

We value your patronage too much to neglect in any way the opportunity of demonstrating to you our appreciation and

Food Dependability

If you cannot come yourself, phone or send the children. We will see to it that you will receive only groceries that will prove satisfactory in every way.

The high quality and low prices of our goods recommend themselves to all economical housekeepers.

Plaza Grocery Telephone 78

In the Social Realm

500 Party.

Ten tables were arranged for the progressive 500 party given at the parish house of Trinity Episcopal church Friday evening. A most enjoyable time was spent in this diversion, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Dean, Mrs. Carl Nims, Mrs. Don Whitney and Mrs. Clark Bush.

There never was a time since Adam, as good to buy on easy terms, as the present. Labor is unprecedentedly high, and no indications of it being lower for a long time to come; and you can buy a good house and lot now of the Beaver Realty Company for less than the cost of the house, and almost on your own terms. This is especially attractive to R. R. people.

Beaver Realty Co.
211 E. Main St., Phone 68

Entertained With Dinner.

Mrs. W. E. Sandford entertained a number of guests at dinner at her home last Thursday, which was an enjoyable event. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. James, L. C. Barton and daughters, Georgia and Frances, of Dunsmuir, and Mrs. L. W. Loveland of Ashland.

Married at Medford.

Dennis LeRoy Tyson, a baggage-man of the Shasta division who runs into Ashland once a week, and Miss Flora Genevieve Abbott were married Thursday evening at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abbott, near Medford. J. E. Walbeck of the Methodist church performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Tyson will make their home in Oakland, Cal.

Given Farewell Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Nisbet entertained a number of friends at their home Friday night, where a farewell party was held in honor of Miss Elsie Crowson, who expects to leave some time next week for an extended visit east. The employees of the Home Laundry, who constitute what is known as the "Happy Family," were in attendance, and a most enjoyable evening was spent with games and dancing. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening's festivities. Those present beside the honor guest were Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. Ed Decker, Mrs. Alta Wineberger, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Nisbet, Misses Alta Andrews, Peryl Crowson, Daisy Johnson and James Meagher.

Upper Granite Street Embroidery Club.

Thursday afternoon, April 4, found the ladies of the Upper Granite Street Embroidery Club at the home of Mrs. L. B. Nicholson, where they met for their accustomed "First Thursday" afternoon meeting, and whiled away the hours in music and needle-work. Following the business session, there was a piano duet by Mesdames Ahnutt and Plymate, and the ladies thought if there was anything they liked better than a piano duet, it was two piano duets, so the performers graciously responded to a hearty encore. At the serving hour (and, let me whisper, a while before) the hostess was assisted by Mesdames Jordan and Holley. Three invited guests, Mrs. Snelling, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Plymate, enjoyed the hospitality of the club. After a season of informal sociability the meeting was pleasantly terminated with vocal and instrumental solos by Mrs. Ahnutt and Mrs. Holley. Mrs. Storey has invited the club to her home on Allida street, for their next meeting, first Thursday in May.

Ongeva C. L. S. C.

The annual meeting of the Ongeva C. L. S. C. for the election of officers for 1918-19 was held Friday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Cassius Miller. The following officers will serve during the coming year: President, Mrs. S. C. Williamson; first vice-president, Mrs. John Miller; second vice-president, Mrs. Maud Rocho; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Millican. After the business meeting the circle enjoyed a social period, at which one of the ironical rules of this annual meeting was carried out—each member to contribute some form of entertainment for the evening. Mrs. J. L. Crooks responded to the call by reciting the beautiful poem, "My Star," in a most charming manner. She was followed by Mrs. Williamson, who read a selection, "Surprises," while Mrs. Putnam surprised and delighted the club by reading several original poems. The Misses Dougherty played two piano duets which were highly appreciated, and Mrs. Rocho sang a character song in costume. Mrs. Winter then told of the $1,000,000 church in Los Angeles called "The Open Door," presided over by Rev. Mr. Corey, and read several extracts from the latter's lectures. Mrs. Cassius Miller gave a piano solo, and Mrs. Kramer recited "You Cannot Write Poetry." Mrs. Schuerman then told an entertaining Mark Twain story, and Mrs. William Myers brought down the house with a take-off of one of the books in the course of study, "How to Live," in which she represented a Dutch woman reviewing a book on hygiene. Other club members told funny stories or jokes. Guests present were Mesdames Charlin and Hilty, and Misses Dougherty, Mathes, Myers and Dougherty. Three new members, Mesdames Lee Hall and L. Schwein and Miss Mayne Grainger, were elected to the club. Dainty refreshments were served, and thus was closed another happy and prosperous year of the Ongeva Club.

Popular Pioche Couple Married.

"The local society event of the season occurred February 12 at the Episcopal church when John H. Deck, well-known Pioche business man, led to the altar Miss H. Loleta Norton, daughter of Mrs. Ann Hasseltine Norton. The Episcopalian marriage service was used. Rector Percival Smith officiating.

