

The summer days will soon be here. For your complexion's sake, use

Poley's Floral Cream

AT THE OLD PRICE

AT

Poley's Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists

Local and Personal

Miss Margaret Anderson, teacher of drawing in the local schools for the past two years, has been notified that she has been elected teacher of drawing at the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth, and will begin her duties there in September. Miss Anderson has been an efficient teacher and popular young lady and will be missed from the many social circles in which she has been associated during her sojourn in Ashland.

I can do a few more washings at my home. Will get the clothes, also deliver them. Mrs. Bacon. Phone 433-L. 2-4t

Misses Marguerita and Marie Andrews, teachers in the Ashland and Talent schools during the past year, have gone to Corvallis to spend the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews.

Studio Ashland, better portraits. 100-4t

Mrs. J. A. Lemery of Dorris returned to her home Wednesday forenoon after making an extended visit with friends in Ashland.

Paxson's Superb Dahlias. Plant now and up to June 20th. Field-grown roots, eight for $1, eight for $2, eight for $3 and up. Parcel post paid. About half florist's list prices. Write R. H. Paxson, Central Point, Oregon. 1-tt

The local schools will lose another popular teacher who has served in that capacity for the past six years. This is Miss Bessie Dunham, who leaves this week for Bellingham, Wash., to spend the summer in study preparatory to assuming the position of critic teacher in the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth.

Mrs. Elsie Churchman has the agency for the Spirella corsets and will be pleased to demonstrate. Phone 246-R, or call at 31 Union street. 2-tt

Word was received this week of the death of Kathryn Payne, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Payne, formerly of this city, which occurred at Escondido, Cal., following an operation for appendicitis.

Notice — On and after June 1, 1918, all blacksmithing must be for cash, no exception.—N. L. High & Son, Ira Reeder. 2-4t

Among the local people who attended the spring carnival at Medford Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Paulserud, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dews and Miss Allie Shinn. The party went down in the Paulserud car.

J. E. Peck, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McWilliams, passed through Ashland this week on his way north from one of the California military training schools for officers from which he had just graduated. His wife expects to come to this city later to spend the summer.

Mrs. H. B. Gossage, plain dress-making, 207 Vista street. Phone 439-J. 1-tt

Rev. J. H. Doran delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Gold Hill high school last Sunday evening.

The family of C. H. Moore will leave this week for Seattle where Mr. Moore will take a position in a wholesale house.

Miss Winnie Caha left Wednesday for Dunsmuir where she will visit friends for some time.

The Camera Exchange. Finishing. 100-4t

Mrs. Farum and daughter Florence of Sams valley were guests of Mrs. Abe Butler in this city last Sunday while en route to Stanford, Cal., where they were going to make their home.

Mrs. Peter Spencer very pleasantly entertained Mesdames Eric Wera, Owen Barnhill and Homer Elhart Monday evening while their husbands were attending military drill. When the latter returned, light but delicious refreshments were served. The Camera Exchange for film. 100-4t

Mr. Peter R. Burnett will preach at the Christian church, corner B and Second streets, Sunday mornink, subject, "The Final Resurrection." Mr. Burnett is one of the pioneer preachers of Oregon. Everybody is invited to attend.

Geo. Carey, the plumber. Call 314-J. 94-tt

Dr. D. M. Brower received a telegram Tuesday morning telling of the safe arrival of his daughter Mina in Washington, D. C., to which destination she started last week. The message stated that she was met at the station at 1:30 a. m., by her sister, Miss Voda Brower.

J. S. McMurray, teacher of singing. Address Hotel Austin. 102-4t

J. E. Gowland expects to soon return to this city from Hill where he has been employed as master mechanic in place of John Matkins, who has been ill for some time.

GARDEN TOOLS

Time is here to begin that garden. Everybody ought to have a garden this year. Tools will be hard to get later, and they are getting higher every day. We have a number of splendid Garden Hand Cultivators, combining the Plow, Weeder, Rake, Cultivator. Just the thing. Let us show you.

Provost Brothers
HARDWARE

Mrs. J. E. Gowland spend the week end at Hill visiting her husband and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller.

A. H. Hall, who is guarding one of the railroad tunnels on the mountain near Siskiyou, was at his home here the fore part of the week. He returned to his post Tuesday forenoon accompanied by Mrs. Hall and children, who will spend a few days with Mr. Hall at his camp.

Millinery sale. Every hat in the store at 1/2 price at Mrs. Higdon's, North Main street, next door to Hotel Ashland. 1

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy of Klamath Falls came over Saturday and spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. D. McCarthy of North Main street.

For reliable plumbing call 314-J. 94-tt

Mrs. Charles Veghte leaves today for Santa Monica, Cal., where she will spend several weeks with her mother.

E. F. Smith and son Chet have returned from eastern Oregon where they have been spending several weeks establishing agencies for the sale of Monkey Grip tire repairs. They covered a 1200-mile auto trip through several counties in the eastern part of the state while away.

