

Royal Arch Masons

Siskiyou Chapter No. 21

Special convocation of Siskiyou Chapter No. 21, R. A. M., Thursday evening, April 26, 1917, for work on the M. E. M. degree, preliminary to a visit to the Jacksonville Chapter later in the month. Every officer is expected to be in his respective station promptly.

P. K. HAMMOND, H. P. W. H. DAY, Sec.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Charles Chapman of Talent was in town Friday.

"Movie Man" Hull of Central Point was in Ashland Saturday.

Robert Peachey and wife of Jacksonville were in town Saturday.

Mrs. H. O. Butterfield sells the Spirella corsets, which have non-breakable and non-rustable stays. She also repairs all kinds of corsets.

A. B. Cavin is said to be dangerously ill at the local sanitarium.

Mrs. Julia R. McQuilkin of Ashland street was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

Fireman Sharp has moved his family to the Corbett residence on Seventh street.

Mrs. Ada Solvey, who has been at Hornbrook for some time, was in Ashland last week, visiting Miss Mamie Orr, on Harrison street.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

When You Consider

the prestige and useful service afforded depositors of The Citizens Bank of Ashland, you will recognize the fact that it is to your interest to have an account with us. Your business invited.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Mrs. E. E. White of Mountain avenue is enjoying a visit from her niece from Portland.

Miss Pina Benedict, who teaches a Pilot Rock, was in Ashland Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Nell Peachey was up from the Antelope country Saturday and Sunday, visiting home folks.

W. J. Wallace and family of B street have moved to Mountain avenue, near the railroad track.

Mrs. Maud Port of Jacksonville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachey, the first of the week.

Stevenson will develop your films.

Mr. and Mrs. Vorheis are moving from the Birch place on Ashland street to their mountain ranch near Climax.

G. M. Lowe returned to Ashland Thursday from Pendleton, Ore., where he was called by the death of his mother.

Mrs. W. T. Small, formerly of Dunsmuir, but now of San Francisco, is visiting Mrs. Walter Gill and Mrs. B. B. Baylis.

After three months' sickness E. K. Hall is well and wants a job of paper-hanging. He needs the money.

Henry Carter, one of the clerks in Beebe & Kinney's store which recently quit business, is now employed in the local railroad yards.

Mrs. Nancy Kennedy, who lives east of town, went to Hornbrook recently to visit her sister, Mrs. Lydia Standiford, for a time.

Stevenson Studio for portraits.

Professor C. A. Dana and family have returned to their former home in Colorado, to remain indefinitely in order to look after property interests.

Nell Shinn was over from Copco for a few days last week, to visit his home, get a change of grub and incidentally join the local company of militia.

Frank Strickfadden has been in the city during the past week, inspecting his former home, which was recently ruined by fire. His present home is at Los Angeles.

Brand new Dodge touring car at the Ashland Garage at a bargain price this week.

Wild flowers are beginning to bloom around on the hills, and the almond trees in town are putting on their springtime attire of pretty pink blossoms.

A splendid khaki two-piece suit. Coat is made semi-Norfolk style, trousers have cuff bottoms and tunnel belt loops. Any size for $4 a suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth, friends of Dr. Carnahan's family, are here for a few days' visit, from Anaconda, Mont. They are on their way to Sacramento to visit relatives.

Charley's seven-passenger car for hire. Phone Hotel Austin.

"Ole" Olson of the University of Oregon was in the city recently, making advance dates for the University of Oregon Girls' Glee Club, who are to tour this part of the state soon.

Light-weight underwear in all weights and grades at 75 cents and up to $1.50 a suit. Long sleeve, short sleeve, knee length or otherwise. Mitchell & Whittle.

Tracy Lane, well-known cowboy poet and one of the most popular cowboys present at the local Rogve river roundup last year, is now employed at Fred Herrin's large ranch across Bear creek.

The ladies of the Trinity Guild will give a card party Friday evening at the Parish House. A good time is assured to all. Admission 25c.

Professor Stetson of the University of Oregon was in the city Thursday. He visited the various schools of the city and addressed the high school teachers and pupils of the teachers' training class during his stay.

The $18.50 specials at Orres' are the biggest values in tailored suits in the United States. That's going some.

