

In the Social Realm

M. F. M. Society.
The Methodist Foreign Missionary Society will meet Friday at the home of Mrs. G. F. Billings.

Auxiliary.
Mesdames Sam McNair and W. E. Maxey and the Misses Emma Jenkins and Marian Huntley will be hostesses to the Auxiliary at the regular meeting in Auxiliary hall next Monday night.

Meet Wednesday.
The Baptist Women's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Vine, at 247 Oak street, Wednesday afternoon. Topic, "Baptist Missions in Burma." Mrs. Vine will lead.

Elks to Play Cards.
The Elks will have a party in their club rooms Saturday night for members and their ladies. Cards and billiards and refreshments are the entertainment.

Maccabees.
Mrs. Margaret E. Herrin, state deputy commander of the Maccabees, is in the city this week. Wednesday evening a class was initiated into the local circle and tonight a reception will be given for the new members.

Teacup Club.
The Teacup Club of the Methodist church will meet next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Chatterin, 316 Hargadine. Ladies assisting the hostess are Mesdames Cassius Miller, George Kramer, W. J. Dougherty, Misses Dougherty and Mathes.

Civic Club.
The Civic Improvement Club will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday at Auxiliary hall. A good program and light refreshments. All members, old and new, are urged to attend. Strangers always welcome.

Dinner at Mine.
A sumptuous chicken dinner was served at the Ashland mine on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Briggs were hosts, and among the score of guests were members of the E. D. Briggs, J. J. McNair, N. G. Bates and A. C. Nittinger families, also Mrs. Mary Whitney and daughter, Ruth.

Star.
Following the Eastern Star initiation Tuesday night, music, games and dancing engaged the attention until a late hour, when an appetizing repast was served by Mesdames Merrill, Charles Hargadine, George Kramer and B. R. Greer.

Epworth Elects.
The Epworth League of the Methodist church elected officers for the ensuing term last night as follows: President, E. O. Smith; vice-presidents, Charles McKimney, Jessie Thatcher, Mina Brower, Gertrude Barber and Anabel Van Natta; secretary, Jesse Clark; treasurer, Ada Hartley; organist, Bernice Yeo.

Women of Woodcraft.
Saturday evening, April 28, at I. O. O. F. hall, Acorn Circle, No. 54, elected delegates and alternates to the district convention which convenes at

RIDE A BICYCLE and Save Money

Whatever Your Work the Bike Helps Out. Ride a Bicycle

Thousands of men like yourself have thought a bicycle and would not be without it because it means so much to them. It is worth more than its price in making the working hours easier. But in addition to all this advantage, the wage earner who has a bicycle also provides himself with a means of daily pleasure, health-building exercise, contentment with his lot. He even has the advantage over the fellow with the automobile in many respects, for the call of the open road means more to the man with the bicycle than to the fellow with the "gasoline buggy."

Think it over. Come in and talk it over. Our bicycles are equipped with the new Superior Coaster Brake—the finest thing for all good wheels—the device that has so improved the bicycle as to bring it back into popularity by making it the safest vehicle on the public street. The Eastern Supply Company of Ashland are well equipped to repair bicycles. We keep all kinds of supplies as well as a good assortment of new and used bicycles, tires, etc.

Roseburg in June. Delegates: Mrs. Ann L. G. Myer, Mrs. Clara Loomis, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Ketchum and Mrs. Minnie B. Casebeer. Alternates: Mrs. Anna Parr, Mrs. Laura L. Abbott, Mrs. Edyth L. Phipps and Mrs. Ida A. Potter.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Annie L. G. Myer and Mrs. Edyth L. Phipps served an excellent two-course banquet in the hall, and the social hour concluded another pleasant evening within the Wood of Acorn Circle 54.

Many are expecting to hear the annual rollcall at the next regular meeting, that date being near the twentieth anniversary of the organization of the Circle.

Every Week.
The Every Week Club was delightfully entertained at bridge by Mrs. W. E. Newcombe, Thursday. Mrs. H. C. Galey made the highest score of the afternoon. Invited guests were Mesdames Fred Wagner, Stuart Saunders and Thomas Simpson. Mrs. Roy Walker will be the next hostess to the club, entertaining them at her Boulevard home on Wednesday of next week.

