

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. A. B. Heinsbergen, better known in Ashland as Miss Dorothy Lennart, died last week in Seattle at the age of 21 years. Mrs. Heinsbergen was the daughter of Mrs. Abbie Lennart, now of Seattle, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Robert Good-year of this city.

Charles L. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Porter of Eighth street, is spending a ten days' furlough with his parents in Ashland. He is a member of the Coast Artillery stationed at Fort Stevens.

Stevenson Studio for portraits. Mrs. F. S. Hazleton, who has been a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clark Bush, since last June, left Wednesday for her home in Norton, Kan.

Charlotte Chappelle, formerly of Ashland, returned Friday evening from Milwaukee, Wis., for a few days' visit, and left Wednesday evening for San Francisco to enter St. Luke's hospital as a nurse.

Wanted—Number of young women and men to prepare for telegraph service to help fill vacancies caused by unusual drafting men for war. Positions guaranteed. Call or write Telegraph Department, room 506, Panama Building, Portland, Ore., or Railway Telegraph Institute, Spokane, Wash. 75-2mo.

Mrs. John Budgeon and daughter Ruth of Talent spent yesterday with Mrs. George Robinson on Laurel street.

Mrs. W. W. Caldwell returned last night from Los Angeles, and says the valley looks good to her, coming from a section where no rain has fallen for months into this beautiful green aspect.

Sixty years old with more life insurance in force in Oregon than any other company. Northwestern Mutual Life of Milwaukee, Wis. H. C. Galey, agent, phone 431-J. 67-4f

Pastor Ferris of the Baptist church of this city, with a delegation of laymen, is called to meet in council with state officials and missionary representatives of the denomination at large in conference at Grants Pass Friday evening, February 22.

FREE!

This week only. One 20-cent can of KYANIZE VARNISH with one 10-cent Paint Brush. MADE FOR FLOORS. Is suitable for all work around the house.

Provost Brothers

The following members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will leave today for Eugene to attend the convention in session there: Misses Alda Herr, Dorothy Carnahan and Edith Herrin.

E. H. Bush went to Portland Monday night, where he will remain for a few days looking after interests there.

Stevenson Studio for portraits. Mrs. May Austin, who has been spending the winter in Medford, was an Ashland business visitor Wednesday.

A pro-re-nata meeting of the Southern Oregon presbytery will be held in the First Presbyterian church at Medford Monday forenoon, beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. J. H. Turner, in company with Mrs. C. F. Young of Medford, left last evening for Bremerton, Wash., to visit their sister, Mrs. Helen Minkler, who is chief yeoman in the United States navy there. They expect to remain in Bremerton about two weeks.

J. S. MacMurray, teacher of singing. Address Hotel Austin. 45-4f

J. M. Wagner, who has been spending the past two weeks with his son, Robert Wagner, now stationed at Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, returned home Tuesday evening.

Dr. William P. Chisholm of Gold Hill has received a commission as first lieutenant in the medical corps of the army, and expects to be called soon.

For plumbing or general repair work call George Carey, 462 Allison street. Phone 314-J. 65-1mo.

W. W. Caldwell, who purchased the Erickson place on Oak street below the railroad two weeks ago, has sold the property to Mrs. L. Van Deusen of Phoenix, who will make her home there shortly.

Mrs. N. Ragon left Tuesday evening for Springfield, Ore., where she will remain several days visiting with friends.

C. Vroman of Gold Hill was granted a judgment of $30, the estimated value of a young mule involved in a land deal with W. J. Crosslin, Monday, in a case heard before Justice of the Peace W. H. Gowdy. The jury sustained Crosslin regarding hay that figured in the deal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Shaw stopped off in Ashland during the week to visit their grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Teters, while on their way home to Portland from an extended visit in Klamath Falls, where they were guests of Mrs. J. V. Volmer.

Cliff Payne makes ironing boards.

Mrs. W. H. Mowat, who has been in San Francisco for the past two weeks, returned home Tuesday night. Mrs. Mowat visited her son, L. D. Mowat, at Fort Winfield Scott, while she was away.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCune Tuesday at their home on Walker avenue.

There will be a Knitters' Cozy Corner in front of the open fire in Elks hall at the Red Cross ball. If you'd rather knit than dance, you are all fixed.

The Medford Sun states that D. R. Connor of Ashland was fined $5 in Justice Taylor's court Monday on a charge of driving an automobile without a new 1918 license.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wheeler, who have taught in the Wagner schools for the past five years, have resigned their positions to take effect at the termination of their present contracts, June 1, 1918.