Kenneth Lilly, well-known Ashland boy, who is attending school at Stanford University, where he is recognized as one of the best players on the Stanford baseball team, received his official baseball letter recently.

Delmar Harmon and Giles Ruch, who motored up the canyon Saturday, report that they saw six deer this side of the power house. The animals were peacefully grazing and were not alarmed by the appearance of the men.

The fire alarm Saturday morning did not prove to be a serious matter. One of the flues of the I. O. O. F. building burned out, and as the flue system of the building is rather complicated, smoke issued from several of the chimneys, which gave the appearance of a bad fire.

Waldo Klum, who recently received injuries resulting from a fall from a box car near Dunsmuir, returned to Ashland Thursday after a month's stay at the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco. He has fully recovered from his injuries and will soon start on his regular run out of Ashland.

The members of the oratory class of the local high school now appear before the assembly room with talks, readings, etc. Three of the future orators now appear before the entire student body each Wednesday. By these speeches they become used to appearing before large gatherings and their self-confidence is greatly increased.

Graduation and Decoration will soon be here. You may want a new suit. Have it made to order this time. Orres makes them cheaper than you can get them ready made.

Word has been received from R. R. Hutchinson, former athletic coach of the local high school, of the fact that he intends to join the aviation corps.

Wanted Immediately!
Firstclass Shoemaker
EASTERN SUPPLY COMPANY, Ashland, Oregon

Lloyd L. Multt, former local national bank cashier but now of Portland, has been visiting his many local friends during the past few days.

All old and new members of the Civic Improvement Club are requested to meet at the Country Store on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Cleaning, pressing, repairing and remodeling done at Orres' tailor shop.

The future brides-to-be are all going to buy their goods at the Country Store. Some of them have already spoken for gas stoves and garden tools.

Fifteen dollars will buy a full three-piece suit of clothes in sizes 32 to 46 inclusive. The patterns and styles are new and good. Mitchell & Whittle.

Conductor J. E. Thomas of 159 Second street has purchased a new Overland Cloverleaf model car. A. C. Nüniger has also purchased a new model Oakland car.

Have a fit at Orres'.

The regular meeting of the Men's Social Service League will be held Tuesday, April 24, in the Christian church at 7:30 p. m. The laymen are invited to discuss the question, "What's the matter with the churches of Ashland?" Come and bring your thoughts with you.

Mrs. C. B. Lamkin went to Roseburg last Tuesday evening to attend the presbytery of the Women's Missionary Society of the presbytery. While there she was elected to attend the biennial meeting of the North Pacific Missionary Board which meets in Ashland this week.

A large number of local people and people from down the lower valley cities visited the city park Sunday. Much work has been done in cleaning up the park of late, which, with the returning greenness of the surroundings, is daily giving the park its natural beauty. The new Chautauqua was the scene of much investigation, while the playgrounds and tennis court received a great deal of attention from the younger set.

Orres cleans clothes. Phone 64.

Sam Jordan has purchased one of the unique new little machines called Autoped. The machine is an enlarged skate which is propelled by a miniature motor, and as it is extremely light and speedy it is making a great hit among city business men who have a great deal of walking to do. The machine resembles a small low bicycle with the exception that the person riding it is forced to remain in a standing position. It is adapted for pavement use only.

Two very novel displays have been arranged in the windows of the Red Cross headquarters in the Elks building. One of the windows has been dressed up to represent an army scene with a tent, flag pole, stacked guns, etc., while the other is arranged to represent a hospital scene, with doll nurses administering to the wants of several injured heroes who are patched up and reclining on snowy white cots. Active classes will soon take place in the new headquarters when a supply of material arrives.

Mrs. James Fuller has bought through the W. D. Hodgson realty agency the Ellason residence at the corner of North Main and Laurel streets. It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Elmore will occupy the place. The lots are extensive in this locality, and the seller retains the one which lies between this purchase and the West school. The building has recently been occupied by Dr. Gordon McCracken, who will move soon to the Reader house at the corner of East Main and Fourth streets.

Cliff Payne makes bread boards.

Mrs. Levi Borden died at her home in Grants Pass last week. Mrs. Borden is mother-in-law to G. W. Benedict's oldest daughter, who lives in Bellingham, Wash.

