Dick Posey's Poem Appeals to Soldiers

R. P. Campbell, "Dick Posey," the well known poet whose verses have a habit of touching a responsive chord in the hearts of all their readers, recently wrote a poem entitled "From Dad," supposed to be a letter from a father to his son in the trenches. This poem is particularly appealing at the present time, expressing as it does the sentiments felt by all fathers who have boys in the army, but who possibly have not the faculty of putting in words the sentiment Dick Posey has so beautifully portrayed. This poem has been published in the various newspapers throughout the state, and recently Mr. Campbell received the following letter from France from men who are utter strangers to him, but who appreciate the fine sentiments expressed in the poem:

"In Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force, April 6, 'Mr. Dick Posey,

"Ashland, Oregon.
"Your poem, 'From Dad,' found its way over here and was enjoyed by every one who read it, namely the boys of the 406 Motor Supply train.

United States Senator Charles L. McNary

Because United States Senator Charles L. McNary has made good he should be nominated to succeed himself in the republican primary, May 17th.

From the day he became senator he has loyally championed the prosecution of the war, and during his term of office has accomplished more for Oregon than any other member in congress in a like period.

Among his colleagues he is known as "the man on the job", and during the present war crisis Oregon should consider itself fortunate in having an opportunity to return him and not be compelled to send to Washington a new, untrained man.

Believing that the supreme obligation he owes his country is to help win the war Senator McNary, instead of returning to his state to conduct a political campaign, is at his post in Washington working for Oregon and aiding in the prosecution of the war.

Always since entering the senate he has been a friend of our soldiers and sailors and has introduced legislation giving them preferential homestead rights and repeatedly championed their cause when their welfare was in jeopardy.

Championing the cause of Oregon farmers, Senator McNary procured for them a primary wheat market, saving thereby several million dollars to the wheatgrowers of the northwest.

Realizing the present food control law fails to fix prices for many commodities, Senator McNary has introduced, and is laboring for the passage of a bill, striking at profiteering and fixing prices on the necessities of life.

Senator McNary has procured: Government contracts for the first time in the state's history for Oregon products, such as prunes, dehydrated potatoes and vegetables in large quantities.

Large government contracts for army clothing and shipbuilding yards. Favorable action by the senate committee on irrigation on a bill providing for the government marketing of district irrigation bonds thereby

There never was a time since Adam, as good to buy on easy terms, as the present. Labor is unprecedentedly high, and no indications of it being lower for a long time to come; and you can buy a good house and lot now of the Beaver Realty Company for less than the cost of the house, and almost on your own terms. This is especially attractive to R. R. people.

supplying funds for irrigation projects.

Favorable action from same committee on a bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to accept irrigation or drainage district bonds and exchange them with the secretary of the treasury for certificates of indebtedness, thereby providing funds for legitimate products.

Senator McNary is working. For prompt payments of allotments to dependent relatives of our soldiers and sailors.

For the construction of a coast military highway at government expense.

A comprehensive plan for the utilization of the water resources of Oregon.

An aviation training station at Medford.

Senator McNary was born on a farm in Oregon; reared in the Baptist church; educated in the public schools; worked his way through Stanford university; is a lawyer and farmer and has been a life-long republican. He was formerly a justice on the supreme court and later chairman of the State Republican Central committee.

Space forbids further enumeration of the vast amount of work Senator McNary has done for Oregon, but anyone will realize from the foregoing the senator has displayed truly remarkable ability, coupled with extraordinary diligence and energy. His native state can best show its appreciation of his faithful and efficient services by nominating and electing him.

Thrift Stamp Day Observance Monday

Monday, May 6, has been set aside by the Oregon retail merchants as Thrift Stamp day, and on that day retailers throughout the state will apply all the genius of their salesmanship to the inviting task of making it the biggest of all days in thrift stamp returns. The result of this sale will lead towards making an "Oregon First" record in the government's "baby bonds," as well as in Liberty bonds. A keen competition exists among the states and all will put forth a great effort to increase their sales on this date.

The Valley View grange met in regular session Saturday, April 27. The usual good community dinner was in evidence and the afternoon program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Elizabeth Lennox, an instrumental duet by Miss Inez Eagon and Mrs. H. R. Reachert, and two very interesting talks by Hon. C. M. Thomas of Medford and W. C. Leever of Central Point.

The Murley circle met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cochran on Avery street. The ladies spent the time hemming dish towels for the soldiers and cutting gun-wipes. The following were present: Mesdames Minor, Holmes, Barnett, Hawks, Davis, Morton, Maxedon, Scott, Denton, Ferris, Boyd, Smith, Carson, Hall, Wilson, Payne, Decker, Harvey, Wright, Borman, Cochran, Miss Elizabeth Payne, Donald Scott and Everett Denton.

Why Is Oregon's Self- Appointed Boss Afraid of Stanfield?

Believing that the republican voters of the state of Oregon would not look with favor upon Oswald West naming the senatorial candidate for the republican party.

And, inasmuch as I have received many thousands of letters and other assurances from the republican voters assuring me of their support, I must respectfully decline the proposal of Mr. West that all other candidates withdraw and give a clear field to C. L. McNary.

I feel that I have the confidence of the republican voters and the people of this great state and I will serve them honestly and efficiently as a senator and at this critical time they are inclined to support a man from the business walks of life.

Oswald West has heretofore asserted that he only desired to be a candidate that he might oppose me if I should be successful in defeating McNary in the primaries.

His interference is intolerable to me, as I believe it is to the republican voters of the state, and I will welcome the opportunity to oppose him in the general election if he should be successful in defeating his democratic opponent, Mr. King.

R. N. STANFIELD.

Mr. Stanfield makes the above reply to the proposal of Oswald West that all candidates for senator withdraw in favor of Mr. West's candidate. The whole activity of the democratic machine in attempting to stem the tide of dissatisfaction against their candidate now in the senate is laid bare in this last supreme attempt of Mr. West to bolster up a forlorn hope.

The question is do the people and the republicans want this sort of bossism in Oregon, or do they want 100 per cent Americans and 100 per cent republicans, such as Mr. Stanfield, a successful, energetic, patriotic, self-made man whose every act has added to the progress and growth of Oregon a man who gets results, accomplishes something, who has worked and knows how to work, and who will work.

Stanfield is 100 per cent American and 100 per cent republican, and he would support the president in winning this war.

Which do you want? A man who can stand on his own feet or one who cannot.
