

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A. Bert Freeman of the clerical force of the Ashland postoffice expects to leave Saturday morning for Bremerton, Wash., to take the examination prior to entering the navy. He will apply for a position in a naval band.

Chester Stevenson has sold his studio to C. C. Darling of Oakland and expects to take up aerial photographic work in the army soon. Mr. and Mrs. Darling are experienced photographers.

Insure with Northwestern Mutual Life of Milwaukee H. C. Galey, agent. 84-1f

GARDEN TOOLS

Time is here to begin that garden. Everybody ought to have a garden this year. Tools will be hard to get later, and they are getting higher every day. We have a number of splendid Garden Hand Cultivators, combining the Plow, Weeder, Rake, Cultivator. Just the thing. Let us show you.

Provost Brothers
HARDWARE

Ex-Postmaster J. R. Casey was operated on at a local hospital this week for cataract, which was removed from one eye. From last accounts Mr. Casey is getting along nicely and the operation promises to be satisfactory.

Rev. C. A. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist church, made a trip to Rogue River yesterday to spend the day with friends. This is Mr. Edwards' first visit down the valley.

J. S. MacMurray, teacher of singing. Address Hotel Austin. 45-1f

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Welborn Beeson at their home near Talent Wednesday.

Wanted—Number of young women and men to prepare for telegraph service to help fill vacancies caused by unusual drafting men for war. Positions guaranteed. Call or write Telegraph Department, room 506, Panama Building, Portland, Ore., or Railway Telegraph Institute, Spokane, Wash. 75-2mo.

The committee in charge of the Belgian relief had no difficulty in securing the ton of used garments asked for as Ashland's allotment. These were packed and sent away during the fore part of the week.

Mrs. John Mills of the Pacific Highway was an Ashland visitor Wednesday.

We remodel, repair, clean and press your garments the way it should be done at Orres' tailor shop. Any one can buy all kinds of plants, flower and vegetable, flower bulbs, a good line of millinery, apples, potatoes, dried fruit, canned fruit, all kinds of clothing, furniture, etc., at the Rummage Sale. 90-2

Royal Society crochet cotton at 9c and 10c per ball, and spool silk 9c, at Ashland Trading Co.

The park association has turned over a quantity of dahlias and gladiolus bulbs as well as other plants to the rummage sale for disposal. These are at the old Beebe & Kinney store rooms.

Trinity Guild will entertain with a card party at the parish house Friday evening, April 5. Admission 25 cents. 90-2f

A heavy frost prevailed in this section Wednesday morning, which it is feared caught the early peach and cherry blossoms. The thermometer registered 22, and reports from the Medford district indicate that considerable damage was done. The fruit trees around Ashland are not so far advanced in bloom as farther down the valley, and it is hoped they have escaped extensive damage.

At the regular meeting of the Ashland Home Guards Tuesday night P. L. Spencer of Talent was appointed to the first lieutenant to take the place of A. Bert Freeman, who has enlisted this week in the navy. A large company was in attendance and an interesting drill was held.

Hats cleaned and reblocked at Orres' tailor shop.

Carroll Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner, enlisted in the specialist school at Fort Winfield Scott about two weeks ago.

Word has been received from Professor and Mrs. Gilmore, who are spending several months in San Diego, Cal., that Mr. and Mrs. Irving Finley, who have been in Los Angeles for some time, are expected in San Diego in time to take part in the celebration of Professor Gilmore's 79th birthday, April 6.

Orres cleans clothes. Phone 64.

E. F. Smith is making a tour of the northern part of the state, where he will establish agencies for the Monkey Grip tire repair outfits in the various towns in that section. He expects to be gone two or three weeks.

The best is none too good. Oregon wool is the best, and Orres' workmanship speaks for itself. We make your suit right here in Ashland from Oregon wool at Orres' tailor shop. Expert tailor in charge.

Mrs. Herman Anderson of Marshfield, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Farlow, is an inmate of a local hospital, undergoing treatment. She has been in poor health for some time.

