Fire Insurance
When your house is burning up, your neighbors will all stand around until it is a little pile of ashes, then walk off, and there will be nothing standing but the chimneys. We go right after your money for you. Our companies all pay cash; no waiting or parleying. We keep up with your policy; that's our business, and we make it our business to give you the best service possible.
That's why we are your friends after the fire.