Phone news items to the Tidings

SAMS VALLEY ITEMS:

First spring morning of the season April 18.

Everybody busy—too busy to furnish much news.

Mr. King of Medford and John Cameron of Table Rock were visiting in Sams Valley last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Caldwell of Marshfield is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilchrist.

Miss Mabel Cooper is employed at the Pelton ranch as cook.

The Wests have moved to the Bellevue ranch, close to Table Rock.

Mrs. S. B. Stoner was quite ill for a few days, but is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vincent, one of Oregon's well-known pioneer women, died Thursday, the 19th, at her home near Table Rock. She suffered a stroke of paralysis three years ago from which she never fully recovered. Last Saturday she became unconscious a hemorrhage of the brain finally causing death. She leaves an aged husband and three children to mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the Antioch cemetery Friday, April 20, at 2:30, Elder J. S. March of Central Point officiating.

Mr. S. B. Stoner was in Medford Thursday on a business trip.

Mr. George McDonough and family visited the Fisher home Friday afternoon.

A cheese factory will be started at Eugene on May 1.

NOTICE

Owing to the declining market for these goods we have been forced to reduce the prices as follows:

Newspaper 50c per 100 lbs
Magazines 50c per 100 lbs
Rubber Shoes 4c per lb
Rubber Tires 3c per lb
Rags 3-4c per lb
Green Hides 18c and up
Dry Hides 25c and up

Phone and we will call 79 Ashland Junk Dealers
135 Pioneer Ave., 2 Doors Below Ford Garage

Realize Upon These Exceptional Low Prices

You who do the buying for the home and personal needs will soon realize that the quality you get here for the prices now offered are indeed bargains—bargains that later can not be bought at any price. We therefore urge you to buy needed articles for use later and lay them away, for many weaves in woolens, cottons, hosiery and even shoes will be out of reach of many who now can have them at reasonable prices. Make out your list now and buy accordingly.

New Bon Ton
 Corsets in front Laces from $2.00 to $5.00 Pair. Ask to see our Athletic figure corset; it will please you decidedly

NEW PAISLEY SILKS from Skinner's best at yard ..... $2.50
NEW PAISLEY SILK POPLINS in the new shades, yard ..... $1.50
NEW AMERICAN SPORT DOT printed pongees at ..... 75c
NEW IMPORTED Cubic and large flowered dot silk pongees ..... $1.50
PLAIN SILK PONGEES 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 yard.
SOFT WOOL BATISTES for evening wear, in plain colors, yard-wide ..... 75c
BASKET and OVERSHOT WHITE SKIRT-INGS, yard ..... 50c
NEW FAST COLOR CRETONS in beautiful patterns; 36-inch ..... 50c

Ladies' $4.00 Oxfords, Slippers and Pumps . $2.50
Boys' Oxfords at 1-4 to 1-3 off.
Men's Oxfords, one lot at . . $1.25
One lot ladies' high shoes . . 1.98
Colored Cotton Corduroy, yard . .19
New Shantung Silks . . . $1.25
Boys' Two-Piece Porous Knit, each .19
25c and 35c Sateen Drapery Cloth .19
$2.00 Silk Corduroy in Stripes . 1.25
Yard wide percales, here at . .15
One lot fancy printed crepe, yd. 121-2c

Men's Underwear
 Men's Summer Underwear of fine Balbriggan and Porosknit in qualities that today are worth 65c. Special at, each ..... 43c
 Men's work shirts, the large, roomy shirt, each ..... 65c
 Men's good grade black and tan hose medium heavy grade for ..... 15c
 A good quality of ladies hose in black, a decided good value according to hosiery conditions ..... 18c

Realize On These Shoes and Oxfords Now
150 Pair Ladies Shoes
 In black, lace and button, white Suedes and canvas button—also tan lace shoes, regular height. Nearly all sizes formerly sold at $3.50 and $4.00 pair, special 2.50 a pair.....

Men's High and Low Shoes Going at 1/4 to 1/2 Off While They Last

100 Pair
 Of ladies' black and tan low shoes and slippers, formerly sold at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00, special to clean up 98c a pair

VAUPEL'S

The Store That Leads In Greater Values for the Money