

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

H. S. Sanford, Jr., came over from Yreka to register in the war census. J. A. Lemery left Monday for Dorris, Cal., where he has opened a law office.

Benjamin F. Bingham of Ashland has joined the marine corps and went to Portland Monday.

Marion Miller is here from Los Angeles to spend the summer with his father, J. V. Miller.

White Keds or tennis shoes for $1, $1.90 and $2.25 a pair, any size, at Mitchell & Whittle's.

Order your gooseberries now from G. M. Frost, the Oregonian man. 4-3t*

Mrs. L. B. Wickersham of Portland and Miss Bernice Umphlette of Glendale are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. B. Wimer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Callahan are the proud parents of a fine baby son who was born Tuesday, June 5. The boy has been named John Francis.

O. McIntosh, who lives near Grants Pass, passed through this city the first of the week, going to California on business connected with mining.

Miss Ora Patrick is home from Los Angeles for a visit. She holds a fine position as instructress for the children of a wealthy family of that city.

Erick Carlson, who has been connected with the Siskiyou Copper Company for a long time, came over from Hill Tuesday to attend to business matters.

Vining Theatre, Saturday Night, June 9th.

Misses Hazel Bruner and Hazel Dalzell, who have been teaching school the past year, are home for the summer.

Fred Engle and wife and his mother and Mrs. C. F. Shepherd drove to Wilbur, beyond Roseburg, Sunday and visited his uncle, G. W. Grubb, until Tuesday.

George Stannard, Jr., is thinning sugar beets down the valley and says it beats all how many dead beets there are in a field when he gets through with it.

Born to the wife of Rev. D. Edwards on Monday, a ten-pound boy. Mother and child doing nicely and Papa Edwards is looking quite proud of his preacher boy.

At the Methodist church Wednesday evening Mrs. Fred Engle gave a report of the state Sunday school convention recently held at Newberg, at which she was a delegate.

Attorney C. C. Page of Long Beach, Cal., formerly of Ashland, was here on business the past week. Years ago he and Hal McNair were in the government employ together at Juneau, Alaska.

C. E. Johnson, pastor of the First Brethren church, was ill last week and unable to hold services at the church Sunday, but is now on his feet again and will conduct the services next Sunday.

C. S. Smith, who has been working with the Boy Scouts at Pittsburg, Pa., for several years past, passed through Ashland Tuesday en route to California for a trip in the mountains during the summer months.

Mrs. J. H. Swagart, accompanied by her daughter Miss Muriel and son Hugh, took train 15 for southern California Monday evening in response to a telegram telling her of the critical illness of her aged father.

Miss Susanne Homes leaves Sunday for Corvallis, where she will take a course in domestic science and art at Oregon Agricultural College. Next fall she will have charge of this department in the Phoenix schools.

It will pay to lay aside your home tasks long enough to attend the White sewing machine demonstrations next to Piel's store this week. Fine embroidery, hemstitching and the short way to sewing success will be shown. 4-2t

For the June Bride

Cut Glass Hand-Painted China Sterling Silver Toilet Ware Parisian Ivory

All elegant pieces, 35c to $12 each

Poleys Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

Ladies' man-tailored sport shirt-waists in pink, blue and tan at $1.25, also white with fancy silk collar and pocket, at $2 each. Mitchell & Whittle.

Ladies should not miss the White sewing machine demonstrations next to Piel's store this week. Latest methods of short cut, time-saving sewing demonstrated. 4-2t

Albert, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Glendinning, has gone to Wisconsin to spend the summer with his grandparents. He has to change cars three times en route, quite a brave undertaking for so young a lad.

James Mattingly is contemplating a move to a lower altitude. He has been critically ill the past two weeks and doctors consider the move necessary. Mr. Mattingly is colonel of the Southern Oregon Veteran Association.

Amy Stannard and Evelyn Merrill, who have been attending the California state university at Berkeley, are home for their summer vacation. Miss Merrill expects in about two weeks to return to Berkeley for summer school.

Mrs. Owen McKendree and children of Berkeley, Cal., are visiting her mother, Mrs. L. D. Klum, on the Boulevard. They will spend the summer in eastern Oregon with Mr. McKendree, who has extensive sheep herds there.

W. D. Hodgson expects to start tomorrow evening for a ten days' trip to Calgary, Canada, with a party of land-seekers. Tuesday Mr. Thornton, the Portland representative of the Canadian Pacific railroad, was in Ashland on business.