Miner-Provost.
Miss Angelina Provost, daughter of Pierre Provost of Ashland and a graduate nurse of a Portland hospital, where she has been for several years past, surprised her friends recently with the announcement of her marriage to Kenneth Miner, a well-to-do lumberman in business at Bridal Veil, Multnomah county. Father Conaty of the local Catholic church, who happened to be in Portland, was called upon to perform the ceremony, which took place on April 12.

Calantha.
The members of the Calantha Club enjoyed a "pot luck" feed at their regular meeting last Friday afternoon, each lady furnishing one feature of the tray lunch and keeping the nature of her offering secret until serving time. No regular hostesses had been appointed and the various tasks attendant upon serving the luncheon were apportioned by lot. Hostess partners for the new series of club meetings which will begin May 11 were selected by matching cards upon which the date of their entertainment was given in jingle. Mesdames O. Prescott and H. G. Boyd will start the new series by entertaining at the next meeting on May 11.

Hayrack Ride.
Mrs. J. V. Wright's Sunday school class of the Christian church enjoyed a hayrack ride to Kingsbury Springs last Friday night. If noise indicates enjoyment, they surely had a good time. One young fellow was heard to say, "Guess all the folks along the road thought all the inmates of the crazy house had been turned loose upon them." On arriving at Kingsbury Springs they built a bonfire and roasted marshmallows and wienies for midnight lunch.

The following members of the class and some visitors made up the crowd: Misses Nell Peachey, Lola Walker, Gertrude Clark, Grace Buck, Azalea Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weber and Miss Walsh; Messrs. Velton Haskins, Lee Peachey, Aubrey Redifer, Walter Hawley, Harry Morgan, Oscar Cooper, Le Holmes, Russell Miller, Calvin McClelland, James Porter and Dale Baughman.

May Ball.
The premier social event of the season, the annual May ball of the Auxiliary Club, will attract many scores of Ashlanders to the Natatorium tomorrow evening. Every detail of the affair has been cared for by competent committees and nothing but superlatives will do to describe the joyous time which is sure to await the dancers and spectators tomorrow evening. A pretty feature will be the crowning of the May queen, Miss Emma Jenkins having been honored by the selection for the queen of the evening. Flower girls, crown bearer and all the details of a complete coronation will be included, and after the queen is seated Miss Querita Brown, one of the most talented dancers in the valley, will entertain the queen and incidentally the spectators with a Grecian dance. Refreshments will be served from gaily decorated booths, Loveland's orchestra will furnish the music—but what's the use of telling you about it? You will be there.

Cupid Reigns.
The announcement of two engagements provided the inspiration for a happy social event at the home of Mrs. W. J. Douglass last Saturday evening. Hearts and kewpies in profusion gave advance notice to the guests of the pleasant surprise which awaited them in the engagement announcements, which were made by means of little envelope place cards containing "Miss Vernon Elizabeth Pyland and Willard Nugent" and "Minta Katherine Cherry and Eric Hjalmar Weron." A six-course dinner and an evening of conversation and music passed most pleasantly.

Miss Pyland has taught in the Ashland schools for the past two years, endearing herself to the children with whom she has worked. Mr. Nugent is now in California, but expects to soon visit Ashland. Miss Cherry is one of the best known and most popular daughters of Ashland. Both young ladies are favorite members of the Methodist choir and Epworth League. Mr. Weron operates the Dann ranch west of the city.

Those present were Misses Vernon Pyland, Minta Cherry, Gertrude Engle, Gertrude Barber, Irene Johnson, Jean Anderson, Evangelina Poley, Hazel Clarke, Irma James, Alice Thompson and Muriel Gibson; Mesdames W. J. Douglass, O. H. Barnhill, Manley Cherry and Peter Spencer.

Christian Endeavor Rally.
Miss Edna Whipple arrived from Eugene on Wednesday and conducted a splendid C. E. rally at the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon a conference was held, then at 6 o'clock a picnic supper was enjoyed in the upper park. Endeavorers from all the churches found this informal way very nice in getting acquainted with the state C. E. worker.