"Just before the arrival of the bridal party Miss Isabel Osborn sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," Miss Ruth Rarrison presiding at the organ.

"The wedding march was rendered by Miss Harrison as the bridal party entered the church. Mr. Deck and Miss Norton were preceded by the bridesmaid, Miss Isabel Osborn, and the best man, George Dorothy. At the altar little Marion Lansdown acted as ring bearer in the most up-to-date manner.

"Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds and bridal party, accompanied by Rev. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hyatt and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Deck, were whisked away in an automobile to the bride's home, where the wedding feast was served. "The church was filled with invited guests.

"The bride wore a dress of white satin and shadow lace, chiffon veil with orange blossoms around head and pearl beads across forehead, and carried a bouquet of tea roses and sweet peas tied with white tulle streamers with large white tulle bow.

"Miss Osborne wore a dress of pink taffeta and lace, and wore a picture hat of pink chiffon and taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

"Mr. and Mrs. Deck will be at home after March 1. Mr. Deck furnished the home up beautifully prior to the wedding.

"Mrs. Deck is a teacher in the Pioche schools and will resume her duties within a week.

"The Record joins with everyone else in town in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Deck a long and happy married life."

The above is from the Pioche, Nev., Record. Mrs. Deck's many friends in Ashland, particularly those formerly connected with the normal school here, will just add a few words to this marriage writeup. Leta Norton, as familiarly called, grew to young womanhood in Ashland, has many relatives here, and is known by the people here generally. She graduated from the normal school with the class of 1903, and has been considered for years one of the best primary teachers of Jackson county. It was her reputation as a teacher of primary grades that called her to the Nevada schools. The people of Ashland and especially normal graduates and students extend to Mrs. Deck the heartiest congratulations on account of this recent and happy event in her life.

Civic Improvement Club.

The Civic Improvement Club will meet in Auxillary hall next Tuesday afternoon, April 9, at 2:30 o'clock, at which the following program will be presented: Song, Mrs. P. S. Provost; talk on political issues of the day, Dr. Keeney Ferris; reading, Mrs. Wilmer Poley; piano solo, Miss Dougherty; talk on food values, Mrs. J. M. Miller; song, Mrs. H. T. Elmore. There will be Red Cross work and all are asked to bring their scissors. The hostesses will be Mrs. Mary V. Wilshire and Mrs. C. W. Banta. 91-21

Entertained Friends.

Mrs. L. W. Loveland entertained a company of friends at her apartments Thursday night in honor of Mrs. W. L. James of Dunsmuir, who is visiting with friends in Ashland. The evening was spent with cards and refreshments were served.

Wednesday Club.

The regular meeting of the Wednesday Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Schwein on Church street next Wednesday afternoon, at which the annual election of officers will take place and business closing the year will be transacted. Mrs. W. W. Caldwell will assist the hostess in entertaining.

Fun Makers To Be At Vining Theatre

Kolb and Dill in "The High Cost of Loving," which has been impending in Chicago for many months, have definitely decided to fulfill their Pacific coast bookings and will come to Ashland Tuesday, April 9.

The Kolb and Dill farce is a racy and bold breakaway from the usual, having to do with four erring men, all safely married, but the indecent past pursuing them and pursuing them hysterically. It is that pursuit, coupled with the purity league penchant for unearthing disagreeable things at a mile-a-minute gait, and a strange young man in town, and not one of the four wise men able to declare positively that he is not their

Classified Advertisements TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOUND—Fox terrier, Young female, white and tan. E. T. Staples, 118 Helman. 92-1

BIG SNAP—Handsome residence, 100 feet front, first-class location and surroundings. Will sell for less than one-third cost and take half cash, balance long time at 4 per cent. If you are interested, address Biz, Tidings. 92-2t

FOR SALE—A mare, hack and harness for $35. Mare good for cultivating truck garden and light work. Also a span of mules for sale cheap. A new seven-foot Simon cross-cut saw for $3.50. Can be seen at first ranch on highway in California. E. Geuldempennig, Hilt, Cal. 92-1mo.*

WANTED—A HOME. Have you got your for sale ad where this man will see it? April 4, 1918. Ashland Tidings: Please send me a sample copy of your paper. I intend to go down to your county and get a home, I am. Yours truly, A. COCHRAN, Whatcomb Co., Washington.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATORS AND TO PRESENT CLAIMS in the matter of estate of Joseph Garland Hurt, deceased.

Notice is now given that the undersigned have been appointed to administer said estate, by the Hon. F. L. Tou Velle, Judge of the County Court for Jackson county, Oregon. All claims against said estate must be duly verified and presented at the office of E. D. Briggs, attorney, at Ashland, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice.

EDNA PEARL HURT and R. J. CONROY, Administrators. Date of first publication, April 8th, 1918. 92-4-Mon.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT in matter of estate of Max Pracht, deceased.