Royal Cambers left last week for Odessa, where he is stationed as ranger in the forest service. He purchased a Ford runabout from Howard Barrett, who is a member of the 1st company, and figures he will not have much use for it after July 15.

Leslie Harr is employed as clerk in McNair's drug store.

Jim Potter has gone to Portland for an indefinite stay.

Ed Nolan and John Potter of Yreka are visiting in this city.

Mrs. Frank Mee left Sunday for Newport where she will visit her sister.

Mrs. Jack Lilly of Weed, was in Ashland last week to receive medical treatment.

J. V. Wright and family and J. A. Bish and wife were Grants Pass visitors Monday.

Real good grade of blue serge three-piece suits for men at $15, $20 and $22.50 at Mitchell & Whittle's.

Miss Priella Carnahan expects to teach this winter in the Pilot Rock district east of town.

W. A. Cooper went to Dead Indian the first of the week to inspect their camping place for the summer.

Miss Waive Jacobs of Klamath Falls is here for a visit of indefinite length with Mrs. H. G. Enders, Jr.

Extra good grade of the olive drab or khaki whipcord two-piece suits for men and young men at $5 a suit. Mitchell & Whittle.

Robert Peachey has finished his school work at Jacksonville and was in this city recently visiting his parents on Lincoln street.

Miss Margaret Hodgson is home from Oregon Agricultural college, and is clerking in McGee's store during the summer vacation.

Mrs. Frank Porter went to Dunsmuir Monday to visit her husband whose railroad work keeps him in California most of the time.

The familiar figures of the Martin brothers, Ed and John, are again in evidence here, they having returned from a month's stay in Portland.

Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Crews have arrived from Hood River where Mr. Crews held a position with the city schools the past year. Mr. Crews will attend summer school at Eugene, the family remaining here.

Harry Grubb, whose first enlistment in the Ashland National Guard company dates back ten years, re-enlisted Monday evening. Larkin Grubb received his discharge on account of having dependants.

Dorris Times—J. A. Lemery, the attorney of Dorris, went to Ashland last week to try a case in the courts of that county, and to pack his library and office, preparatory to returning to Dorris to stay permanently.

The Ashland Grand Army and Relief corps went to Talent on Sunday morning, where they participated in a memorial service with the veteran organizations of that city in the Methodist church, the address being delivered by Rev. M. C. Reed. The visitors went over in autos which had been kindly tendered them for the special occasion.

Why Not Give the Family the Assurance

That they will be cared for beyond all doubt in case you were taken, by having your life insured today? Isn't your ability to earn money worth insuring? That is by far your most valuable asset. A policy in the will enable you to protect that asset as you protect all other property. Nothing better in life insurance.

Mutual Life of New York

Billings Agency

Phone 211 41 East Main Street All Kinds of Good Insurance

Chester Haskins, with his wife and daughter, motored over from Merrill in a new auto recently, returning Monday, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. W. Haskins, and Miss Alta Morton. Miss Morton will visit her sister, Mrs. Luther Haskins, of Merrill.

Clem Summers, a graduate of the local high school class of 1916, and who has just completed a successful semester at the Oregon Agricultural College, returned home last week. He will spend a few weeks' visit at home prior to entering some department of military work.

Miss Jessie Hathaway leaves this week for Salem to take up rescue mission work for girls. Miss Hathaway is a trained nurse and has done a great deal of home missionary work in Ashland and also for the Salvation Army in San Francisco. She will be a power for good in her new field of labor.

Clyde C. Briggs, formerly of Ashland, has traded for a stock of stoves, hardware, furniture and household goods in Bend and is entering business there. He has been located on a homestead ranch near Fleetwood, in Lake county, for several years and retains possession of the ranch.

Earl Fraley returned home from Taft, California, Sunday, where he has been teaching in the high school, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley of Mountain avenue at present. Mr. Fraley intends teaching in California next year, having won many friends at Taft where his services are desired again.

Montague Messenger—H. B. Warren and family, and C. E. Sams and family, all of Ashland, spent Wednesday at Montague, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson. The entire party had a picnic dinner along Shasta river and in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Thompson accompanied them as far as Hornbrook on their way home—returning along the Pacific highway.

J. E. Gribble of the forest service with headquarters at Medford, was in Ashland Saturday on government business.

W. L. Mellinger passed through Ashland Monday en route to Grants Pass where he spoke Monday afternoon and evening. Mr. Mellinger stopped a few hours at his home in Ashland and was accompanied to Grants Pass by his family and some Ashland friends who enjoyed the day together with him.

