

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Cliff Payne makes clothes reels.

Mrs. J. T. Patterson has gone to Portland to spend a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Inez Emery.

Rabbits for sale. Holmes Grocery. 35-1f

Miss Eunice Smith has gone to Lakeview, where she will be principal of the schools during the coming winter.

Studio Ashland, better portraits. 100-1f

Miss Helen Eake expects to leave today for Berkeley, Cal., to enter the University of California as a student.

Want a good job of finishing? Try the Camera Exchange. 1f

Mrs. Frank Bailey has gone to Klamath Falls to join her husband, who has a contract there for piling lumber.

Our kodak finishing will please the Camera Exchange. 1f

Miss Esther Whited returned to San Francisco Saturday after spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whited.

First-class cooking apples, 20 lbs. 75c delivered. Phone 9-F-11.

Allen Davis, W. H. Davis, H. E. Briggs and R. Trusty left this week will tour in the latter's car.

Look your roof over. Don't wait till stormy weather. Phone 98. 34-4t

R. B. Campbell, manager of the Southern Pacific water service between Hornbrook and Gazelle, Cal., made a brief visit to his home during the past week.

Mrs. Simons has fall and winter hats on display. Call and see styles and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. 33-1f

O. W. Pierson, chief clerk of the lumber department for the Fruit Growers' Supply company of Hill, Cal., was a business caller in Ashland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Holbert left Tuesday evening for Reedsport, where they will conduct a rooming house which they and their son-in-law, Nick Brown, are building.

Mrs. Ernst Minuth and little son and Mrs. Marie Minuth have gone to Santa Barbara, Cal., on a two months' visit. They were accompanied by Ernst Minuth as far as Oakland.

Mrs. C. E. Davis has gone to McCloud to visit for a few days, after which, in company with Mrs. E. B. Cary, she will go to Los Angeles and San Diego for a couple of months.

Mrs. B. C. Gillis, of Windom, Minn., who had been a guest at the home of her brother, H. S. Palmerlee, for the past month, left last week for California to visit for a time before returning to her home.

Lynn Mowat is one of the well-known Ashland boys who has recently received a commission as second lieutenant in the heavy artillery branch of the service. He has been taking a special course in the officers' training school at Fortress Monroe, Va., during the past summer.

Miss Glen Roberts, who has been serving as bookkeeper at the Ashland creamery for some time, has resigned her position to accept one in Portland. She is succeeded at the creamery by Miss Harriet Trask.

Raymond and H. D. Badger, Jr., arrived in Ashland last week from Oakland, Cal., in their car, where they spent a few days preparatory to going to Corvallis. Raymond will enter the O. A. C. during the coming winter.

Miss Lydia McCall, of the local postoffice force, has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent in Klamath Falls. She was accompanied home by her brother, John McCall, assistant postmaster of Klamath Falls.

Rev. W. L. Mellinger, who has been with the Mutual Chautauqua Bureau for the past summer, is expected home this week and will fill the pulpit in the Christian church next Sunday. Mr. Mellinger has traveled extensively through the Middle Western states lecturing in this circuit.

Miss Lillian Kaiser left Monday for Berkeley, Cal., where she will enter the University of California for the coming year. Miss Kaiser has been teaching for some time in the public schools of San Jose, Cal., where she has a life position. This year, however, she has had a leave of absence in order to take special training at the University.

Lieutenant John Finneran is spending a short furlough here from the training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco, where he lately completed the course in the officers' training camp and won his commission. Lieutenant Finneran expects to leave Ashland today for a camp at Boulder, Colo.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND. United For Victory. Our people of the United States and those of our Allies are firmly united for victory. Your financial support is urgently needed. Subscribe now through us for Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Photo Albums

A BIG ASSORTMENT

Keep your pictures in perfect order, where you can find easily, in one of these Albums.

SEE OUR BIG DISPLAY IN WINDOW.

Poley's Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists

Mrs. A. L. Harvey, of B street, left Wednesday for Klamath Falls to spend several weeks with her children living there.