A. H. Pracht, the administrator of said estate, has filed in the County Court of Jackson county, Oregon, his Final Account, and the Hon. F. L. Tou Velle, Judge of said court, has designated May 18th, 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the court house in Jacksonville, said county, as the time and place for such hearing. Any objection to said account must be filed in said court on or before said date.

A. H. PRACTH, Administrator. 92-4-Mon.

very own son, that calls forth loud laughter and hearty guffaws. Audacious to be sure, but side-splitting, and from maid to star it is brilliantly played. At top speed the saucy farce goes on its way and with not a single minute's wait between acts, for the expertness with which Kolb and Dill do things is evidenced in the same jazz orchestra they carried last year which entertains while the curtain is dropped.

HILT, CAL., ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Hicks of Hornbrook, who have conducted the camp and boarding tent for the state highway during its work at Hilt, since last October, will continue this work during the summer between Hornbrook and Yreka, which will proceed as soon as the camp is moved and the necessary machinery can be installed at the new location on the Klamath river.

L. W. Crosby left recently for American Lake, thereby giving up the position as superintendent of Mountrest, the 1,900-acre ranch belonging to Reginald H. Parsons of Seattle. Ross Cox will take charge of the entire ranch in Mr. Crosby's absence.

The store here is now issuing bread tickets to its customers. Fred Jassman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hibbert and family and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dunn motored to Soda Springs, at Little Shasta, Easter Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner, after which they went to Yreka, returning late Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Turpin of Medford have been sojourning at Hilt since December, where Mr. Turpin was employed as engineer for the rock crusher on the state highway work. Mrs. Turpin and son Donald will spend a few weeks with her parents at Ruch, Ore., after which she will join her husband at Dorris, where he has accepted a position for the summer.

Ed Nolan is here from Angel Island. He stopped over between trains on his return from Vancouver, being detailed to accompany soldiers to the barracks there. He has a clerical position with the government. He was formerly a trusted employe of the company here, where he has many friends.

Benjamin Coker, the S. P. station agent, left last week for Camp Lewis, and L. W. Muir, who was night agent, has taken his place and Miss Frances Herndon is doing night duty. T. L. Hunt underwent a slight operation Thursday at the hospital. James Rolfs, the general head clerk for the company store until recently, has accepted a situation at the camp for the summer, where he was slightly hurt a few days ago while loading hogs.

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vaughan has been sick for four weeks with the prevalent malady of swollen glands, an accompaniment to a form of measles going the rounds with children on the coast. It was necessary to lance the neck twice before relief came to the lad. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan are glad to know of his improvement.

B. Reimen Schneider, the butcher, has resigned his position. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stanley has been ill with measles for the past two weeks.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Widner Hilt will be glad to know that they are to return to their ranch soon after a pleasant winter in Los Angeles, where they went to escape the cold of northern California. Mr. Hilt has been employed there.

Meet to Promote Poultry Raising

A series of poultry meetings are to be held in southern Oregon with U. L. Upson, national extension poultryman, and Anne McCormick, home demonstration agent, as speakers. The following meetings have been arranged for Jackson county, beginning April 11:

- Central Point city hall, Thursday evening, 8 o'clock.
- Medford public library, Friday afternoon, 2 o'clock.
- Talent Community Club, Friday evening, 8 o'clock.
- Wimer Grange Saturday afternoon.
- Ashland town hall Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

All people who raise chickens or use poultry products are asked to attend these meetings. Since the U. S. government is making an effort to get certain information before people at this time it is hoped that there will be a good attendance at all these meetings.

C. B. Howard has just returned from Klamath Falls via the Green Springs road. He reports the road open for travel and in good condition with the exception of a few trees down.

Phone job orders to the Tidings.

How Do Your Sacrifices Compare With These?

THE American boy who goes to war gives up the position which means so much to his future, or the little business which has just begun to show promise of success.

He severs home ties; gives up home comforts; leaves behind parents, friends, wife or sweetheart.

He faces the probability of being obliged to take up life anew when he returns; of losing all the advantages which years of hard work have won for him.

He faces the possibility of coming back incapacitated for earning a living, and of being dependent upon his friends or upon charity.

He faces the possibility of never coming home at all.

Facing these things, he goes to France to fight for us who remain safely at home—and when the moment comes for him to go over the top—he GOES!

What will he think, how will he feel, if we complain because we are asked to make a few sacrifices for him—sacrifices so insignificant when compared with his?

Show him that to invest in Liberty Bonds is not a SACRIFICE but a PRIVILEGE—an appreciation of his sacrifice!

And When You Buy—Buy!

This Space Paid For and Contributed By

MITCHELL & WHITTLE
"THE MEN'S STORE"

IT MUST BE KEPT ALIGHT.

Upon America devolves the sacred duty of keeping alight the torch of Liberty and upholding justice and democracy throughout the world. Let us not falter or count the cost, for in the freedom of the world lies our only safety, and the preservation of our American liberties and institutions.

Let Us Invest To the Limit in Liberty Bonds

This Space Paid For and Contributed By

East Side Meat Market
Phone 188 395 East Main