

O. E. S.
The Worthy Grand Matron of Oregon will make her official visit to Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., this Monday evening, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Cordial invitation is extended to visiting members. A good attendance is desired. By order
GRACE H. TURNER,
Worthy Matron.
LEAH M. CALDWELL,
Secretary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Orres cleans clothes. Phone 64.
First-class cooking apples, 20 lbs. 75c delivered. Phone 9-F-11.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turner will leave Tuesday for San Francisco to spend a short vacation.

W. A. Turner has returned from a visit of several months' duration spent in the state of Iowa.

Mrs. Simons has fall and winter hats on display. Call and see styles and get prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Miss Margaret Hodgson left Friday for San Jose, Cal., where she will be enrolled as a student for the coming school year.

The war tax may be slapped on clothing at any time. Buy now while buying is good at Orres Tailor Shop.

Miss Madeline Silver left Sunday for Alaska, where she will be an instructor in a government school for Indians for the coming year.

Our kodak finishing will please the Camera Exchange.

Mrs. Francis Murphy left last week for San Jose, Cal., to enter the normal school there. She was accompanied by her little son, Charles Francis.

Knock the old kaiser in the head with what you save at Orres Fall Opening Sale, September 25th to October 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wenner received word several days ago that a son was born to their daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hunter, of Prosper, Alberta, Canada September 18.

Buy a Liberty Loan bond and then buy another for what you save at Orres Fall Opening Sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frulan, Barton Frulan, Miss Angie Walrad and Jean Holmes left Friday morning for Crater Lake, where they expect to remain for several days.

Look your roof over. Don't wait till stormy weather. Phone 98.

Mrs. Joseph Poley and two daughters, Misses Evangeline and Minnie will leave this week for Corvallis, where the latter will enter the O. A. C. for the coming winter.

Miss Gertrude Engle, former principal of the Junior High school, left today for Berkeley where she will enter the University of California for the coming year, as a student.

Mrs. C. E. Lane, dressmaking, 143 Laurel street, phone 383-L.

Mrs. R. A. Lares daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd of North Main street, who has been visiting relatives for several weeks this summer, returned to her home in San Francisco Thursday evening.

Cliff Payne builds houses.
We remodel ladies' suits and coats at Orres Tailor Shop.

Oscar Hanson, a high school boy who is employed on the Ralph Billings ranch, while hunting near his father's ranch in the Antelope country last week, was fortunate in securing a fine five-prong buck.

Misses Florence Allen, Myra Gunter, Beatrice Myer and Edith Moody were among the Ashland students who left during the past week for San Jose, Cal., to enter the state normal school for the coming winter.

Want a good job of finishing? Try the Camera Exchange.

Charles Harris will move his household goods to Dunsmuir the last of the month, and the family will reside there in the future. Mr. Harris has been transferred to a southern run on the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. C. E. Lane is serving temporarily as bookkeeper in the Ashland Transfer & Storage company office during the absence of the regular employe, Miss Angie Walrad, who is taking a vacation to Crater Lake this week.

Studio Ashland, better portraits.

Ralph Billings and J. R. McCracken recently purchased two fine registered Jersey calves from the herds of G. G. Hewitt of Monmouth. The animals descend from high-grade pedigreed stock, which has scored a noted record.

Mrs. M. F. Swigart, a former well-known resident of Ashland, arrived Friday morning from Wheatlands, Wyoming, for a visit with friends in this city. She is making the home of Mrs. Emma Coffee on Oak street her stopping place while here.

Time to Think of Stoves
We take your old stove in exchange for a new Heating Stove or Range.

Provost Brothers HARDWARE
Have a fit at Orres, tailors.

Mrs. Bessie Burke and little son arrived Sunday, September 15 from Alameda, Cal., for a month's visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Woods.

Neil Shinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shinn, of Oak street, has been quite sick with an attack of mumps at Camp Lewis, where he is stationed. He has been in quarantine for the past two weeks but wrote that he expected to be released last Saturday.

The Red Cross of Phoenix will give a chicken supper Wednesday, September 25, in the W. O. W. hall, Phoenix. Supper served from 6 to 8. Adults, 50c; children under ten years 25c.

The roof of a house on Oak street occupied by Roscoe Applegate caught fire from the flue Friday noon. The fire department responded to an alarm but the fire was extinguished by the time they arrived there. No damage was done to the building.

Elmer Bagley, Jr., and Lisle Sams took out hunters' licenses and went to Rogue river the latter part of the week to spend a few days in the open before leaving Wednesday for Corvallis, where they will enter the Oregon Agricultural College for the coming winter.