If you can't come yourself to the Washington's Birthday Red Cross ball and eard party, send your dollar, anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Stilson of Colfax, Wash., spent last Friday in Ashland, where they were guests of the family of the late Freeman Bunnell.

Mrs. Jack Billings of Red Bluff, Cal., is visiting friends in Ashland. Mrs. Billings was formerly Miss Frances Hussey, and is a recent bride.

For Sale—Household furniture, consisting of new kitchen range, bedding, chairs, tables, dishes, etc. A bargain. Call 60 Granite street. 79-1

Vivian Johnston, a little fourth grade pupil in the Medford schools, is entitled to a membership in the Rainbow regiment of Oregon, having sold $50 worth of thrift stamps.

Miss Hazel Smith has accepted a position as bookkeeper in the Ashland Transfer & Storage Company on Oak street.

Cream of barley is more nutritious than wheat products. Try it once and you will be a steady user of it. You can get it at 25c a package at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

Walter M. Thorn, buyer for the books and stationery department of the Bon Marche, of Seattle, paid a short visit to his mother, Mrs. O. H. Johnson, during the past week. Mr. Thorn was returning from an eastern trip with a party of thirty buyers from his establishment.

William Yeo of Mountain avenue is home again after several months spent as night watchman at the Talent cannery.

Spring is coming. If your system needs cleaning out and regulating, eat Roman meal and Uncle Sam's breakfast food or hygienic crackers. All health foods and wheat substitutes of a large assortment can be had at the Ashland Trading Co.

Dr. Boslough is quite ill at his home on Terrace street.

Mrs. J. K. McClaren has been quite ill, but is slowly improving.

Miss Ella Bunnell wishes to thank the friend who so kindly sent her "The Family Album," so quaint and cheery. She also wishes the return of the book, "Fairest Girlhood," borrowed some months ago, most highly

HAVE YOU TRIED

NYAL'S LIVER Stimulator

To Shake Up Your Liver?

FOR SALE AT

POLEY'S DRUG STORE

POLEY & ELHART, Druggists

prized by her, it being a personal gift from the author, Margaret E. Sangster, Sr.

To cure a cold and keep from taking cold use extracted honey, onions and pineapple. You can get extra nice extracted honey in bulk, also the onions and canned ripe pineapple, at Ashland Trading Co.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gall of Bellevue were guests at the L. O. Van Wegen home on Sunday, as were also Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kingery and little daughter, Elva, of Hillcrest orchard and Miss Grace Raypholtz of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Jack Dunn, accompanied by her father, D. L. Greenman, went to Dunsuir Monday evening to spend several days with friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cummings, who have been spending several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.

L. Rogers of Ashland, left Monday for their home near Fresno, Cal. They had stopped off here on their way home from an extended trip through the northern part of the state.

Mrs. A. T. McMahan of Talent was a guest of friends in this city Tuesday.

You can save 20c on every $1 purchase of coffee. We keep the best grade of coffee in bulk blend and grind it fresh when you get it. Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

Mrs. W. B. Hembroff and children, who have been spending several weeks in Ashland visiting with friends, left Monday evening for their home in Winnipeg, Canada.

Mrs. Fannie Blalock, a former well-known resident of Ashland, was in the city from Dunsuir during the week.

Keep Pershing's boys from becoming perishing boys. Support the Red Cross by attending its big Benefit Ball Washington's Birthday in Elks hall.

Bruce Lininger has gone to Portland to take a two months' course at the American Can Company's machine shop. While there he will become familiar with the various machines connected with the canning industry.

Expend a dollar and spent a pleasant and patriotic Washington's Birthday at the Red Cross Benefit Ball in Elks hall.

John O. Rigg, who has been employed as boiler inspector at Dunsuir, has resigned his position there and returned to his home in Ashland.

Attorney Nellie Dickey was in Grants Pass last Friday, where she represented the plaintiff in the divorce case of Gertrude Birum vs. Charles Birum. The case was heard before Judge Calkins, who has not handed down his decision.

Mrs. H. E. Huls returned Monday evening from Hurley, N. M., where she went to visit with her brother,

M. T. Stewart, who has lately returned from France. While in the latter country Mr. Stewart served a six months' term in the American Ambulance Corps, and on the expiration of the term he returned home to enlist in the American army.

J. H. McGeo is in San Francisco, where he is laying in his spring stock of goods for his Ashland dry goods store.

Hugh Swaggart was a Medford visitor Sunday.

