National Farm Loan Associations

A national farm loan association may be organized in any community where 10 citizens owning land desire to borrow an aggregate of not less than $20,000. The land must be unincumbered or the proceeds of the loan must be used, in part, to remove any lien. Loans may be as small as $100, or as large as $10,000.

They must make their first application, in writing, for a charter to the federal land bank of the district in which the association desires to do business. This application must be signed by all those desiring to form the association, stating specifically the name under which they desire to do business, the amount each one desires to borrow, the estimated value of the security each one offers, the territory in which the association desires to do business, how the proceeds of the loan are to be used, and other details set forth in the blank forms which are furnished.

The district has purchased the required new pictures for the school rooms and we are standardized for 1916-17.

In a recent test in the civil government class this question was asked: "What suggestions can you make for the improvement of the appearance of our school buildings and grounds?" For the improvement of the appearance of our town, Ashland? The following suggestions were made relative to improvements for Ashland. They were even more interesting in relation to the school house and grounds, but as this would not be of general interest it is omitted: "Old Chautauqua building replaced by a better one." "Old opera house torn down and removed." "A new and modern Southern Pacific station." "A new coat of paint on all residences that need it." "All vacant lots kept in order."

Mrs. Gray was called to Baker City, Oregon, Saturday on account of the serious illness of her mother. She took Marshall with her.

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment—just use 'GETS-IT' and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use—just a few drops on in a few seconds—'GETS-IT' does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that make your corns pop, red knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all these—use "GETS-IT," the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it off. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Ashland and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by J. J. McNair, McNair Bros.

NORTH TALENT-PHOENIX ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pace were at Grants Pass sugar beet meeting last Saturday from Talent.

Mrs. M. Rose of Phoenix was at Medford this week, visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. Cate.

Horn—To Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briscoe of North Talent, on November 29, a daughter.

Mrs. Erma Fay left Phoenix last week for the east to visit one of her daughters for the winter.

Those from Talent and vicinity who were guests of Grants Pass on Saturday during the sugar beet meeting, were Mesdames Oatman, Bruin, Reimer, Carey, Morris, Glascoe, Fuller, Stratton, Crofford, Mills and Mills; Messrs. J. B. Robison, Boyd, Robison, W. M. Bruin, F. B. Oatman, Crofford, Fuller, John Mills Sr., and John Mills, Jr., Geo. Morris, C. Carey and W. W. Glascoe.

Your correspondent met on the Grants Pass sugar beet special Mr. Geo. Anderson, John Mills, E. J. Kaiser, Mrs. Ed Barron and Mrs. Minnie Kinsman of Ashland.

John Mills of Fredrice was the banner beet grower at Grants Pass Saturday, he having grown twenty-eight tons per acre of high test sugar beets. Mr. Mills gave facts and figures in regards to his experiments.

the best of all, because of the knowledge gained, was the immense sugar factory to which the visitors were taken by automobile as soon as they came off the train. The guests were shown through the factory and the process of sugar making explained. Few of us had any idea of the immensity of such a plant, and I must say little knowledge can be gained by reading, compared with seeing the actual workings and having each process explained.

Cleanliness was evidenced in every part of the process, and one feels convinced that the plant cost a million dollars after seeing it in operation. Several good talks were given at the big tabernacle and all had to do with the factory and raising of sugar beets. A fine booster song and two solos by Mr. Vessey were enjoyed by all. Everyone present felt that it was due Grants Pass to say, "Hurrah for Grants Pass with her sugar factory and railroad, her spirit of boost and her hospitality, and her ability to use very little hot air, but to push all together and really accomplish big things."

John Mills, Jr. of Talent, gave one of the best experiment facts on the beet raising with water, giving costs of production and tonnage per acre. He raised twenty-eight tons per acre, and has his receipts to show. Many growers are intending to grow large acreage next year, water being the next thing needed.

The application having been signed, together with another blank form furnished, called an "organization certificate," the applicants become a tentative organization and elect an agent to represent them, called a "secretary-treasurer"; they also select a committee of three, called a "loan committee." This agent will then receive, from each of the applicants, a subscription to the stock of the association they are forming equal to 5 per cent of the loan they severally desire, which is not required to be paid unless the loan is granted. That is, each borrower must subscribe for such stock to the amount of 5 per cent of his own loan and no more.

The application for the charter having been signed, the signatures must be acknowledged before a notary public or other officer qualified to administer oaths, and then it must be forwarded by the secretary-treasurer to the Federal Land bank of the district.

Upon its receipt the bank will send its agent to examine into the representations made in the application and, if found satisfactory, a charter will be granted.

Upon the granting of the charter, the individuals signing the application become a body corporate, which gives it the right to do the business authorized by the farm loan act, to extend it benefits to others by taking in new members from time to time, and to have succession indefinitely. New members must be borrowers whose loans may be as small as $100 or as large as $10,000.

Let it be plainly understood that farmers can organize at once, but they can not borrow money until the land banks are established.

incur, and hence the associations are required to indorse every loan made to members. It is also through these associations that the borrowers will ultimately become the owners of the Federal Land banks. The association decides whether any loan shall be made or not by refusing the application for every loan which is considered unsafe or even doubtful. No loan can be made unless it is approved by the loan committee after examination of the land offered as security.

The National Farm Loan associations are not limited as to the number of their members. After one is organized it may serve an entire neighborhood by receiving new members. Each association may obtain in loans for its members twenty times the amount of its stock in the Federal Land bank, no matter how large its holdings of stock may become by the growth of the association.

TRIP TO BEET CITY

By the courtesy of Grants Pass Commercial Club and beet boosters in general many of the farmers of Talent and Phoenix as well as other portions of the valley were guests of that city last Saturday, and were treated royally. The train was especially chartered for their guests, and dinner was served at noon to many hundreds of guests. A hot chicken dinner with vegetables of several kinds, celery salad, cheese, pie and coffee was enjoyed by all the guests. But

Saturday and Sunday nights were the coldest of the fall season here and ice was in evidence all day Sunday wherever water stood. Outside of a few faucets frozen up, no harm was done. The women are busy supplying those who neglected to order their winter wood early. Wood prices are way up in the air and going higher.

Limitations

1. No loan may be made except upon the security of first mortgages.
2. The amount of the mortgage can not exceed one-half the appraised value of the land and 20 per cent of the permanent improvements thereon, which must be insured.
3. The proceeds of the loan must be used for the extinguishment of pre-existing indebtedness or for productive purposes, which includes the purchase of livestock, fertilizers, equipment and improvements (see section 12, farm loan act).
4. Every mortgage must contain an agreement to pay off the debt (principal and interest) in fixed annual or semi-annual installments.
5. The amount of each installment may be fixed by the borrower, but can not be less than sufficient to pay off the debt in 40 years, nor greater than to pay off in 5 years.
6. The rate of interest charged any borrower can not exceed 6 per cent per annum.
7. The borrower can not be called upon to pay the debt except by the installments he originally fixes, unless he defaults, but after 5 years he may pay off the whole or any part at his option at any installment period.

Management

After the charter is granted the applicants no longer act in their individual capacity, but become merged as shareholders into a corporation, which has a separate existence created by law, under the same name which has been chosen and set forth in the original application and organization certificate. This corporation will have directors and officers selected by the shareholders to do its business in accordance with the by-laws which the shareholders make for their guidance. The active executive officer of the association will be the secretary-treasurer, and his duties are set forth in section 7 of the farm loan act.

Powers

These associations are organized for the primary purpose of giving to each borrower the benefit of the combined credit of all its members to the extent of the capital contributed and the limited liability they each
