Park Scenery On Big New Curtain

H. J. Hansen of St. Paul, scenery artist who has the contract for the scenery and curtain for the new Chautauqua building, is making fine progress on the curtain. The picture selected for the curtain is the view of Lithia park with Mount Ashland in the distance, taken from the Peruzzi-Butler fountain. The great curtain, sixty feet in width, will allow of a wonderful scope for Mr. Hansen's ability, and already the work has progressed far enough so that a good conception may be gained of the beautiful reproduction of the park scene.

Leith Abbott, first assistant cub reporter on the Ashland Tidings, left Tuesday on an extended tour of the northwest, during which he will investigate the quality of doughnuts and coffee in Spokane, Portland, Sheridan, Eugene and many other points north of Talent. He is riding on the inside of some of the Southern Pacific's best passenger trains. Ashland and the surrounding country will have to get along without him for the next six days, three hours and forty-five minutes (longer, if train 15 is late next Wednesday). A large crowd of friends, consisting of Diffe Gill, saw him off.

Guard's Assailant Undoubtedly "Nuts"

All doubts of the irresponsibility and insanity of Charles McClellan, the tramp who was recently adjudged insane in court at Grants Pass following his arrest in this county by Sheriff Jennings for pushing Private Adam Garran of Company I from the railroad bridge over Graves creek, were removed when he signed the following affidavit in the Josephine county jail:

"State of Oregon, County of Josephine, ss.
"I, Charles McClellan, being first duly sworn, upon oath say: That I am 87 years old and was born in Grants Pass, Oregon, on the 4th day of July, 1912. That I am a Christmas tree decorator by trade and at the present time am looking for employment. That I pushed a Chinaman off the Gilbert creek bridge in the spring of 1773, but am informed and believe that said Chinaman jumped back before he struck the bottom of the gulch and escaped permanent injury. Further than this, deponent knoweth not.

(Signed) CHAS McCLELLAN.
"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of June, A. D. 1917. (Seal) "E. L. COBURN, "County Clerk."

Over Half in County Claim Exemption

The recent draft registration in Jackson county shows that 730 of the men who registered claim exemption on account of dependent relatives. It is noticeable also that it was the older men who claimed exemption from this cause, as there were 107 men 30 years old, 101 men 29 years old, and on down to 21 years, where there were 27 men who declared they had dependent relatives.

There was a total of 86 men who claimed exemption on account of their occupations. There were 15 men who signed as 22 years of age who claimed exemption from this cause.

Five hundred and eight men registered with no claims for exemption. The highest number, according to age, was 76 men at 21 years who offered no reason for exemption.

There was but one colored man to register. He was 22 years of age and offered no cause for exemption.

There was also but one legislative, judicial or executive officer who registered.

A total of 27 aliens and four alien enemies were among the drafted men of the county.
