The
Biggest Bargain
Saturday
Yet Known

The doors will open Saturday morning, December 9th, at 10 o'clock, on another Saturday Slaughter Sale of the Beebe & Kinney merchandise. Rain, sleet, snow or sunshine, this sale takes place as announced. Remember last Saturday the crowds came, saw, bought and were satisfied. For Saturday we have arranged a BARGAIN FEAST that if anything, will far surpass the one of last Saturday. The store closes its doors forever in a short 13 days, so join the anxious buying throngs and be here next Saturday when the doors are thrown open. Hundreds of unadvertised bargains await you. There will be no such place to secure bargains after this store closes.

FREE

We have a limited number of pairs of pink, blue and white doll hose, clown tricks and pot and pan scrapers. These will be given away Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, in our ladies' shoe room only.

This is cheaper than we have ever sold these shoes. Think of it a pair of $3.50 shoes for $1.75, a pair of $4.00 shoes for $2.00; a pair of $5 shoes for $2.50. This offer is on our very best women's shoes in the shoe room to the left of the main floor.

A True Story of the Bargain Balcony

THE idea first was to place there only odds and ends, but it came into such instant popularity that we decided to enlarge it until now there is merchandise from every department of the store at a less price. It has made such a hit that you will often see more people on the balcony than on the main floor. Next Saturday, Dec. 9th, big slaughter sale of good merchandise that cannot be equalled anywhere. Come and see for yourselves.
