

START the New Year RIGHT

Have that long delayed photograph which you have promised your friends so often, made today. Have it made in our studio, too, where you are certain of the best of service and attention.

Resolve Today:

To call us up and arrange for a sitting this week sure!

STUDIO ASHLAND

Unusually Attractive Prices for High Grade Work

Royal Arch Masons

Siskiyou Chapter No. 21

Stated convocation of Siskiyou Chapter No. 21, R. A. M., Thursday evening, December 21, 1916. Election of officers and other important business. The basis of dues for 1917 will be decided upon. Visiting companions are cordially welcome.

W. E. BLAKE, H. P.
W. H. DAY, Sec'y.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

B. R. Greer returned this morning from a business trip to San Francisco.

Johnson's Jewelry Store—the gift center.

Miss Bertha Eliason of the Union school at McCloud, Cal., will be home this week for a month's vacation.

A box of Crowson's chocolates. Get it at Poley's drug store.

Verni Mills returns home Friday

from Berkeley to spend the holidays with his mother.

Get our prices on Christmas candles before buying elsewhere. Rose Bros.

Mrs. J. W. Haskins, who has been ill for some time, is now able to be out again.

A new phonograph record makes an inexpensive and appreciated gift. Rose Bros.

Miss Querita Brown is clerking in Rose Bros.' store during the Christmas rush.

Superintendent Jassman of the Hit box factory, was a visitor in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Mabel Jacobs of Eugene is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lottie Pelton, on B street, at present.

E. T. Merrill of Ashland investigated some timber land propositions in northern California last week.

Mrs. Margaret J. Beckett is spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Cassius L. Miller, while en route from Columbus, Ohio, to her home in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting at the Fraley home. Mr. Dickson is a cousin of Mrs. Fraley. They will visit in Ashland until after Christmas. They are making a leisurely tour of the Pacific coast and will go from here to San Francisco and then on to southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter left Tuesday for Texas, where they will make an extended visit with relatives.

First, last and always, Crowson's chocolates for a gift. At Poley's drug store.

G. B. Johnson of this city transacted business in Montague and other northern California towns last week.

Robert Spencer returned Tuesday from Berkeley, where he has been attending the University of California.

Make this a rocker Christmas. J. P. Dodge & Sons.

Miss Ruth Whitney and Mrs. Alta Ashcraft are helping O. H. Johnson supply his jewelry store patrons with Christmas gifts.

Miss Nell Peachey was visiting her parents on Lincoln street the first of the week, returning to her school Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marguerite Hammond returned Saturday evening from Portland, where she has been attending school at St. Helen's Hall.

Mrs. Simons wishes to inform her friends and patrons that she will continue the sale on millinery the balance of this week. Any trimmed hat $2.

Mrs. R. P. Cornelius leaves Friday evening for Portland, where she will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bellan, former Ashlanders.

W. L. Mellinger preached at Talent Sunday afternoon. A number of auto loads went down from Ashland to be present at the service.

The ladies of the Christian church did very well at their bazaar last week. They sold all their goods and took in a nice sum of money.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swing, former Ashland residents, now living at Brevard, Cal., recently suffered the sorrow of the death of their son Willie.

The gift that is always received graciously—a box of Crowson's chocolates at Poley's drug store.

J. W. Detwiler of Des Moines, Iowa, brother-in-law of Mrs. J. R. Casey, arrived here last Friday for a winter stay with the Casey family.

Mrs. Radifer has returned to her home on Seventh street after a several weeks' visit with her son, Aubrey, who is attending school in Eugene.

Miss Marian Hodgson will arrive Friday from Corvallis, where she has been attending Oregon Agricultural College and will spend the holidays with her parents in this city.

Leonard R. Boyd of Montague, a nephew of Mrs. O. Winter of this city, has been appointed second lieutenant in the army, and goes to Leavenworth, Kan., the first of the year.

Sydney Hazleton, student at the experiment station of the California Agricultural College at Davis, is a holiday visitor with relatives in the Clark Bush family.

W. E. Newcombe, Western Union manager of local offices, left for San Francisco Sunday evening to attend a gathering of the company's telegraph officials and employes on Tuesday evening at the Stewart hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wooden came through Ashland last week, returning from California to their home in Portland. They stopped over in

Poley's Drug Store

for

Xmas Goods

Complete line of beautiful and useful gifts for men, women and children. Costs nothing to look.

Come in

Poleys Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

Ashland and visited old friends for a short time.