At 7:30 at the C. E. parlors of the Presbyterian church the service opened with singing "More About Jesus," accompanied by three violins and piano. "God Will Take Care of You" was then sung, followed by sentence prayers and "I Need Thee Every Hour." Miss Whipple was then introduced by Miss Gladys Carnahan, and her talk was on the subject of the deeper things of Christian Endeavor. She said what we all needed in our lives was purpose and that a ship would leave its track without purpose and a goal to work toward. The splendid talk was closed by a beautiful resurrection poem told in story form, followed by a solo. "This is My Task," by Priscilla Carnahan.

Miss Whipple conducts a rally at Klamath Falls on Sunday.

First Washington Statue by Houdon

IN Washington's diary for Oct. 3, 1783, he writes that about 11 o'clock after they were in bed, Mr. Houdon and his three young men assistants arrived, coming by boat from Alexandria.

"During the sculptor's two weeks' stay Washington sat for a bust that was modeled in clay, writing in his diary a full account of the method of mixing the plaster of paris and the making of the molds, a process in which he was greatly interested. He also submitted to the unpleasant operation of having a life mask made of his features in order to insure a perfect likeness. In the presence of Mr. Madison exact measurements of his figure were made and full details of his uniform were noted to enable the sculptor to complete his work.

"The clay bust was then left by the sculptor at Mount Vernon, where it is one of the most highly valued of all of Mount Vernon's relics of the Father of His Country. But the life mask and molds of the bust Houdon himself took to Paris, not trusting them to the hands of his assistant, for, said he, 'If they are lost in the ocean I am determined to perish with them.'

"One day during his stay at Mount Vernon Washington was looking at some fine horses with a view to their purchase, but the high price asked by the groom in charge so incensed him that the man was promptly sent away. Houdon, who witnessed the transaction, saw with an artist's eye in Washington's pose and expression the very thing needed for his statue and made memorandum of it. On Oct. 19 Washington writes: 'Mr. Houdon, having finished the business which brought him hither, went up Monday with his people, work and implements in my barge to Alexandria to take passage in the stage for Philadelphia next morning.'

"The statue, according to agreement, was to be finished in three years, but was not completed until 1789. Jefferson saw the work as it progressed and was enthusiastic over the likeness and characteristic attitude that the sculptor had caught."—H. A. Ogden in St. Nicholas.

"Father George" Not an Admiral.
A Barnegat schoolma'am had been telling her pupils something about George Washington, and finally she asked:

"Can any one now tell me which Washington—a great general or a great admiral?"

The small son of a fisherman raised his hand, and she signaled him to speak. "He was a great general," said the boy. "I saw a picture of him crossing the Delaware, and no great admiral would put out from shore standing up in a skiff."—American Boy.

We welcome you to our services.—H. John Vine, pastor.

Methodist Church.
North Main and Laurel streets. Strangers are warmly welcomed. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. Hours of worship, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Rev. E. H. Todd, D. D., president College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash., will speak. The Rev. R. E. Shaw, D. D., Indianola, Iowa, district superintendent, Boone district, Des Moines Conference, will speak at the evening service. Every Methodist is especially urged to be present at both services.

Nazarene Church.
Both Sunday sermons will be preached from the one text, "The just shall live by faith." Rom. 1:17. Morning subject, "The Power of God." Evening subject, "The Wrath of God." Good congregations at both services last Sabbath. Four prayed through to victory. Nearly fifty at the mid-week prayer meeting. Friday afternoon prayer meeting at the Culbertson residence on Bridge street at 2:30. We are not preaching politics nor the current issues of the day. We are not "holy rollers, fanatics nor extremists." We are preaching the "Word of God" and trying to be "Bible Christians." If you believe in the old book, why not take your stand for Christ? Come and help us push the battle for righteousness. The pastor will begin a series of Sunday morning sermons May 13 on "The Popular Sins of the Day." Everybody given the same cordial welcome.—Dorman D. Edwards, pastor.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends for the words of sympathy and acts of kindness following the death of our son and brother.—Mrs. A. M. Purvis and Family.
