Do You Know

How much value you have in your household furniture? You have been buying things for the house ever since you began housekeeping—probably many of these are as good as new—at least so far as your use is concerned. How many of them could you get along without? How much money could you spare from your earnings to re-furnish the house if you should lose ALL of the contents of your home outright? Do you know how little it will cost to insure your household effects against loss by fire or the water damage resulting from fire? Write, phone or