Mrs. F. J. Shinn and daughter Alice left Friday morning for an extended visit with friends in Portland, Seattle, Bellingham and other points in Washington state. While absent they will visit their son and brother, Neil Shinn who is stationed at Camp Lewis. They expect to be away about two months.

Mrs. Ernest Reimers, of Alameda, Cal., who was called here several weeks ago on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Ganiard, returned to her home Thursday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ganiard, who will stay in the California city for some time for the benefit of her health.

Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Fossen and Rev. C. A. Edwards leave this evening for Portland to attend the annual meeting of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which will be in session in that city from September 25 to the 30th. It is expected that Mr. Edwards will be returned to Ashland as pastor of the local Methodist church for another year.

Miss Marion Shaw has gone to San Jose, Cal., to enter the state normal school there for the coming term.

Fire Chief George Robison and H. Hern are away on a hunting and fishing trip near Grants Pass. They expect to be gone three or four days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Putnam and family are spending the week at Neil Creek on a brief vacation.

H. C. Gale is in Klamath Falls this week, where he is mingling business with pleasure in a vacation spent in the neighboring city.

O. Winter and Professor I. E. Vining have gone to Bessie Rocks, near Prospect, where they will spend a couple of weeks hunting in the wilds of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Kale Shepherd and little son, who have been visiting their parents in Ashland for several weeks, expect to leave the middle of the week for their home in Bend, Ore.

Miss Hortense Winter returned the last of the week to Hilt, Cal., where she fills a position as telegraph operator, after spending a short vacation with her parents on the Boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Vining, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myer, of Seattle who have been visiting with relatives in Ashland for several weeks, started Thursday on their return trip home, which will be made by automobile.

James E. Shelton, editor of the Eugene Guard, was one of the crew of 25 public speakers who are touring the state on the German War Trophy train in the interests of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, and stopped in Ashland this morning.

Winnie Phillips arrived home this morning from Camp Lewis, where he is stationed in army service, and will spend a furlough with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smart and Miss Jessie Barger, of Fort Collins, Colo., have come to Ashland to spend the winter. They have rented a house of W. M. Barber on Granite street.

Mrs. Benton Bowers has rented the E. A. Estes house on North Main street which she will occupy for a time in order to allow her son to attend school here.

Miss Mary Freeman, who was a teacher in the city schools, has been appointed postmistress at McCloud, and has resigned her position here to accept her new office. She expects to leave for McCloud the latter part of the week.

W. H. Canning was a visitor last week to the big exhibit of Southern California products at Los Angeles. This exhibit is the largest of any in the country and is maintained by a commercial organization in that city. Before returning home Mr. Canning expects to visit several of many other places of interest in Southern California.

Fire Chief Geo. M. Robinson and wife have returned from an automobile trip to San Francisco, where they had been spending a short vacation. They were accompanied home by their son, Merle Robinson and wife, who had been living in San Francisco for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Jr., are rejoiced to return to Ashland which, they claim, has not a superior in the world for a residence. The trip was made in Merle Robinson's Hudson Six, and only two days were spent on the road, which was remarkably fine.

Mrs. S. S. Davenport, of Lester, Ia., arrived in Ashland Thursday to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Murray Murphy.

Owing to bad roads and tire trouble, W. H. Merrin and M. T. Draper, who were expected here this week to conduct a series of meetings at the Full Gospel Assembly rooms on Fourth street, will be unable to reach here until Thursday, September 26.

Classified Advertisements TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOR RENT—For one year, furnished house with garden and orchard. Call 275 Scenic Drive.

FOR SALE—A 1916 model Ford car in good condition. Also 1 Savage rifle. Phone 354R.

FOR RENT—3 partly furnished rooms. Inquire Mrs. L. W. Rogers, 983 Oak street.

FOR RENT—Good home, with cow, chickens, vegetables, fruit and wood, and board owner. A. H. Davis, Beaver block, Phone 68.

WANTED—Experienced farmer accustomed to irrigation; one with family who can assist in milking preferred. Write or telephone, Frederick Pelouze, Eagle Point, Ore.

FOR SALE—White Leghorn year-old hens. Have averaged 198 eggs for the year. Will make good layers for another year and excellent breeders. Mrs. W. D. Booth, Phone 291R.

THOROUGHbred Flemish and New Zealand rabbits for sale. Breeding stock $3 and $4 each. None better. Am quitting the business. Order at once. H. W. Stanley, Hilt, Cal.

FOUND—A watch. Inquire 151 Coolidge street.

STOCK PASTURED by R. D. Sanford, Lower Helman street, Ashland.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.
HERE IS A REAL OPPORTUNITY—The demand for farm tractors is increasing by leaps and bounds. Western representative of Eastern concern manufacturing popular priced line of four-wheel tractors will be in this vicinity soon to close contracts. If interested address P. W. Wisdom, care Ashland Tidings.

NOTICE OF SALE OF IMPOUNDED STOCK.

Notice is hereby given that I will on Tuesday, the 1st day of October, 1918, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., offer for sale at Daney's barn, 4th st., to the highest bidder for cash, one long yearling heifer, mark split in right ear, Lazy T with D connected on right shoulder. Said heifer was impounded in the city of Ashland on the 17th day of September, 1918, and will be sold to pay the expense of impounding and keeping her since the above date. Dated this, the 21st day of September, 1918.
J. A. DANNEY,
Pound Master of the City of Ashland, Oregon.

Gambling With Destiny

Spending your income as you make it is simply gambling with destiny—and with all the odds against you. You stand all to lose and none to gain even though small, if constant, eliminates the element of chance and establishes your future on a basis of certainty.
SYSTEMATIC SAVING
This bank desires to co-operate with you in building on that basis. We have unusual facilities for promoting the interest of our customers.
STATE BANK OF ASHLAND

Beets, carrots and cabbages still flourish in the war gardens, even though green peas and sweet corn are now only a beloved memory.

HELP YOUR UNCLE SAMUEL
TAKE THE GERM OUT OF GER-MANY—GET YOUR BOND SATUR-
DAY, SEPTEMBER 28.

VAUPEL'S
STYLE SHOP
Mail Order Specialists—Authorized
Firm to Sell War Savings Stamps

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN IS NOW ON ITS WAY. BE PREPAR-ED TO GO THE LIMIT WHEN THEY GET TO YOU. DON'T HESI-TATE.

CORRECT FALL MATERIALS

FOR HOME SEWERS

Many people who have never bothered with their own sewing before, are this year following the prevailing habit of thrift and are making their own clothes, or making over things to wear another season. With this in view our buyer has exercised greater care than ever before in selecting the correct suitings, silks, dress goods, and trimming, need for fall selling.

Here Is a Big List of Most Attractive Offerings

Corsets	Velvets	Silks	Wool Dress Material
Royal Worcester, Bon Ton and Nemo comprise our complete stock of Corsets. For style, fitting and wear these corsets are incomparable. Prices range from $1.00 up to $5.00.	New piece of 36 inch black velvet in black at the popular price of $2.25 per yard. Just the thing for the new capes. Also full line of colors in the 18 inch velvet used extensively for trimming.	Plain and fancy silks fit fall to give us a trial fall dress fabrics. Our new stock is now complete and is ready for your inspection. New plaids are arriving every day. In making your selection don't fail to give us a trial and become convinced that we have the right merchandise at the right prices.	All of our new fall dress goods are all exceptional values and it will be to your own personal satisfaction and benefit to inspect our new line before making your purchase.
Silk Petticoats	Athena Underwear		Broadcloth
Petticoats which are well made from attractive and good wearing materials are certain to please our trade. New stock just in. Look for window display.	The best fitting and quality of underwear that can be bought for the money. Complete stock on hand for women and children.		Broadcloths are going to be used extensively for fall. It is one of the prettiest fabrics made for dress wear. All colors are in stock so don't delay in making your selection. All prices.
Patterns	Suitings
We carry a full stock of the well known Butterick Pattern. It is considered the best. New fall Quarterly now in stock showing you all the latest styles in which your new fall dress can be made up. Give them a trial.	Both in the plain and plaids. We have a wide range of patterns and colors to choose from. Now is the time to be thinking of that new fall dress before it is too late. Buy now and save money.
Blankets	Holeproof Hosiery		Fall Shoes
All of our new fall blankets are now in stock awaiting your inspection. It is the newest and brightest line we have ever had. Prices from 3.50 to 8.50. We have all the new plaids in every combination of colors. Every pair is a beauty and would be a credit to any home.	Nothing better in the hosiery line can be had for appearance, wear and durability than the Holeproof. We carry a full stock for men, women and children. All the new fall shades are now in stock. Come in and make your selection while our range of colors is complete.		All Black kid Louis XIV heel, pair$7.50 Brown cloth top, brown patent vamp, Louis XIV heel, pair$8.50 All gray kid high top Louis XIV heel. A value. Priced, pair$10.00 Brown and gray cloth top, military heel with kid vamp Priced, pair$8.00
Notions and Trimmings		Complete stock of buttons of all kinds now on the shelves. We also cover buttons in all shapes.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

United For Victory

Our people of the United States and those of our Allies are firmly united for victory. Your financial support is urgently needed. Subscribe now through us for Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS