Saturday, December 16 THE ONE BIG DAY

Read Every Word On These Two Pages

I know some will say I am going a little strong when I say that this is the greatest one-day Marked Down Sale that will be held in the world Saturday, December 16. Now listen: There is a condition existing in the world today that has never been known before. Nearly all of Europe is engaged in mighty war. Believe me, there are no sales in foreign countries. Prices in the United States are advancing by leaps and bounds—merchandise of all kinds is growing scarce. Many lines the retailer cannot procure at all. For many reasons retail merchants are not putting on general reduction sales. He is not in position to do so. I have been in the business of conducting sales for 20 years, and in all that time I have never seen such a sale as this one is to be. There is only one reason for it. Last June I started to close out this stock and at that time I told you Beebe & Kinney were going out of business. Some of you didn't believe it, but now we come to the realization of the statement made then. If you don't get what you want Saturday don't blame me. It will be your own fault.

Warning!

The Beebe & Kinney store will be closed all day FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15. No goods will be sold and no one will be allowed in the store on that day. We will have just one day in which to mark down the remainder of this stock and in order to be ready we must have an uninterrupted day to use the pencil mark of reduction such as we have never used it before.

Take my word for it, there will be the greatest trimming and slashing of prices that I have yet made and they are sure to please the most exacting. The store will not be open for business Monday, December 18—Saturday is the day you must purchase this merchandise if you want it. Doors will be open at 9:55 a. m., and sale will begin promptly at 10 a. m.

BE HERE

The Day You Have Been Waiting For

An old colored woman once said: "There is a heap of human nater about white people." Many of you have been waiting for this day to come, because you thought there would be a day when everything would be cheaper.

By doing so, however, you have lost out on many lines of merchandise you will never be able to get for the good reason that others have been wise and have bought it. However, that may be, we come now to the big day—the day when thousands of dollars of this merchandise must be cleaned up. Many lines will not last until noon. Some of it may last the entire day. There is only one thing for you to do Saturday, and that is to be here when the doors open and remain until you get everything you want.