Mrs. Fred Engle, Ashland delegate to the recent State Sunday School convention at Newburg, reports one of the most successful gatherings of the organization, with a comprehensive program, replete with live topics in every phase of activity in which the great Sunday school movement is identified.

Engineer Ed Wolters visited his family on Mountain avenue Monday. Mr. Wolters reports a rushing business among the railroad men at present.

Grant Neeley of Seventh street had one eye quite badly hurt recently while cutting wood.

Cliff Payne makes hammock racks.

The Grants Pass Boy Scouts will camp in Ashland during the celebration July 3, 4 and 5, Scoutmaster Ben Sheldon of that city having opened negotiations for a camping place for the boys. They will probably be established in the lower park. Athletic events, ball games, etc., will be arranged between the Pass scouts and the local scouts.

Henry Enders is planning to move into the Roy Walker house on the Boulevard.

A. B. Cornell of Grants Pass was a visitor in the city today.

WANTED!

I desire to take in a partner in the Ashland-Rogue River Round-up moving pictures. If interested, address or call at Central Point, or leave your name at my Ashland office, phone 54, and I will call at my earliest convenience.

FRANK H. HULL, The Movie Man.

No Better Values Anywhere-Our

Increased sales show that the people in Ashland and surrounding towns are realizing from day to day that this store offers values that mean decided savings. Quality is not sacrificed—but prices are.

UNDERWEAR SPECIALS

- Ladies' Athena Union Suits of finest yarns, in any style; none better, at 1.00
- Fine Gauze Union Suits for ladies 35c-50c-60c
- Men's 50c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, at, each 43c
(Price today would be 65c)
- Boys' Poros and Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, now 15c
(Price today would be 35c)

- Beautiful quality Dress Satins just received, in all colors, 36 inches wide; while they last, yard $2.00
- See our window for the fashionable and popular Skirtings and Coating, priced at yard $2.75
- Customers concede that our 36-inch Pine Tree Tafetas, in all shades, are the best offered anywhere, at $1.50
- Georgette Crepe, in all shades, priced everywhere at $2.00 yard, special here at yard $1.69
- Men's Fine Cambric Night Shirts "Monarch" Shirt brand, here at each $1.25
- The new Sport Colored Handbags of fine silk poplin, here at, each $1.25

Low Shoes of Quality

That cannot be duplicated now for less than $6.00 to $8.00 can be bought for ladies in nearly all styles and sizes in Sorosis make and workmanship at, 2.50 pair

Ladies' $3.00 and $3.50 Utz & Dunn low Oxfords and Slippers at pair 2.00

One table of Ladies' Oxfords, sizes now up to 5, values up to $3.50, pair 98c

Men's $6.00 Oxfords now $3.00. Men's $5.00 Oxfords now $2.50. Men's $4.00 Oxfords now $2.00

Boys' Oxfords in finest qualities of leather, sizes 9 to 5; were up to $3.25, now 1.85

All Children's Leather Oxfords at Cost

$1.00 Slippers 75c, $1.25 Slippers 90c, $1.50 Slippers now $1.10, $1.85 Slippers now $1.25, $2.25 Slippers now $1.50 and $1.60—all sizes.

- Ladies' 50c Colored Silk Gloves, now pair 39c
- Ladies' 75c Colored and long Silk Gloves, pair 59c
- Ladies' $1.00 Colored and long Silk Gloves, pair 79c
- Holeproof black and white Silk Gloves, pair 75c

Boys' Waists 25c kind now 15c

Buy a Liberty Bond

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Can be purchased in better workmanship and material here than it is now possible to buy within double the former price, and for special inducement we offer a special discount of 25 per cent off former prices.

Boys' and Men's Knit Underwear at Special Saving Prices Here

- All 50c two-piece Shirts and Drawers in Poros-knit and Balbriggan weave, each 43c
- Men's fine Balbriggan Union Suits in white or ecru, in short or long sleeve—Coopers & Chalmers knit, here at suit 1.00
- Boys' separate Shirts and Drawers in Balbriggan or Porosknit weaves; 25c quality 15c
- Boys' Porosknit Unions, genuine 43c
- Boys' Porosknit Unions, imitations 25c
- Men's 50c colored Silk Hose, special for 35c

Ladies' Hose now selling everywhere at 35c, can be had here at pair 30c

VAUPEL'S
The Store That Leads in Quality and Largest Selection

VAUPEL'S
Leaders in Lowest Prices and Best Qualities