The Bible school of the Christian church will render a Christmas program at their church Saturday evening, December 23. The regular services will be observed Sunday with a Christmas sermon in the evening.

H. L. Gilkey of Grants Pass, well known in this city, has resigned the cashiership of the First National Bank of Southern Oregon at that place and will devote his energies to some outdoor work on account of his health. George Lundburg, also well known here, succeeds Mr. Gilkey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Disney have purchased the Victor Payne place east of the city. Ten acres of land and a residence is included in the deal, which was negotiated by the Beaver Realty Company. Mr. Disney is a Southern Pacific carpenter. The Payne family are now in Oklahoma.

The Ashland Hotel restaurant, which is building up a deserved reputation by its excellent service and delicious home cooking, will serve a Christmas dinner Monday which will be hard to beat. Turkey dinner with all the fixings will be served for 50 cents. Chicken dinner with everything else the same will be 35 cents. Plan to eat your Christmas dinner at the Ashland.

Agents of the allied governments are buying horses in southern Oregon this week, upon rush orders, and there is a report that the poor beasts are needed for the coming spring drive, with which Germany is expected to be crushed. One provision of all the sales is that the horses be dark in color, though some of the lighter shades will be bought. Mules and burros are also in demand.

The fame of Butler's chocolates is spreading. An out-of-town man wandered back into the candy factory the other day, and after watching operations for a few minutes asked if Mr. Butler could do him up a "little order." Mr. Butler replied, "Sure thing, just as soon as I finish this little batch," expecting an order for a couple of pounds. The visitor left an order for seventy-five boxes of candy which he is going to give to seventy-five fortunate friends as Christmas remembrances.

We engrave our Parisian Ivory free. O. H. Johnson, jeweler.

Miss Mabel Russell and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Potter, from Montague, have returned to spend the holidays with their family in Ashland.

Get a Kodak For Xmas

It educates the children and interests the old folks.

We give instruction and helpful suggestions freely and fully.

H. L. Whited Eastman Dealer

Mrs. Ora Patrick came up from Pasadena, Cal., this week to spend the holidays with parents and friends.

Mrs. Elsie Churchman and children will spend the holidays with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walters and Mr. A. H. Rosenbaum of Portland will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winter for Christmas dinner.

Mrs. Thos. W. Acklin has returned from Colorado after a month's visit with her parents. She is now busily engaged behind the counters of the Ashland Trading Company's store.

Fred Schuerman, who has held a position at McCloud, will return to Ashland to spend the holidays with his parents. He will leave the first of the year for Eugene, where he will enter the University of Oregon.

Card of Thanks.

Myself and daughters wish to tender our heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to the many friends and members of the Masonic order, Eastern Star, and especially the Elks and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, for their words of sympathy and acts of kindness extended to us in our last bereavement in the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

MRS. NELLIE M. CONNER,
MRS. C. G. COLLINS,
MRS. W. W. WILSON,
HELEN CONNER.

Notice.

All bills against the Springs Water Commission must be presented on or before December 28, 1916.

By order of the Springs Water Commission.

STUART SAUNDERS, W. M.
W. H. DAY, Sec'y.

61-2t

Fords! Fords! For Sale

1 Brand New Ford
1 Used Ford, for sale

Can make immediate delivery on both.

Murphy Motor Company

We Wish All Our Friends and Customers

A Merry Xmas and Prosperous New Year

Carson-Fowler Lumber Co.

ELEVENTH HOUR XMAS SUGGESTIONS

Ladies' Handkerchiefs 3 to 75c	Men's Neckwear 25 and 50c	Men's Garter & Arm Band Sets 60c	Hose of Luxite for Men and Women	La France Silk Hose for Ladies	Umbrellas for Men, Women and Children	Purses for Her	Gloves in Kid, Silk, Wool	Bedroom Slippers for Ladies and Men
Knit Caps	Suspenders for Men	Knit Leggings Knit Coats for Baby	Special Announcement Our new all-kid 8-in. High Boot for Ladies in deep plum, have just arrived. One of the very newest styles. Sizes in A-AA and B. Price $8.00			Knit Skating Sets for Her	Fur Scarfs Fur Muffs	Bath Robes & Bath Robe Squares
Smoking Jackets	Wool Hose for Men	Dress Shirts for Men	Collar Sets for Her	Kimona Silk	Tub Silks	Boys' Suits and Overcoats	Boys' and Children's Shoes	Dressing Caps for Her

Store Closed All Day Christmas

VAUPEL'S The Christmas Gift Shop VAUPEL'S