Farewell and Double Birthday Party

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Williams on Emigrant creek Tuesday, August 27, in honor of John Redmond Bilderback being called to military service September 2, and also being the 16th birthday of Miss Ada Williams and the 18th birthday of her cousin, Miss Jessie Hopkins. The neighbors all brought well-filled baskets and a big dinner was enjoyed by all. Games of various descriptions were played until 4 o'clock in the evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grow, Millie and George Grow, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grow, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grow and family, Amos, Clarence, Walter, Ada and Rachel Williams, Mrs. Lovonia Dosler, Mrs. Lottie Bilderback, John Redmond and Lovonia Bilderback, Mrs. Mattie Baer, Edward and La Veta Baer, Mrs. Mary Hanscom and son Floyd, Mrs. Camilla Gibson and daughter Pearl, Mary and Jessie Hopkins, Miss Lila Weltman, and later came Elton Kerby and his cousin Eva Kerby. It also being Eva's 9th birthday.

Labor Day Observed At Local Postoffice

Next Monday, September 2, being Labor day, the Ashland postoffice will observe it as a partial holiday. There will be one complete delivery by the city carriers and no delivery by the rural carriers. The general delivery, stamp and parcel post windows will be open one hour, from 9 a. m. to 10 a. m. No money order business transacted. No letters registered. One collection from letter boxes on holiday schedule.

Canteen Station Wants More Fruit

The canteen station managers issued a call for good fruit to distribute among the soldiers passing through here. They want peaches, big blue plums, grapes, and good eating apples.

The canteen will pay the market price for such fruit, and any one having any kindly phone to Mrs. Maxey or Mrs. Walter Everton.

Miss Dorothy Cox returned yesterday from Eugene where she had been taking a special course at the university during the summer.

Don't kick if you don't have fuel this winter. The government has been urging folks all summer to order supplies.

power, is blessing all with his beautiful songs of Zion. We are predicting that the attendance will keep increasing. Don't stay away on account of seats. We will completely fill the floor space if necessary. All right services at 8. We have decided to hold no afternoon services on Mondays and Saturdays. Don't forget that all Sunday services will be in the big tent. All are invited to attend. If you don't believe in the Scriptures, come anyway. Your views will be treated with respect. We are not trying to drive, but draw people to Christ. Come and see.—Dorothy D. Edwards, Pastor.

Church of God (Seventh Day), corner Fifth and East Main—Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11, subject "Hope. What have we to hope for?" Preaching at 2:30 p. m., subject, "The present war and our relation to it. What is our duty?" We most cordially invite people of all denominations as well as those not members of other churches to be present at these meetings. Come hear our position on these two all-important subjects. Bring your friends.—Elder J. G. Gilstrap, of Montague, Cal., pastor.

Salvage Depot Wants Old Magazines Now

The collection of magazines by the Red Cross salvage depot will be completed within the present week, and all who have old magazines to give the depot will notify Mrs. C. B. Lam-tin or Mrs. P. R. Whitney, and they will be collected. The attention of the public is earnestly called to this notice, as a car is being loaded with magazines and will be shipped out of the city soon.

Like the story, the screen adaptation of "Tarzan" is unusual; New York eagerly stood in line for weeks during the sensational showing of this super-play; homage that is accorded few pictures! Massive, spectacular, seem weak in describing this feature play—in story, in unstinted and lavish staging, in terrific and death-defying deeds even to hand-to-hand encounters with beasts of the jungle, a whole menagerie of them roam through the play; "Tarzan" simply sweeps you off your feet—its entire eight reels, from fade-in to fade-out are wonderful.