Misses Myrtle and Edna Dougherty returned home Sunday from Weed, where they had been spending several days visiting with friends.

Mrs. Emma Adams of Grant street received a message this week that her son, James Quincy, stationed at Fort Monroe, Va., had received his commission as second lieutenant.

Miss Irma Phillips is a guest of Ashland friends while on her way from Oakland, Cal., to near Corvallis, where she will teach school the coming winter.

Hubert Prescott, son of W. G. Prescott, left Monday for Corvallis to enter the military training course at the Oregon Agricultural College. He will go to Portland to visit his grandfather before starting in at school.

A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gordon of Los Angeles, Cal., September 5. The mother was formerly Dr. Mary Anderson, who was associated with Dr. Bertha Sawyer in the practice of osteopathy in Ashland.

Time to Think of Stoves. We take your old stove in exchange for a new Heating Stove or Range.

Provost Brothers

HARDWARE

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moss and little daughter returned the fore part of the week from San Diego, Cal., where they had been spending some time. Mr. Moss expects to go to Lakeview in a few days to look after business interests there.

Miss Lydia McCall, of the local postoffice force, has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent in Klamath Falls. She was accompanied home by her brother, John McCall, assistant postmaster of Klamath Falls.

Rev. W. L. Mellinger, who has been with the Mutual Chautauqua Bureau for the past summer, is expected home this week and will fill the pulpit in the Christian church next Sunday. Mr. Mellinger has traveled extensively through the Middle Western states lecturing in this circuit.

Miss Lillian Kaiser left Monday for Berkeley, Cal., where she will enter the University of California for the coming year. Miss Kaiser has been teaching for some time in the public schools of San Jose, Cal., where she has a life position. This year, however, she has had a leave of absence in order to take special training at the University.

Lieutenant John Finneran is spending a short furlough here from the training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco, where he lately completed the course in the officers' training camp and won his commission. Lieutenant Finneran expects to leave Ashland today for a camp at Boulder, Colo.

Captain Richard Russell of the Medical Department of Camp Lewis, who will address the meeting of the selectives in Medford next Saturday evening.

Leith Abbott returned home Tuesday from Portland, where he has been employed during the past summer. He will spend a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Abbott, of Alida street, before leaving for Eugene to take up army work.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McClure, of Bend, Ore., were in Ashland over Sunday visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Holmes. They left Monday morning in their Overland car for Crater Lake, and will return home from there. Mr. McClure, who was a clerk in the Holmes grocery store here last year, now has the agency for the Overland and Dodge cars in Bend.

Olin Conwell has returned from Sunnyside, Wash., where he has been employed during the past summer.

Leit. on Sunday, September 15th, a bar pin with rosette in center, made of twisted gold wire, surmounted with a pearl. Reward. Box E, Tidings office. 37-2

Edmund Barrett, who is with the 65th Artillery in France, writes home that his regiment is within sound of the big guns at the front.

The largest and most exclusive line of millinery in Southern Oregon. Miss Lounsbury, Milliner, 126 E. Main street, Medford, Ore. 37-1mo

Sergeants H. G. Wolcott and G. A. Graham, of the Thirteenth company, Columbia, are home from Fort Stevens on a seven-day furlough.

Any one having a baby buggy they would donate or lend to a worthy party kindly call Rev. Elva Hobart, 417R phone.

Gloss Dollarhide and wife of Portland, Ore., are visiting their daughter, Elva Hobart, pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city.

Rev. Elva A. Hobart will hold a special meeting at the Neil Creek schoolhouse beginning Thursday evening, September 26, Rev. R. H. Dollarhide, of Roseburg, assisting.

Notice is hereby given that permission to hunt on the undersigned's property is reserved. This includes not only hay fields but pasture around the Jackson-Arnold dam on Bear Creek.

G. P. BILLINGS, RALPH BILLINGS, 37-5

Mrs. D. D. Norris and little sons left last evening for Los Angeles, on an extended visit with friends.

Miss Ora Patrick, who has been spending the past summer in Honolulu, H. I., is in Ashland spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patrick, before going to Palo Alto, Cal., where she will teach during the coming winter.

The three men who were arrested in Ashland last Thursday on the charge of bringing liquor into the state were brought back here from the county jail Monday morning and given sentence, which consisted of a fine of $250 each and 60 days in jail.

Alma Doran, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Doran, of Ashland street, while playing with her cousin, Alice Doran, last evening, fell from the top of a fence and broke both bones in her left wrist. Dr. G. O. Jarvis was called and reduced the fracture, and the patient is getting along nicely.

Last Sunday evening, while the family of Chief of Police Hatcher were at church the storeroom at their home was entered by sneak thieves and a large quantity of honey confiscated. During the present shortage of sugar the loss of this honey is a sore trial to the chief, who will have to go without the anticipated sweetening for his hotcakes for the coming winter breakfasts.

George T. Damon had the thumb and third finger of his right hand badly lacerated last Monday morning while operating a circular rip saw in his planing mill on B. street. Mr. Damon had gloves on at the time and in reaching over the saw the latter caught in the material and drew the hand down against the saw. No permanent injury resulted, but Mr. Damon will have a sore hand for some time.

Mrs. B. M. Shoudy left last evening for San Francisco, where she will visit for a time.

E. C. Bartlett has purchased the farm across Bear Creek from G. S. Butler, and will take possession about October 1. This is very desirable grazing and farm land, and has been operated by Albert Arnold for the past two years under lease.

Miss Corinne Sweet leaves today for Berkeley to enter the University of California. Miss Sweet has been a teacher in the Bellevue schools for the past two years, and expects to remain in the university for the entire four years' course. She was accompanied to the city by her sister, Mrs. M. E. Warren, of Oakland, who had been a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sweet.

Having repurchased the Ashland Garage, I will be pleased to have old and new customers call. I am prepared to do all electrical work, battery recharging, overhauling generators, starters, and ignition systems. Special price on overhauling engines. All work guaranteed. 37-1 M. B. ROBISON.

NOTICE OF SALE OF IMPOUNDED STOCK.

Notice is hereby given that I will on Tuesday, the 1st day of October, 1918, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., offer for sale at Daney's barn, 4th st., to the highest bidder for cash, one long yearling heifer, mark split in right ear, Lazy T with D connected on right shoulder. Said heifer was impounded in the city of Ashland on the 17th day of September, 1918, and will be sold to pay the expense of impounding and keeping her since the above date.

Dated this, the 21st day of September, 1918. J. A. DANEY, Pound Master of the City of Ashland, Oregon. 36-2

HELP YOUR UNCLE SAMUEL TAKE THE GERM OUT OF MANY—GET YOUR BOND SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28.

VAUPEL'S STYLE SHOP Mail Order Specialists—Authorized Firm to Sell War Savings Stamps

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN IS NOW ON ITS WAY. BE PREPARED TO GO THE LIMIT WHEN THEY GET TO YOU. DON'T HESITATE.

CORRECT FALL MATERIALS FOR HOME SEWERS

Many people who have never bothered with their own sewing before, are this year following the prevailing habit of thrift and are making their own clothes, or making over things to wear another season. With this in view our buyer has exercised greater care than ever before in selecting the correct suitings, silks, dress goods, and trimming, need for fall selling.

Here Is a Big List of Most Attractive Offerings

Grid of clothing items: Corsets, Velvets, Silks, Wool Dress Material, Broadcloth, Silk Petticoats, Athena Underwear. Each item includes a brief description and price.

Patterns: We carry a full stock of the well known Butterick Pattern. It is considered the best. New fall Quarterly now in stock showing you all the latest styles in which your new fall dress can be made up. Give them a trial.

Blankets, Holeproof Hosiery, Notions and Trimmings, Fall Shoes. Each section lists various items and prices.