humbacked witches in black whom rumor has it were Mesdames F. A. Grisez, L. Gleave, J. P. Wolf and Sylvan Provost, greeted the arriving spooks and initiated them into the glories of hobgoblin land. All kinds of stunts were brewed, one of the most effective being ghost stories told in the ghostly light produced by burning alcohol soaked salt. The refreshment had no ghostly quantities and the idea that spooks can't eat was dispelled.

A Birthday Surprise.

A number of friends met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Wilcox, 200 Gresham street, to surprise here on her birthday with a postcard shower, which they certainly did, while she was reading the news from the Tidings. Her daughter Irene, being in the secret, seemed as much surprised as her mother. Enough said. A good time was had. The evening was spent playing cards and telling stories till lunch was served at 11 p. m., which consisted of sandwiches, pickles, cakes, tea and coffee. All went home hoping for another birthday surprise to occur soon.

Elks Will Hop.

The Elks' social committee held a meeting Saturday night and is planning for fall and winter festivities to start with a dance in about two weeks, to get public feet in shape for the big annual Thanksgiving ball.

E. W. Wilson
Republican Nominee
FOR SHERIFF

E. W. Wilson is an active, progressive and capable young man, and stands for a rigid enforcement of all the laws.

He is finishing his fourth year as deputy in charge of the sheriff's office and is pre-eminently qualified to discharge the duties of that office in a highly satisfactory manner, and by reason of his experience and ability, the cost of the office should be reduced to the lowest figure in the history of Jackson county.

It is universally conceded that the sheriff's office is being conducted in a highly efficient manner, and the election of Mr. Wilson means a continuance in its present condition.

An excerpt from the certified public accountant's report to the County Court, filed March 4th, 1916, contains the following:

"All of these collections have been promptly deposited in the treasury. The sheriff is observing the law requiring all delinquent taxes to be brought forward on the current rolls and entered on the tax receipts. This is a huge task, and they are doing the work as diligently as possible during the stress of a heavy tax collection. It is praiseworthy in the sheriff of find his office administered with no bustle or confusion. Only expert men are employed in the office, in the tax collections and other departments of the office. And it is a pleasure to find Jackson county coming forward as one of the best-officed counties in the state. Undoubtedly it is economy to employ only efficient men in the office of tax collector."

"I have scanned every tax collection and every fee coming into the office and I find nothing out of place nor entered wrongly. This is an unusually good record."

Mr. Wilson has by his own energies made himself a competent Deputy Sheriff, and by training and ability has the necessary qualifications for Sheriff.

Miss Bagley Honored.

Miss Doris E. Bagley has been requested to appear on one of the programs of the Oregon State Music Teachers' Association which will be held in Portland November 30 to December 2. Miss Bagley has been chosen to represent the sopranos of southern Oregon.

Wednesday Club.

Mrs. Nims, assisted by Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Saunders, entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club. A pleasant afternoon was spent with needlework and conversation. A short business session was held and a few plans were made for the bazaar to be held November 22. Dainty refreshments were served, consisting of wafers and coffee.

Ladies' Aid.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church met with Mrs. W. P. Powell on Iowa street Wednesday afternoon. Two new members were voted into the club. The afternoon was spent with sewing and planning for the renovating of the Congregational church, which will commence Monday. The south door of the church will be closed up and a platform built along that side for the pulpit and choir. New pews will be installed, a new carpet and other furniture, and the building will undergo a complete renovation.

Picnic in Lithia Park.

A crowd of relatives consisting of the following people enjoyed a picnic dinner in Lithia park Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred York and family, Mrs. Ellen Fifield, Mr. and Mrs. Will Shaw, Mrs. Cora Fish and Mrs. A. Roberts, both of Los Angeles, Mrs. Emma Smith and son Edward of Minnesota, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Will Shaw; also Mr. Lee Fifield of Remington, Va., who is visiting at the Shaw home.