The price of crackers has advanced to double the old price in packages, so bulk crackers are the cheapest to buy now. Bulk crackers have also taken a jump, but you can yet buy at the same price if you go to Ashland Trading Co.

Thomas M. Day, who is serving in the navy, is in Ashland from Mare Island this week, spending a furlough with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. DeWitt of Hornbrook will move in a short time to Ashland, where the former is employed in the passenger service.

The best quality is the cheapest, especially when buying goods in packages like canned goods that you can not examine. When you get Emsons' canned peas and string beans, Red Ribbon and Meeco brand corn, or the Rogue River Valley Canning Co.'s tomatoes you are assured you are getting the best obtainable, and if not satisfied your money cheerfully refunded at Ashland Trading Co.

Mrs. John Daly of Stillwater, Minn., was a guest this week of Mrs. R. Rouse.

John S. Snook of Klamath county was a guest of his brother, I. N. Snook, in Ashland this week while on his way home from Portland, where he has been spending the winter.

Hooverize on tin pails and cans. Get Golden corn syrup in bulk and better coffee in bulk at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

R. H. Sowers of Medford, proprietor of the Interurban Truck Company, has moved with his wife to Ashland and will reside here for the present. Mrs. Sowers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Storey of Alida street.

We have some heavy pitch pine anchor posts for sale. Carson-Fowler Lumber Co. 90-3

Mrs. Margaret E. Herrin of Portland is making an extended visit in Ashland at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kate Howell.

L. A. Moss and family, who have been spending the winter in Ashland, will return to their home in Paisley, Lake county, today.

Just arrived, another barrel of the famous Golden corn syrup. Save the price of the tin pail and get one filled at Ashland Trading Co.

Mrs. M. F. Wright of Seattle and Mrs. F. B. Burrell of New York left Ashland Sunday after spending the winter at the home of their mother, Mrs. E. K. Anderson. Mrs. Burrell will be joined at Long Beach by her husband, who is a mining engineer in Alaska.

H. C. Hoxie of the S. P. round-house force has returned to work after a three weeks' absence, during which he underwent a minor operation.

Home-canned fruit, jam and jellies at Ashland Trading Co.

The best sugar factory at Grants Pass is being dismantled and shipped to North Yakima, Wash. About 100 carloads have already been shipped, and it is expected that it

Your Eggs

at 35c a dozen next winter, provided you buy

Poley's Egg Keep

and preserve them at present prices.

Buy your Egg Keep now at

Poley's Drug Store
Poley & Elhart, Druggists

will take sixty days more before the work is completed.

Plant Peerless Everbearing strawberry. Have fine berries this summer. Plants 35c dozen, $2 per 100. J. L. Harner, 303 Oak street. 91-3*

Leith Abbott, John Finneran and Harley Holmes, students from the University of Oregon, who have been spending their Easter vacation in Ashland, returned to Eugene Sunday.

Klamath choice White Pearl seed potatoes at the Shasta grocery, 2 1/4 c per pound. 91-4

Ralph Fraley of the 13th company, O. C. A., who had been in an army hospital in San Francisco, where he was sent several weeks ago for corrective surgical treatment, spent Wednesday night and Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley, before returning to Fort Stevens.

Mrs. C. H. Brown and daughter Querita left yesterday for Klamath Falls, where they will make their home. Clyde Brown, son of the former, is a passenger fireman on the Klamath Falls-Weed branch running into that city.

Mrs. Mary Netherland is a surgical patient at a local hospital. She is a resident of Ashland and makes her home with her brother, C. I. J. Porter.

Tom McInerney of Weed was an Ashland visitor the fore part of the week.

Louis Pederson and Ora Delbert motored over from Yreka Sunday and spent the day. They were accompanied back to Yreka with Mrs. Delbert and baby.

Second Lieutenant William Allen, who has been visiting his mother in Ashland for the past two weeks, left Monday night for San Francisco, where he will embark for Manila. P. I. Lieutenant Allen was joined here a few days before his departure by his wife, who had been delayed in Portland with an attack of measles contracted while visiting there. The marriage of Lieutenant Allen and Miss Mildred Silcott took place in Washington, D. C., March 12, after which the young people started on their long journey to the Pacific coast, thence to the Philippine Islands.

