CO-OPERATION IN PRODUCTION.
There should be special efforts in every community of the country this season looking to closer co-operation in the drive for food, production. American farmers, livestock breeders provided for. Where it is clearly seen that any particular crop must be increased or resort to shipping in from other points, this crop should be promptly speeded up. This is imperative if we are to comply with the government's request to draw as lightly as possible on transportation facilities. The government has urgent need for every available freight car in the country. If the farmers of the various communities can provide for the annual needs of their respective centers, this will help greatly in releasing cars for government needs. Each community should also develop a fairly accurate estimate of the probable amount of any supplies it will have for export. The communities that attend to these matters will be the wide-awake centers, and will profit largely by their care.

AFTER ANTI-NARCOTIC VIOLATORS.

The State Board of Medical Examiners of Tennessee have recently taken action that will attract nationwide attention, when that body revoked the licenses of four physicians convicted of violating the Harrison narcotic law. Tennessee was up against the fact that so long as these physicians retained their state licenses, the Federal authorities had no power to refuse license. As the violations of the anti-narcotic laws had become flagrant in that state, the authorities determined on drastic measures and revoked the licenses. The action was taken on recommendation of Federal authorities who sought a legal cause to revoke the Federal licenses. The outcome of the action will be watched with great interest all over the country, as, if the action is in accord with state and national law, the country will have been shown a practical means of combating this great evil.

GLOOMY GUS.

Happy Hooigan is in China, and it is a great pity he couldn't have taken his brother, Gloomy Gus, with him. But he left him on this side and we are still afflicted with him. We meet him on ever corner. He is in evidence wherever men foregather, and his pessimistic forebodings are as a wet blanket on the brightest enthusiasm. He just knows we will soon be fighting the Huns from our own shores. He can see no cause for satisfaction in the magnificent stand of the allies in Flanders, but sees the German hordes already pouring over fair France. He bemoans the slowness of this country, but it is noticeable that he has done nothing to speed up operations, not even to the purchasing of a Thrift Stamp. He is a veritable rain crow, and as it is not permissible to kill him, he should be caged.

Probably the reason so many people know so little of themselves is because they have been taught to shun undesirable acquaintances.

If Swift & Company Made No Profit

The consumer would pay only 1/4 cent a pound less for his dressed beef.

If Swift & Company waived all profit on cattle, and gave it to consumers in the form of lower beef prices, this would reduce the cost to the average consumer less than 25 cents per year for all the beef he eats.

In fact, the packer's profit is so insignificant that if surrendered to the consumer the effect upon retail meat prices would be practically nothing.

It is because of the volume of meat handled that the investor in Swift & Company's business receives a satisfactory return upon his money.

These figures for 1917 are convincing:

The profit of $1.29 per head averages 1/4 cent per pound on dressed beef—

Average Receipts:

Per animal for beef	-	$68.97
Per animal for by-products		24.09
		$93.06

Average Disbursements:

Per animal for cattle on hoof	- - - - -	$84.45
Per animal for dressing, selling and freight		7.32
Net profit per animal	-	1.29
		$93.06