Surprise Willard.

Willard Veghte was surprised at his home on Gresham street Tuesday evening by seven ladies of the city. The guest of honor was a certain Senorita La Paloma Juarez of Tia Juana, Mexico, who was piloted through the intricacies of the social etiquette devolving upon the attendant at an American "surprise" party by Miss Georgia Coffee. A jolly evening of cards was enjoyed. Those present besides Mr. Veghte and the senorita were Mesdames C. H. Hargadine and Coffee, Misses Gertrude Biede, Georgia Coffee, Helene Casey and Bernita Mix.

Nazarene Church.

Sunday school at 9:45. All our teachers are Christians and examples to their scholars. People appreciate this feature and our school is growing as the result. We invite you to take advantage of this great privilege. Morning sermon at 11. Subject, "Hope So or Know So." Four of the "Twenty Great Words" will be used—Adoption, Sonship, Assurance and Life. Y. P. H. L. meets at 6:30. The service will be in charge of Mrs. Edwards. Evening sermon at 7:30. The subject will be "The Triune God." The doctrine of the "Trinity" is one of the fundamentals of orthodoxy that is being so persistently attacked by higher criticism. The atonement of Christ hangs upon the truth of this doctrine. Come and help us magnify the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.—Dorman D. Edwards, pastor

Good Time at Green Springs.

The Green Springs school gave amusement to a crowd of about seventy people at Grove's hall on Green Springs mountain Saturday night. A program which showed practice and skill occupied the first part of the evening. The main number of the program was the dramatizing of a part of Hiawatha. Following this was the selling of well-filled boxes, from which the proceeds were $44.85. This amount will be spent for an organ for the school. Miss Bessie Homes and her school are to be congratulated upon their good success.

Dancing was enjoyed from 11 o'clock until 12, when the school affair closed and about half of the crowd went homeward. Still some remained, having just gotten into the spirit of dancing, and Mr. Groves invited those who cared to stay, to dance in his hall a few hours longer. Several accepted this invitation, thus ending the second affair of the evening about 2:30.

Married in Oakland.

The marriage of Ernest L. Bemiers and Cora J. Ganiard, formerly of Ashland, was solemnized in Oakland at the home of the bride's mother on October 18 by the Rev. Howard Kerr of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church, in the presence of the relatives and a few of the closest friends of the couple. The bride was attended by Miss Marjorie Morrison, and Harry W. Johnson supported the groom as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the couple departed for a ten-day honeymoon.

The bride was reared in Ashland, completing a course in the Polytechnic school and leaving for Oakland with her mother three years ago. The groom is the son of the wealthy Mrs. J. Bemiers of 1307 Pacific avenue, Alameda, and is a rising young engineer in the employ of the Rieber laboratories in San Francisco. They will be at home to their friends after November 1 at the Vue Du Lac apartments, 304 East Sixteenth, Oakland.

Vote For 62 X

Does efficiency pay?

The following letter from accountant gives some reasons for voting for present clerk:

Corvallis, Ore., Sept. 13, 1916.
Mr. G. A. Gardner, Jacksonville, Ore.
Dear Sir: I have just received your semi-annual statement, and it shows the county's affairs up in fine shape.

It is a great pleasure to get a statement which can be relied upon. Among the several counties where I were, I am glad to testify that Jackson county is now one of the best administered in the state. Your office, the Sheriff's, the Treasurer's and the Recorder's can not be beat. When I began to audit Jackson county in 1909, there had never been and audit of the affairs of the county, and naturally there were some things to correct. Especially as I went back of that time ten years, but since the audits have been made regularly since that time, the county has been coming to the front better and better until now it can not be beat.

I was never more surprised, and agreeably surprised, than last winter when I found the offices in such uniform excellent condition. It speaks volumes for the business of auditing, and it speaks more for the industry, care and attention of the officers. Yours truly,
J. H. WILSON.