If you have a home in Ashland which you would like to trade for a bearing cherry orchard near Pueblo, Colorado, and paid water right, see Billings agency at once. This look good. 3-3t

Frank Jordan, who went north several days ago with a view of finding a location, has settled in Vancouver, Wash., where he is employed. Mrs. Jordan expects to join him some time this week.

Arthur Stennett, who has been spending several days at his home in this city, has returned to Hill, Cal., where he has employment in the box factory.

Prof. J. C. Barnard, principal of the Eagle Point schools, finished the term Wednesday and has returned to his home in this city.

A five-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Elva Hobert of Oakland arrived in the city Tuesday evening and will assume the pastorate of the Free Methodist church. Mrs. Hobert succeeds Miss Rhoda Burnett, the former incumbent, and received her appointment here at the annual Free Methodist conference held last week.

Six hundred dollars will buy a neat 6-room cottage three blocks from business section, and desirably situated in other respects. See Billings Agency. land 3

Word from Wapato, Wash., has been received that Alvin W. Wheeler, formerly of Ashland, has been selected as principal of the schools there for the next year. Mr. Wheeler has been serving as teacher of agriculture in the high school at Wapato for the past two years, and will continue to teach that branch and manual training in connection with his duties as principal.

G. F. Alexander, United States marshal for the district of Oregon, was in the city Monday where he came to issue permits to German aliens to grant them the rights to come within a half mile of the armory, in accordance with the proclamation issued by the President. Three men in Ashland and vicinity are registered German aliens, and those were granted this permit Monday.

Miss Nellie B. Ross will conduct a summer school for pupils from the fourth grade through the eighth, at the Hawthorne building, beginning Monday, June 3. 2-2t

Zenas Moody has gone to the naval training camp at Seattle after serving his period in the detention camp at Bremerton, and has been assigned to a radio company, with classes at the University of Washington.

Mrs. W. H. Smith spent Wednesday in Montague where she was the guest of her daughter.

Bring Your Dollar To Us

Watch it Pull

Our ambition is to get your trade, and HOLD IT. We know that the only way to hold it is to DELIVER THE GOODS, make good on every sale. We buy with this end in view, and we sell with it in view. Our every act has this end in view.

Therefore, we invite you to bring that dollar to us and watch it perform. No where in this whole community will it do more—we do not believe there is a single place where it will do as much.

It gets the goods here—the BEST goods—the MOST goods—and it gets PROMPT and ACCOMMODATING service.

Consider one fact—nearly all your friends trade here. And they trade here because they can do better here. So CAN YOU.

Simpson Hardware Store

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spencer went to Klamath Falls for a few days' visit.

A family by the name of Lindoa from Coos Bay have come to Ashland and will spend the summer here. They are occupying rooms in the W. M. Barber residence on Granite street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dougherty entertained the families of Harry Stockman and Frank Roberts of Medford at dinner at their home on Oak street last Thursday evening.

Wesley Eastman was called to The Dalles last week by the serious illness of his father.

Raymond Badger and a friend, students of the O. A. C., came down from Corvallis Saturday and stopped over night with friends in this city while on their way to their home in Oakland. They continued their journey Sunday.

Rev. W. O. Forbes, D. D., superintendent of Presbyterian Sunday school work for Oregon, Washington and Alaska, spoke in the Presbyterian church of this city Sunday morning.

J. O. Rigg left Tuesday for Portland where he will take an examination to enter Y. M. C. A. work in the army.

Mrs. W. B. Smith and Mrs. Amos Dahuff started Saturday for Oakland to visit their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith, who reside there. Mr. Smith is a draftsman in a gas engine factory in that city, and the young people are comfortably situated in a pleasant home of their own.

Hotel Austin Barber Shop

N. G. Bates, Prop.

First-class Service and Equipment.
Shoeshining Parlor—Baths.
Ashland, Oregon.

Men's and Boys' Furnishings Ladies' and Children's Shoes

VAUPEL'S

Dry Goods Women's and Children's Furnishings

The Last of a Great Line of Sorosis Shoes

Only a Few Pairs Left at the Special Low Prices

Do not forget that when you buy any of these Shoes it means for you a saving of $3.00 to $4.00 a pair on the present high prices of footwear. Another great reason why the public should take advantage of this sale is that this famous stock is made by the highest skilled shoe makers and not one cent's worth of poor or second quality leather is used. Instead you get the very best make of shoes on the market today. With the satisfaction of knowing you are getting more than your money's worth.

This Great Sale is for all who need shoes. Buy all you can carry. Then buy more and have them delivered.

Think of buying Shoes worth to $7.00 a pair for $3.29.

Sorosis Lace or Button
Special $3.29.

Sorosis Pumps,
Oxfords and Slippers, Regular $4.00
$1.89 Pr.

The Quality Shop

VAUPEL'S

Mail Order Specialists

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

The Growth of Habits

Do you realize how habits grow? The practice of idleness and extravagance soon leads to poverty. The practice of thrift and saving assure a steady rise to success. Now is a good time to begin the habit of regular bank deposits by starting an account with us.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS