Grant-Haaley Wedding

The following account of a wedding appeared recently in the Portland papers, which is of interest to many Ashland residents:

Friends of Grace Roberts Haaley will be surprised to learn of her marriage Thursday afternoon to Dillon Eostie Grant, who was formerly a resident of Ashland, Oregon. He is at present employed by the Columbia Shipbuilding company. The couple were quietly married in Vancouver and will be at home to their friends at their Lake Grove home, a suburb of Portland on the Southern Pacific electric line.

Wedded in Portland

The marriage of Dr. C. F. Tilton of Ashland and Miss Lulu E. Fowler of Portland took place at the home of the bride at 440 East Thirty-ninth street, Portland, Sunday afternoon, July 30, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. W. D. Springston read the marriage service. Shortly after the ceremony the bride and groom left for one of the coast resorts where they will spend a couple of weeks. Both principals of this wedding are well known in Ashland. The groom is one of the leading dentists of this city, while the bride was a former resident and professional nurse. After their honeymoon Dr. and Mrs. Tilton will return to Ashland.

Mikado Pleases Large Audience

The production of the opera Mikado by the Phoenix people which was presented Friday night in Ashland as one of the attractions of the three days' celebration last week, was one of the most beautifully staged events ever shown here. The stage was erected near the children's play ground and the open air settings added particularly to the charm of the production. The opera was rendered almost exclusively by the people of Phoenix, under the direction of Geo. Andrews of Medford, and was attended by a large audience, all of whom were loud in their praise. The proceeds will go to the Phoenix and Ashland Red Cross.

Round-Up Exhibits Pleased the Crowds

Forty-eight riders were listed in the Rogue River Roundup July 4, 5 and 6, and gave thrilling demonstration of their prowess at each performance. While the attendance was not as large as on former occasions, the entertainment afforded was as good and those present enjoyed the racing with a keen zest. Several fast bouts took place among the professionals, while local riders astonished many with the proficiency of their work.

The attendance on the Fourth was very good, many fans coming from a distance to see the exhibit.

Committee Can Pay Celebration Bills

E. T. Staples, manager of the 4th of July celebration, asks all who have bills against the committee to present them and they will be paid, or they have the whole-with-all to do it. A detailed account of the expenses will be published in the next issue of the Tidings.

Manager Staples also wishes to thank the people for their generosity and assistance in making this event the successful affair it was. He particularly desires to remember Messrs. J. H. McGee and H. T. Elmore for the efficient work they rendered, as well as all those who contributed to the success of the celebration.

Roast Beef Served Only Once A Week

County Food Administrator W. A. Folger announced last week the following new meat regulations:

The food administration requests all hotels and restaurants not to place on the menus or serve boiled beef more than two meals weekly, and roast beef more than one meal weekly. It asks householders not under any circumstances to buy more than 1 1/2 pounds of clear beef weekly or 1 1/2 pounds including the bone, per person in the household.

County Draft Board Reclassifying Men

The draft board of Jackson county has just about completed its work of reclassifying the registered men and has transferred from 60 to 70 from classes 2 and 3 to class 1.

This reclassification will have to be passed on by the district draft board at Eugene before it is accepted as final and will be given out for publication. Many Jackson county men are affected by the reclassification and will probably be called in the draft in the near future.

Mrs. J. R. Casey Died Thursday

Mrs. Mary Frances Casey, wife of ex-Postmaster J. R. Casey, died at her home on North Pioneer avenue at 1:30 o'clock Thursday morning, after an extended illness. Almost a year ago Mrs. Casey suffered a paralytic seizure which left her in a weakened condition. Several times during the present summer she had a recurrence of the stroke, until the last took place the Saturday before her death, from which she never rallied. She was 75 years, and 6 months of age at the time of her demise.

The death of this estimable woman removes from Ashland a well known personage whose life had been interwoven with all the affairs of the city for the past 35 years in which she had been a resident. At the time of her removal to Ashland this city was a small village, and she had witnessed its growth and development, in which she played an active part and took a keen interest in all the affairs of the community in which she had cast her lot. She was active in all the social club and lodge circles, and had been a member of the Eastern Star chapter for the past 40 years. Eight years ago Mr. and Mrs. Casey celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, which was a notable event in the annals of Ashland.

Funeral services were held from the Stock undertaking parlors Saturday afternoon at 2:30, with Christian Science services, and interment was made in the Hargadine cemetery. Mrs. Casey is survived by her husband, J. R. Casey, and three children, Harry and Miss Helene Casey, and Mrs. C. H. Hargadine. She is also survived by three brothers and two sisters, who are: Mrs. C. J. Watson of Ashland; Mrs. Ella Cairns of Springfield, Ore.; D. W. and H. L. Coolidge of Pasadena, Cal., and Geo. Coolidge of Astoria. A host of friends and neighbors counted Mrs. Casey among the most dearly beloved associates of their lives, and her cheerful presence will be missed from their circle.

Vision In Heavens Causes Speculation

Is an airplane flying over the mountains surrounding Ashland? This is a question that is agitating many people who at various times reported seeing a mysterious light flashing through the heavens at a rapid rate and disappearing over the peaks of the eastern mountains.

Last Friday night, while the Mikado was being staged in the park, a number of spectators witnessed a brilliant point of light traveling at terrific speed high in the heavens, and disappearing over the mountains a trifle south of Mount Grizzly. Many saw and commented upon the light, but it disappeared so soon and was so high in the sky that its form could not be identified.

This is not the first time a mysterious light has been seen in that locality, however. According to reports residents on East Main street claim to have seen a brilliant light in the eastern sky after night going at a rapid rate at various points of that section of the mountains. This has been seen more than once by the same people, it is claimed, and it is also said that several different residents of that section viewed the spectacle.

There are those who contend that the vision of Friday night was a brilliant meteor, and others claim it was only a belated Fourth of July skyrocket. One of the latter theories is more likely to be correct than the one that an airplane is wandering through the heavens in this neighborhood.

Reservation Fire Destroys Timber

Word reached the valley last Thursday night from Assistant Forest Supervisor H. D. Foster that the forest fire in the Crater Lake national forest near the Klamath Indian reservation which has been burning since Sunday last, is now under control after burning over 20,000 acres of lodgepole and yellow pine.

According to Mr. Foster it was a very bad fire and particularly difficult to combat because water was two miles away and it was only possible to secure about 20 fire fighters. Of the burned acreage, between four and five thousand only were in the national forest the rest being privately owned.

Supervisor Rankin is still on the firing line and will probably remain until all danger is passed. This is by far the largest forest fire which has occurred in southern Oregon this year.

Chautauqua Tickets Still At Old Prices

Last year the only two articles which had not advanced in price were the postage stamp and the Chautauqua season ticket. This year even the postage stamp has gone skyrocketing and the season ticket stands alone at the old price, save for the government's 10 per cent tax.

The Chautauqua season ticket at $2.50 is the biggest "buy" in the country. It brings a full week of splendid entertainment, music and lectures for less than ten cents a number. There are 26 big events during Chautauqua week. Your season ticket admits you to every one of them. Single admissions amount to over $8.00, so you make a genuine saving of almost a five-dollar bill in buying on the season ticket plan. Should you attend only four leading numbers (and surely you will not miss these)—Thaviu's Exposition band, "Hawaii—Land of Music", Lincoln Wirt's great war lecture and Zedeler Symphonic quintet—you will save money by purchasing a season ticket.

Then, too, single admissions do not assist your committee of loyal citizens who are bringing the Chautauqua to you. Season tickets alone count on their guarantee. Buy yours today. It will put you shoulder to shoulder with them in this work for a week of worth-while entertainment in your community.

As has been stated the prices will be: Adults (non-transferable) until July 10, $2.50; after July 10, $3.00. Adults (transferable in family) until July 10th, $3.00. After July 10th $2.50. Veteran's tickets, non-transferable, $2.00. Children's, until July 10, $1.00; after July 10, $1.25. Added to this is a war tax of 10 per cent which is compulsory by law to be charged. This will be 25 cents on the adult season and ten cents on the children's tickets.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS PENSIONS INCREASED

All Civil war veterans who are now carried on pension rolls will soon be drawing $30 a month or more under the terms of the new pension law which became operative June 19. The commissioner of pensions has issued a circular explaining the operations of this new act which reads as follows:

"The act of June 10, 1918, amending the Sherwood pension law of May, 11, 1912, provides the rate of $30 per month for soldiers and sailors of any age who served 90 days and less than six months during the Civil war and were honorably discharged, and who are now receiving a lower rate. Those who are 72 years of age, or over, are entitled to receive $32 a month; those who served one year, $35 a month; one and one-half years, $38 a month; and two years or over, $40 a month.

"These increases will be granted automatically, and without application of any kind to the pension bureau, to all soldiers and sailors now pensioned under the act of May 11, 1912, and who have attained the required age and served the necessary length of time.

"Soldiers and sailors who served during the Civil war and are pensioned at lower rates under some other law, but who are entitled to pension under the act of May 11, 1912, will be required to file an application under that act in order to receive the benefits of the new law.

"The pension bureau will make these allowances with all the dispatch possible under existing conditions. A special force for the adjustment of cases within the provisions of the new law has been organized, which will handle these cases exclusively. It should be borne in mind by those concerned that there are now nearly 268,000 pensioners under the act of May 11, 1912, and all are urged to exercise patience and consideration. While every effort will be made to hasten this work, there will be no avoidable interference with the progress of claims now on file under other laws. A special effort will be made not to interfere claims.

"It will be wholly impracticable to make any payments at the increased rate on July 4, 1918, but it is hoped that payments due August 4, 1918, may be made at the rate provided by the new law. It will not be necessary to write to the bureau about these increases. Letters of inquiry will simply delay the work of making allowances.

"No attorneys' fees will be allowed or paid for services in securing increase of pension under the act of June 10, 1918."

PRESIDENT WILSON DEFINES WAR AIMS IN SPEECH

President Wilson answered all feelings for a compromise peace with a new and unqualified declaration of America to the struggle for cleaning military autocracy from the earth, in an address on the Fourth.

An Independence day gathering on the noble slopes of Mount Vernon, home and tomb of George Washington, and surrounded by scenes which looked upon the creation of this nation, the president addressed a small gathering of officials and of diplomats of the allied nations.

But he spoke to the world and he spoke the logical sequel to his "force without stint or limit" declaration of several weeks ago.

Unreservedly the president declared that there could be no thought of a peace which did not mean the destruction of military autocracy or its reduction to virtual impotence.

"A reign of law, based on the consent of the government and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind," was the way he summarized in a single sentence the objects of humanity in the world war.

Whether the president was addressing his remarks directly to the recent speech of German Foreign secretary von Kuehman, or to the fore-shadows of a renewed German peace offensive, or whether he merely took the occasion of the celebration of American independence to emphasize to the world the war aims of the nation can only be divined. He did not deal with the progress of the war or any particular phase of it, but he spoke eloquently of America's attitude toward Germany's so-called peace treaties in the east by grouping the people of Russia "for the moment unorganized and helpless" among the peoples of the world standing against the enemies of liberty.

"The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death

METWEEN THEM" AND PRESIDENT WILSON

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. These are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."

MARKET LETTER FROM UNION STOCKYARDS

Follow are the quotations of the cattle market in the Portland Union stockyards:

Prime steers $12-12; good to choice steers $11-12; medium to good steers $9.00-10; fair to medium steers $8.00-9.00; common to fair steers $5.00-8.00; choice cows and heifers $8.50-9.00; medium to good cows and heifers $4.50-5.00; canners $2.00-4.50; bulls $6.00-8.00; calves $7.00-9.00.

Hog receipts are as follows: Prime mixed $16.75-17; medium mixed $16.50-16.75; rough heavies $15.25-15.50; pigs $15.50-16; bulk $16.75-16.90.

Sheep receipts are as follows: East of the mountains lambs $13-13.50; valley lambs $12-12.75; yearlings $8.00-9.50; wethers $7.50-8.50; ewes $5.00-7.50.

President Wilson says: "The practice of individual thrift is a patriotic duty and a necessity."

And now it develops that the cubist movement in art had its origin in Germany. Another reason why the Hun should be suppressed.