A. S. Moyer, who formerly lived in Ashland but whose family now resides in Ealkhart, Ind., has recently enlisted in the government service as a ship carpenter.

Robert Haney, who resides with his son, C. B. Haney, near Talent, has been indisposed lately.

W. L. Mellinger left Ashland Monday morning to attend a ministerial missionary conference at Portland this week.

Frank S. Glover, an insurance man from Portland, was doing business in Ashland last week. Mr. Glover had recently been in California and reports things very dry down that way in places and farmers wishing for rain.

Come and dance

For "our boys" in France. (At the Red Cross Benefit Ball on Washington's Birthday in Elks hall.)

Obituary.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter White of Denver, Colo., died at the residence of her brother, E. A. Hunter, 366 B street, about midnight February 18. Mrs. White was a member of one of the oldest pioneer families in Oregon, being a direct descendant of Gen. Joseph Meek and a daughter of Col. George Hunter, who took an active part in every Indian outbreak in California, Oregon and Washington from the year 1851 to 1877, and was one of the survivors of 21 scouts who took part in the fight at Table Rock when seven were wounded, seven killed, one escaped to Jacksonville for relief, the remaining six fighting the Indians for six hours until relief came.

Mrs. White leaves her husband and little son, Leland Hunter White, one brother, Hubert Hunter, and one sister, Mrs. J. Hartley Criddle of Stoughton, Wis.; two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Donnelly, Mrs. Bertha Hunter of Denver, and brother, E. A. Hunter of Ashland. Mr. White arrived in Ashland from Oakland Thursday evening, also V. E. Hunter, a nephew of the deceased, and his wife from Weed, Cal. Mrs. White was an artist of considerable talent, having in the days of Binger Herman fame painted his portrait, which was considered a fine piece of work. In the senate chamber of Washington, D. C., hang two portraits which were painted by Mrs. White. She will be laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Acting upon telegraphic instructions from the prison authorities at Walla Walla, Wash., Chief of Police Hittson Sunday placed W. Wilcox, alias W. Storey, under arrest on a charge of being a slacker. The prisoner was on parole from the Washington state penitentiary, where he had been placed after conviction as a check forger. When arrested Sunday he said he did not think it was necessary for him to register under the draft law so long as he was in the custody of the Washington authorities, and was wandering the streets of Medford looking for work. He said Chief of Police Hittson will turn the man over to the federal authorities for investigation.—Medford Sun.

Subscription Bargain.

For a short time the Ashland Tidings and Better Fruit one full year for $250.

Quality Merchandise

Vaupel's

Economically Priced

Gent's Furnishing Dept.

Let us prove to you that we can sell, and are selling every day, Furnishing Goods, of the highest standard at less than others.

Buckskin Mittens

Genuine Mittens, regular $2.25

Now $1.75 Pair

Genuine Horse Hide Gloves

Steam and oil proof at regular $1.75

Now $1.50

Pig Skin (Horse Hide)

Regular $2.00, now $1.75

Outwear two pairs of any ordinary $1.50 gloves.

Special $1.75 Pair

Other Gloves in all leather, $1.00 to $1.25 pair.

Overalls for Men

The guaranteed line, Black Bear and Boss of the Road

1.65, 1.75 and 2.00 Pair

No better grade made at anywhere near the price.

Shirts

Men's Work Shirts in all colors and patterns.

65c and 1.25 each

Suspenders

President, Crown and Kody Suspenders

50c to 65c Pair

Dry Goods and Notions

Our new showing of all wool Dress Fabrics we bought to build up our Dress Goods Dept. and we have priced them to assure satisfaction.

Underwear

We are selling this same wonderful line of Athena Underwear at the same old prices, but when this is gone they will be much higher. This is your chance to supply yourself for this coming winter at from $1.00 to $2.00 suit cheaper than you can buy the same this fall.

Petticoats

A nice showing of these Petticoats just arrived and priced at

1.25 to 7.00 each

Ladies' Shoes

Of the better kind. The most beautiful of all the new shoes of the season, in Havana Brown, Champagne, Black, Pearl, Field Mouse, Steel, Chocolate, Pongee color, and big variety of combination colors, and at exceptionally low prices. Come in, we can fit you to any of the above shoes.

VAUPEL'S

The Quality Shop

Mail Order Specialists

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Stop the Waste

Whether it's a little waste in big things or a big waste in little things, it should be eliminated. Thrifty persons succeed because they economize and conserve their income. Start an account with The Citizens Bank of Ashland.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS