Red Cross Activities

The Why and Which of Liberty Bonds

The receipts have arrived at Red Cross headquarters and have been sent to each member. Any member failing to receive his or her receipt please notify the secretary, Miss Winifred Watson, at once.

A telegram has been received from Joseph J. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, stating that the president has set by proclamation the week of June 18 to 25 as Red Cross week. The full plan for the national week's campaign will be outlined at a meeting to be held at Portland, Ore., today.

Emil Pell has donated two new White sewing machines to the Red Cross for use in the making of hospital supplies.

The international crisis has made it imperative that the Red Cross mobilize all its resources immediately, and so in every part of the country membership "drives" are rapidly increasing the membership to 1,000,000, the mark set for 1917.

The Red Cross Spirit Speaks. (By John Finley.)
 Wherever war, with its red woes,
 Or flood or fire or famine goes—
 There, too, go I;
 If earth in any quarter quakes
 Or pestilence its ravage makes,
 Thither I fly.
 I kneel behind the soldier's trench,
 I walk 'mid shambles' smear and stench.
 The dead I mourn;
 I bear the stretcher and I bend
 O'er Fritz and Pierre and Jack to mend
 What shells have torn.
 I go wherever men may dare,
 I go wherever woman's care
 And love can live,
 Wherever strength and skill can bring
 Surcease to human suffering,
 Or solace give.
 I am your pennies and your pounds,
 I am your bodies on their rounds
 Of pain afar;
 I am YOU, doing what you would,
 If you were only where you could—
 Your avatar.

Tables showing the amount of accrued interest payable on August 30 in case payment is made in installments, and the amount of accrued interest payable upon various dates in case payment is made in full prior to August 30 as herein permitted, will be prepared and furnished through the Treasury Department in Washington and the Federal Reserve banks.

Within the United States and its territories and insular possessions, bonds when prepared will be delivered so far as practicable in accordance with the written instructions of the holders of the interim certificates upon surrender to the Treasury Department in Washington, or the Federal Reserve bank which issued the certificate, of interim certificates full-paid or accompanied by payment of the final installment.

The expense of delivery will be borne by the United States. Delivery of definitive bonds to holders of full-paid interim certificates will commence as soon as practicable after June 28.

Further details may be announced by the secretary of the treasury from time to time, information as to which as well as forms for applications may be obtained from the Treasury Department and any sub-treasury or Federal Reserve bank.

Twenty Years For Degenerate

The jury in the case against John Ragsdale of Lake Creek, charged with criminal assault on his stepdaughter, Bessie Downing, brought in a verdict of guilty Saturday afternoon in the circuit court at Jacksonville.

The jury was out but a short time. Ragsdale was defended by Attorneys H. A. Cannaday and E. E. Kelly. District Attorney Roberts conducted the prosecution. The case has attracted much attention in the Lake Creek district. In the indictment it was alleged that Ragsdale's attentions to the young woman had covered a period of years since she was 11 years old.

Two civil actions against Ragsdale are pending in court as a result of this case. His wife is suing for a divorce and for division of the Ragsdale estate, and Fredericka Downing is suing to recover money.

The penalty for the crime of which Ragsdale is convicted is twenty years in the penitentiary, the matter being taken out of the hands of the presiding judge.