Pay first half taxes tomorrow (5th) at Billings' office and save costs. 91-1

The rummage sale under the auspices of the Sunshine Club is attracting much attention this week. Quantities of articles have been donated for this worthy cause and the sales have been active. It will continue until Saturday night.

Chf Payne makes chicken coops.

The family of Will Hosley left Tuesday for Beaverton, Ore., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. W. S. Eastman and son Robert were guests over Easter with relatives in Mayten, Cal.

Mrs. James M. Morgan of Edgewood, Cal., has been an Ashland visitor for the past week.

Mrs. C. W. Chattin is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ambrose, of Missoula, Mont. They arrived in Ashland this week from Los Angeles, where they had been spending the winter, and will visit here for some time. On leaving Los Angeles Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose drove as far as Redding, when they found the roads too bad and were compelled to leave their car.

J. Haines, who was drafted into the United States service from Siskiyou county, passed through Ashland Tuesday evening, en route to some camp north.

J. G. Anderson, who has been spending the winter in Ashland, left last night for Long Beach, Cal., where he will join his wife and daughter. The latter went to the California resort several months ago on account of the daughter's health. As soon as she has recovered Mr. and Mrs. Anderson expect to return to Ashland. Mr. Anderson has been prominent in musical circles in Ashland and has many friends who will be glad of his return.

Mrs. A. W. Gray of Morley, Cal., spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. C. O. Cotton in Ashland.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father, and also for the beautiful flowers.

MRS. ALLIE CONWELL AND CHILDREN.

Shoes Specials
Ladies' Kid Shoes, 5-inch Cloth Top, Button, worth $6.00.
Sale Price 4.00

Patent Vamp
Kid Top, Button, genuine patent colt, worth $6.00.
Sale Price 4.00

Patent Vamp
5-inch Cloth Tops, Sorosis make. Regular value $5.00.
Sale Price 4.00

English Walking Shoes
In Tan, 6-inch Top, Lace, worth regular $5.00.
Sale Price 4.00

Calf Boot
8-inch Top, College Brand, for Girls.
Special 4.00

Calf Vamp
Grey Cloth Top, English Walking Boot for Girls, 6-inch Grey Cloth Top. Extra good value at 3.50 Pair

Furnishings for Men
New Line Boss-of-the-Road Coveralls, best 220 denim, 3.50 Suit

Boss-of-the-Road Work Shirts
Exceptional wearing quality, good colors, grey and blue 1.00 each

Khaki Trousers
Men, we are offering some great values in Trousers, best grade at Special 1.75 and 2.00 Pair

Standard Make Shirts
Good grade Work Shirts at 65c to 1.00 Each

Boys' Shirts and Blouses
We can give you some real values in these, some of the old stock at the old prices. 35c to 1.00 each

Boys Trousers
Serges, Corduroys, Tweeds, etc. All sizes to 17 years. Special 65c to 2.00 Pair

Ladies Novelty Neckwear
Single pieces, also sets Economy Prices

Petticoats
Silk Jersey Top. Colors, blue or green. Price 5.00

Chiffon Taffata
All colors, Exceptional values 3.50 to 5.00

Figured Sateen Petticoats
Best grade, new novelty designs. 1.50 Each

New Voiles
Beautiful patterns, best quality, 36-inch wide. 40c to 1.00

Silk Poplin
All new shades, 36 to 38-inch wide 1.00 to 1.50 Yard

Dress Fabrics
In Silks and Satins
A great variety of new colors, and every piece of the very best grade on the market, and priced to please every purchaser.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

They Solve the Problem

The U. S. War Savings Certificates and Thrift Stamps solve the problem for the investment of small sums at any time. We sell both the $5 stamps and the 25-cent Thrift Stamps and invite you to come in today and make the start by investing in one or more of these Absolutely Secure Government Securities.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Beginning April 1st this Store Opens at 7:30 a.m. Closes 6 p.m.

VAUPEL'S

Saturday Night this Store Closes at 8:30 p.m.

The Quality Shop Mail Order Specialists