FOR RENT

"FURNISHED HOUSE FOR RENT WITH USE OF PIANO"—I wanted a furnished house of six rooms. I could not use five and I did not want eight. Six rooms was what I wanted, and here was an ad in the newspaper: "Furnished house for rent with use of piano." But how many rooms? If this house was six rooms, then the advertisement lost half of its efficiency because it did not read "Six-room furnished house for rent with use of piano." Was the house modern? The ad did not tell it. If so, why did not the ad read "Six-room modern furnished house for rent with use of piano"? It would have been just as easy. Then was the house just furnished, or "well furnished"? If so, then why not this ad: "Well-furnished six-room modern house with use of piano"? I did not have an automobile and wanted close in. This ad did not tell me that, so instead of answering it I waited till I came to town. A real estate agent got hold of me and rented me another house. Later I discovered the one advertised would have suited me better. It was a "well-furnished, six-room, modern house, close in, with use of piano." Why didn't the ad say so and get the tenant?

Notice to Mothers.

We read the other day that elephant's milk is a wonderful food for babies. The article said that one baby in New York gained twenty pounds in one week on elephant's milk. We did not read far enough into the article to see how the milk was secured, for half way through the story we found out that it was a baby elephant which was making such rapid progress.

Dige Gill says he always thought that marriage was a lottery until the present styles of women's clothing came into vogue.

Johnny Finneran says that the coming school session makes his memory drift over the days when he was attending old Ashland high school and some yap would ask him where he was going and he would answer, "To the sociology class," and said yap would say, "Well, pleasant dreams."

A new bookkeeper has been secured by the office to keep the city editor company, or send out bills, or to answer the telephone, or to sharpen pencils, or to chew gum, or to write letters or something. She's a good sort, all right, but the other day we found her with a pair of scales and a bunch of ledgers, and when asked what she was doing she said she was trying to make the books balance.

Jean Hastings says that barbers are not always poor—he has seen the day when he rode in a carriage. He didn't say who pushed it—his mother or his father.

NUTINGS

By Leith Abbott.

An old friend

Slipped up behind me

The other day

And, giving me a slam

Upon the back,

He exclaimed,

"Well, old fellow,

I see you're back

From the front."

Of course

I was glad

To see him,

But somehow

I was disappointed,

Because

I didn't think

Army diet

Had made me

So thin that he could see

My back from the front.

Don't Put Off

Don't wait for the burning of the neighbor's property to forcibly remind you to prepare yourself. Proximity, unless the fire is so close as to actually affect you, has nothing to do with sequence. Today's destructive fire may be thousands of miles from you; you may not even read about it. Tonight's fire may be visited upon you.

Insure Now. A few dollars invested today may save you $1000 tonight.
