A party of tourists who were being shown over the American Film Company's plant at Santa Barbara asked if they could see the noted young star, Mary Miles Minter. They were told to watch. There was no possibility of mistaking the golden-haired, blue-eyed favorite for any other. Later one excited young person of the party proclaimed that she had really seen Miss Minter. One of the guides, however, insisted that that was impossible, as the star was out on a location. When asked for a specific description, the young person gave it. even to the details of a distinctive frock. She also added: "She is really much older than I imagined. She must be at least 25." The amused guide then said, "You have seen and ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.
